

CLUBS PLAN CONSOLIDATION

Musical and Dramatic Organizations
Seek to Better Conditions for Next Year.

The leaders and managers of the various musical and dramatic organizations throughout the college together with the members of the faculty having these affairs in charge, met in order to discuss methods of fostering and bettering the conditions of all these organizations. In the past, there has been no person at the head of the musical clubs who could devote his entire time to the training of the men, the leadership resting upon the shoulders of a few of the students who willingly take time from their regular work to help develop the musical qualities of the members, and in this these men have met with some success. The orchestra has been able to secure at different times during the past year the services of Mr. Cogswell as director and wonderful work has been accomplished in perfecting the playing of the orchestra.

It is a person of this kind whom the other musical organizations are in need of, some one who can give his undivided time and attention during the entire year to the producing of the best music possible, and to the training of the men in both vocal and instrumental music. It is for such a thing, that is, the securing of a professional leader, that the men who have the future of these clubs at heart are striving, and it is hoped that with the support of the students their aim may become a reality. Up to the present time the leaders and managers have come to no definite conclusion.

At this meeting, it was also decided to have a committee composed of several members from each organization, arrange the dates, both at home and on the trips, for all the musical and dramatic clubs so that
