the "President's Address;" and B. G. Rumsey will follow with the "Pipe Oration." At the close of his address the pipe is handed over to the incoming Senior President. Robert Buka has been chosen as Presenter, filling a part of the program much appreciated by the audience, but dreaded by the anxious members of the class. The "Ivy Oration" will be delivered by W. R. Lams. The ivy is to be planted at the northeast corner of the Engineering Building. At the end of the program there will be sung for the first time a class song, "Farewell" composed by G. E. Ogilvie. The line will then double on itself, and each man will shake hands successively with every other man in line. The handclasp is a peculiarly fitting way of saying "Good by" to the old days spent in the Class of 1910, and at the same time wishing success for the new work that is to come.
