Musical Entertainment.

The musical concert given by the Schubert Concert company in the Auditorium on Saturday evening was most successfully entertaining. The proceeds of the entertainment are to be devoted to the building fund of the new Episcopal church; and it is to be hoped that the financial success was equal to the excellence of the affair itself.

The opening number, "Morning, Noon and Night in Vienna," by Suppe, was given by the orchestra with great sense of harmony and depth of feeling. The description was vividly portrayed, and gave evidence of intelligent interpretation. The work of the college orchestra throughout was most polished and musical, giving promise of upholding last year's splendid record.

Mr. G. E. Bender presented "Eri-to" from Verdi's "Ballo in Maschera," in excellent manner. Although hindered by a bad cold, he succeeded, through his smooth agreeable baritone, in reaching the audience. His encore was also enthusiastically received.

"Rhapsodie Hungroise," (No. 2) by Listz, was interpreted in admirable manner by Mr. Harrison Willis Burch. Both in technique and in feeling, he proved himself complete master. In "The Wild Rose," the encore, his treatment was most pleasingly delicate and skillful.

Mrs. Ellison West gave her soprano solo, "Merrily I Roam," by Schuloff, in a sprightly and agreeable style. Her voice was remarkable sweet on the low notes, and of good volume on the upper part of her range. The Irish Court-ing song, presented in response to the call of the audience, was very clever and quaint.

"The Hazing of Valliant," was the first reading given by Miss E. Blanch Bender. Through the value of the selection, and the reader's pleasant style, the number was made very interesting to the audience.

Mr. Alex P. Gray scored a decided success in Wilson's "The Mountebank Song." Mr. Gray's clear, strong tone had no taint of harshness or discord, and was admirably controlled. The free, swinging style of the selection, also, seemed particularly adapted for his voice.

The Glee club, in opening the second half, gave in excellent manner "Comrades in Arms," by Adams. There was plenty of volume and rhythm, and splendid spirit. The work was a great improvement over that of last year. The encore, the new college song written by Mr. K. B. Lehman, '10, was also rendered in a manner which reflected credit both upon the author and the organization.

Mrs. West gave as her second number, the trio "There, Little Girl, Don't Cry," Campion; "Thoughts Have Wings," Lehman, and "The Last Milestone," Pontet. Her work, as in the first part, was excellently presented.

The reading selected by Miss Bender was "The Bride's First Shopping Trip." The number was exceedingly interesting to the audience.

Mr. Burch played in surpassing manner the Listz Transcription of Verdi's "Rigoletto." His work, just as in the former number, was skillful, artistic, and powerful.

The compositions, "If I Were a Rose," by Bohannan, and "Ich Grolle Nicht," by Schuman, received admirable treatment by Mr. Bender. "Ich Grolle Nicht," with the violin and piano accompaniment, was particularly toneful and pleasant.

The final number, given by the orchestra, consisted of Moskow's "Spanish Dances." These scores, presented in the usual capable manner of the organization, formed a fitting close to a pleasant evening of music.

"Chief" Waha Tennis Champion of the Southwest.

In what is said by experts to be the most brilliant game of tennis ever played on a local court and perhaps the best ever played in the territory, H. B. Waha, of Albuquerque, yesterday won the final in the singles, defeating C. R. Hindered, of Prescott, 21 to 16 games.

The match was the best three out of five sets, for the championship of the southwest, and the handsome silver cup offered by O. A. Matson. It was a championship contest, each man having previously held the title of champion, Mr. Waha, of Pennsylvania State college, and Mr. Hindered, of Arizona. In the first set, Mr. Waha was clear off his form and Mr. Hindered led easily, winning 6 to 2. Until the middle of the second set, Waha was hard pressed, but gained his game at this stage of the game, and played very aggressively. He was able to combine both speed and accuracy, and although Hindered put up a very fine exhibition, he was decisively beaten.

Time and again the Prescott man got shots that seemed impossible in point of brilliancy it can safely be said that both men were equal, but Waha excelled in accuracy. Many of the games were deuce games and it was impossible to tell until the very close of the last set how the match would result. Both men used an affective save.

This evening at a dinner, to be given at the Alvarado, the championship cup will be presented to Mr. Waha probably by Mayor Felix H. Lester, who was a contestant for the trophy.

"Tommy" Fennell nominated for State Treasurer of New York

It will be of great interest to those who know "Tommy" Fennell and appreciate his ability to coach a football team as well as plead a case before a jury to learn that he has been nominated for State Treasurer on the Republican ticket of the State of New York. The Collegian expresses the sentiment of all who knew him in wishing him a large majority at the coming election. With Mr. Fennell as State Treasurer, it is an assured fact that the finances of New York State will be in the hands of a clean, honest man. Again we wish you success, "Tommy."

University Dance Under Auspices of Harrisburg Club.

At a recent meeting of the Harrisburg club it was decided to give a dance at Harrisburg on the twenty-ninth of December. The following committee was appointed, E. Workman, chairman; Metzger, '11; Weaver, '12; Fortenbaugh, '12; Holler, '13; Rinkenbaugh, '13; Weaver, '13.

An effort is being made to make the affair one of the most elaborate functions ever undertaken by a similar organization.
