

It is a Pleasure

To wear full dress, or other bosom shirts that are laundered by us.

Our ironing department is equipped throughout with the latest types of steam press machines. By this most modern process your shirts are laid on a soft, heavily padded ironing board, and the bosoms and neckbands are correctly shaped. They are then ironed in this position, by steam pressure. When the shirt is finished it has the correct shape of the body and when worn, the bosom lies close to the chest and does not buckle or bulge up under the chin, as do shirts that are ironed by the old obsolete type of bosom ironers, with the revolving rolls.

Your negligee shirts are ironed by the same process and with the same care. The cuffs attached also receive the same fine domestic finish as those that are separate.

We have made every effort to make our laundry one of the finest in the country, and the quality of the work all that could be desired by the most fastidious. The quality of our work has a tone of refinement particular to itself. Besides we make your linen live.

We have a number of agents at State College. Any of them will be glad to take care of your trade.

We will appreciate your patronage and we know you will greatly appreciate the high grade work we turn out. Our prices you will find are reasonable.

From now on we will carefully MEND ALL SOCKS.

FOR THE MUSIC LOVERS

An Opportunity to Produce Illustrated Songs at Penn State.

There is an interesting feature for lovers of music, in the State Museum at Harrisburg, in the form of a free loan collection of lantern slides that will be sent to any part of the State for educational purposes. These slides illustrate the music of various periods, evolution of musical instruments, collections portraying musicians, their homes, their achievements, and illustrations of their works.

In the evolution of musical instruments, are those of the piano; first the crude bow with one string, then three strings, then the harp and finally the piano. There is also a development of the organ, the wind instruments, percussion and mechanical instruments.

"Monuments to Music", include Wagner's Theatre, the Paris Opera house, and others.

Many slides are on hand from which sets can be made to illustrate songs as the following—

- AMERICA
- My country 'tis of thee
(A beautiful country landscape with brooks and tumbling fountains)
- Sweet Land of Liberty,
Of thee I sing
(Statue of Liberty in New York harbor)
- Land where my fathers died
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
(Bunker Hill monument)

From every mountain side,
Let Freedom ring.
(Homes in a sheltered valley, below towering mountains).

My native country, thee,
(A southern river, with beautiful woodland banks and reflections).

Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love.

(French's famous statue of the "Minute Men," on the old battlefield, Concord, Mass).

I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
(Rugged, rocky hillside, with brook and waterfall).

My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

(Glances of immensely high cliffs in the Rockies, above beautiful valley).

Let music swell the breeze
(The old Liberty Bell, in Independence hall).

And ring from all the trees
Sweet Freedom's song.

(A forest road among the Cascade mountains, Ore.

Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,

(View from West Point parade ground up the Hudson river).

Let rocks their silence break,
Thy sound prolong

(In Yosemite Valley, with mountains on either side reflected in river).

Our father's God, to thee,
(Home of Washington, at Mount Vernon)

Author of liberty,
To thee we sing

(Interior of a beautiful church, with stained glass windows)

Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light,

(The Capitol at Washington).

Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!

(A wonderfully fine view of a thoroughly typical American crowd of people—all ages, many social conditions—a reminder of our essential unity of spirit).

The American Flag.

Cross Country Run.

Plans are nearing completion for the cross country run to be held some day during the week following Thanksgiving. Up to the present time quite a large number have been faithfully practicing for this event and it is urgent that any man who is interested in cross country running whether he be senior, junior, sophomore or freshman get out in his spare moments to prepare himself for this coming meet. Although the number of men has dropped off somewhat in the last few days there are still some who anticipate a lively race for first honors.

As has been announced, prizes are offered for men taking places, so it is up to all who think they have a chance to win to take part and make this a success.

The course to be taken for the run has not been definitely mapped out, but it will be approximately five miles long and will be run over the same course as the last year with some additional territory included.

Lost or taken by mistake at the Push Ball scrap: a duck coat, containing papers and a fountain pen

Reward if returned to Harold T. Webner, 414 Pugh street. Bell phone 126-2.

HOW ABOUT PITTSBURG?

The Time is Near at Hand When Every State Man Should be Thinking About the Thanksgiving Game.

Every fall Penn State has been sending large delegations of students to the big football games at Wilkesbarre, Williamsport and Philadelphia, but never in the history of our institution has State been fairly represented by the student body at the annual game in Pittsburg. As Western Pennsylvania furnishes the largest proportion of men to our college, we should remedy this matter on the occasion of our big game with Pitt this Thanksgiving day.

The people of Pittsburg do not realize what a powerful institution we have at Penn State, but we can easily open their eyes by sending one thousand undergrads to Pittsburg Thanksgiving day, and along with this delegation our 400 Pittsburg Alumni will join in an "Old State" yell, which will fairly raise the concrete walls of Forbes field from their foundations. It is the duty of our College to give Pittsburgers an idea of what Penn State really is and arrangements should be made with the railroad for a special train and the matter worked out enthusiastically and successfully.

Foltz-Tage.

T. F. Foltz, '06, and Miss Ethel M. Tage were married on Tuesday, October 18, at the home of the bride in Atlantic City, N. J. John K. Barnes, '09 acted as best man, and L. C. Westcoat, '10 was among the guests. Mr. Foltz has been connected with the Pennsylvania railroad for some time, and is now assistant engineer of the Pittsburg division. Their address after December 1 will be 1307 Walnut Avenue, Wilkesburg, Pa.
