

68 the 4th of this month, but time has been very kind to me. Tip the beam at at about 200 pounds; have lots of vim and hustle left, but less inclined to use it as of yore. Think I am good for another score of years. No doubt but there have been great changes and improvements made in the 50 years past at the school. The roll call sure has lengthened; ours was about 115 to 120.

Interclass Baseball Season Nearing a Close.

This week will probably see the ending of the interclass baseball season. The past few days have witnessed a striking change in the standing of the four teams. Capt. Glenn's Junior nine has taken a sudden spurt which has resulted in their advancement to second place, and at the same time the 1913 aggregation has dropped into third position. This change in the standing has been due no doubt to the fact that Minick is now on the mound for 1911, for his twirling has put courage and confidence into the rest of the team, and they have been playing better baseball ever since. Should they win the next three games, they will tie the Seniors for the championship. Last Saturday a double header was played. In the first game, 1911 ran away with the Sophomores in a loosely played contest. At the end of seven innings the score stood, 1911-15, 1912-7. In the second game by a grand ninth inning rally, the Seniors
