Why is an Olive? The story with a string to it.

A Letter From "Pastime".

Editor State Collegian:

In last week's issue of your paper we note you have expressed the so called "Sentiment of Student Body," in regard to our new amusement enterprise, erected at no little expense, and primarily, as a "Pastime" place of amusement. We also note that the sentiment seems to be that we are charging an exorbitant price as an admission fee. May we ask, through the lines of your paper, that each fellow please consider: The so called, "Out-of-the-way place" in which we are located; the great difference in our population to draw from, as compared with the majority of our neighboring towns and cities which support an amusement of this kind; the difference in the cost of transportation of our different necessities; the time that we are able to run each day (being able to run at night on'y, with the exception of two matinees each week); and lastly the comparatively small seating capacity of our hall. As we have been obliged to enter the amusement field in State College as a sort of an experiment (nothing of the kind ever having had a permanent foundation here, it is only through the co-operation of the Student Body, as well as of the people at large, that we may at some time in the near future be able to produce a similar amusement at one-half our present admission. We hope to see in the near future, as we have thus far, the appreciation of all, in order that we may, possibly by next September, be able to produce a good show at "The Pastime" for a nickel.

We feel that, under the present conditions, each and every one in our little community may come when he can, enjoy himself for an hour, and consider his ten cents well spent.

Sincerely,
The Management

Rifle Club Notice.

The new indoor rifle-range in the Armory annex is ready for use. All students interested in rifle shooting who wish to compete for positions on the rifle team will leave their names in room 414 Main as early as possible so that the schedule for practice can be made up at once. The intercollegiate match this year will take place at an early date which makes it necessary to select the team at once.

R. D. Quickel Wins Promotion.

Professor Ralph Detwiler Quickel, who has been connected with the mining department of the University of Kentucky, at Lexington, for the past three years, has just been appointed fuel engineer for the Queen and Crescent Railroad Company, connecting Cincinnati with New Orleans. Professor Quickel is a Harrisburg boy, and an '08 graduate of State College.

Mr. Withers' Lecture.

The illustrated lecture given last Saturday night in the Auditorium was well attended and very interesting. His subject, "Tree Doctoring," was a novel one and one which is becoming more and more studied and practiced each day, especially in the cities of our country, where the preservation of shade trees is causing great concern.

Press Club Picture.

A picture of the members of the Penn State Press Club will be taken next Saturday at 1:30 at the Auditorium. All members, especially the county representatives, are urged to be present on this occasion.
