PENNSYLVANIA DAY

Many Prominent Men Have Already Expressed their Intention of Attending.

Pennsylvania day has become an important occasion at the Pennsylvania State college, second only to Commencement. It brings together from all parts of the state members of the general assembly and others interested in public affairs who want to study the conditions of their state college and to inquire intelligently into its needs. As an opportunity for renewing friendships and of making new acquaintances, the occasion has few equals in the state. Similar celebrations in privately endowed college and universities are known as "Founder's Day," in honor of the institution. In this tax-supported college, founded by the federal government and the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, founder's day is any day appointed to be celebrated by the people for whom the college was established.

Friday, Nov. 11, has been set aside as the date for this celebration in 1910. Promises of attendance have already come from many prominent men of the state. The exercises of the day will consist of a short program in the Auditorium; an inspection of the buildings, laboratories, shops and campus; a review of the regiment of 900 college cadets; and a game of football between the teams of the sophomore and freshman classes. By this varied program it is hoped to give visitors a glimpse of the daily life of the fifteen hundred students now enjoying the benefits of an education provided largely by the munificence of the state. Special provision will be made to care for representatives of the press.

On the evening before Pennsylvania day at 5.30 p. m., supper will be served at the Woman's building by the students in domestic science to all college guests. Immediately afterward, an informal reception will be given in the rooms of the Engineering club with music by the college musical organization.

The members of the various fraternities invite all guests to attend their house-party dances on Thursday evening.

The Bellefonte club will entertain over night those who arrive at Bellefonte late Thursday afternoon.

The University club, located at 139 Frazier street, offers the freedom of its house to all who receive invitation to attend the exercises of Pennsylvania day.

Resolutions of Condolence.

The following resolutions were passed by the class of 1913.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to take from our dear friend and classmate, Edmund Joseph, his father,

Be it resolved, That we the members of the class of 1913, extend our heartfelt sympathy to him and the family, in this their hour of sorrow

Be it further resolved; That these resolutions be published in the State Collegian, be spread upon the minutes, and that a copy be forwarded to the bereaved family.

Signed, R. F. Bigham, Jr., Secretary Class of 1913.

Dr. Robert N. Willson of Philadelphia will speak at the Chapel service next Sunday morning.

Scrubs Tie with Lock Haven.

Last Saturday afternoon while the Varsity was contesting honors with Penn on Franklin field, the Scrubs were engaged in a heated combat with the gridiron heroes of the Central State Normal School at Lock Haven.

The struggle although it was not a spectacular exhibition of the college game was warmly contested and resulted in a tie with neither team scoring. On the defense the scrubs played an exceptionally good game, their goal never being in great danger of being crossed. Had they played so well on the offence they undoubtedly would have returned with a scalp dangling to their belts. As it was however, they played fairly consistent football when one considers that this was the first time the team had been together.

Lock Haven pulled off two or three well executed forward passes which carried the ball down the field close to our goal, but here they were forced to kick and consequently had no chance to score.

According to the conversation of the members of both teams the referee was certainly an amateur and was not thoroughly acquainted with the new rules or else lacked the ability to enforce them.

The features of the game were the tackling of Adams and the all-around work of Fleming whose punting was exceptionally good, averaging fifty yards. The line up was as follows,

Adams	lt	Newton
Thomas	lt	Vogel
Lubinger	lt	Vogel
Rhearer	lt	Rhoads
Benson	rg	McYuan
Huhler	rt	Lesh
Donahue	re	Butle
Bernhiesel	rb	Clark
Koenig	rb	Johnson
Woolridge	fb	Brown
Fleming	fb	Kaiser
Referee, Gilson	Umpire, Donahue	Timekeepers, Sullivan, Jones
Linesmen, Smith, Stevens

In the evening the principal of the Normal, Dr. Flickinger, gave an informal dance in the gymnasium. All the girls and boys from the school as well as all the members of the faculty were in attendance. After the dance the students went to their respective dormitories. The boys at the Normal sang their school songs and the State men responded with the Alma Mater and all of the other college songs.

After the college yell for "the girls" and for "Lock Haven" the State students voted Lock Haven Normal a most entertaining host.

Dr. Gill Recovering.

It will be welcome news to all to learn that Dr. Gill, our faithful chaplain and friend, has been discharged from the Johns Hopkins University Hospital. The first operation was not very successful and a second one was resorted to, which we are all glad to know, was quite successful. Although Dr. Gill was discharged from the hospital last week, his physicians deemed it wise for him to remain in Baltimore for a few days. However he is slowly but steadily improving and will be with us again in a short time.

To All County and City Clubs.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION

Thirty-seventh International Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. of North America to be held at Toronto, Can., Oct. 28-31.

The Thirty-seventh International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America will be held in the City of Toronto, Oct. 28-31, in response to the cordial invitation of the Toronto association and of the entire Association Brotherhood in Canada.

Fifty-six years have elapsed since the meeting of the first International Convention of the North American Associations and the forthcoming convention will be the fourth of the series to be held in Canada, the last convention held on Canadian soil being that of 1876, which also met in Toronto.

Great advances have been made in the work for young men and boys during the intervening thirty-four years, and never did the international bond uniting the men of these two nations in this christian service and fellowship possess the significance that it does today.

The welcome from Canada is full of that marvelous national spirit which is pulsating more and more strongly, from Halifax to Vancouver, in that great and growing nation, and the response to that spirit from the men of the United States was never so strong and brotherly as at the present time.

The convention will open at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. Among the topics which will be presented for general discussion are:

- (1) "Safe-guarding the Boys of a Continent."
- (2) In view of (a) the growth of Church Brotherhoods and kindred organizations, (b) our Civic and Industrial opportunities, (c) the modern Association building; (d) the development of work outside of the building; what is the association objective and what changes, if any, are required in our religious work methods?"

Addresses will also be delivered upon the following themes:

- (1) A Decade of Progress in work among young men and boys at home and abroad."
- (2) "The Conservation of Rural Manhood."
- (3) "The Unifying Power of Christ and His service."
- (4) "Character the Basis of Efficiency in the industrial world."
- (5) "The Latent Powers of the men of North America."

In place of one of the regular sessions on Saturday, Oct. 29th, an International Athletic Meet and Gymnastic Exhibition will be held, information concerning which can be had by addressing Dr. George J. Fisher, 124 East 28th Street, New York City.

It is important that each association be represented by the full quota of regular delegates carefully selected and in addition, send other representative men, active in and intelligent concerning association work, who will attend as corresponding delegates.

Ten or eleven men will represent State at this great convention.
