

Agricultural News.

Dean Hunt, of the School of Agriculture, who has been on a leave of absence since last summer, reports a thorough period of study and recreation in southern France.

The Agricultural train sent out by the Cumberland Valley Railroad will be in charge of the School of Agriculture and Experiment Station. It will make a two days' trip, March 10-11, through that farming region. Stops will be made at a number of important points along the route.

Farmer's week will be held at Greenville, Pa., February 27 to March 3, 1911, by the School of Agriculture and Experiment Station of this college for the benefit of the people of western Pennsylvania. It is believed that many hundreds of practical farmers may be willing to spend four full days with the scientists of the School of Agriculture and Experiment Station, who will discuss the problems of practical farmers, stockmen and fruit growers. A thorough course of lectures will be given during this week by members of the faculty from this department.

Resolutions.

Resolved, that we the class of 1911 while bowing to the Divine Will do hereby express our profound sorrow, and be it

Resolved, That we extend to the family our sincere sympathy in this their great bereavement, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Penn State Collegian.

The Pennsylvania State college school of mines has been asked to cooperate with the United States bureau of mines in preparing an exhibit illustrative of the mining industries of the United States for the great international exposition to be held at Turin, Italy, during the coming summer.

The school of mines will furnish a part of the material now in its museum, notably three large cases of transparencies, illustrating both anthracite and bituminous coal mining, slate mining, the Cornwall iron ore banks, and other views typical of the mineral industries of Pennsylvania. These cases are now being packed for shipment and will be sent to Turin in a few days.

Have you the Memindex habit?

IT IS A COMFORTABLE HABIT. Here is one way of benefiting by it. Glance over the cards in the morning, thus refreshing your memory and getting a view of matters requiring attention. Put on the card for the day an outline of these and go to your office mind free and with a definite plan of action in your pocket Memindex. Refer to it often it will help you to move things along. Meanwhile you will be jotting down more points that will help you to plan how you will spend tomorrow.

THE MAN WHO IS "WISE" highly appreciates the Memindex—a handy device for keeping before you just the things you want to see to, and keeping other memoranda where you can find them quickly.

THE MAN WHO IS "SLOW" finds the Memindex just what he needs to keep things in order so the brain will grasp them quickly, and to relieve the mind of trying to remember things.

Herr Starke's Lectures.

Herr Starke delivered an interesting lecture on the Geography of Germany last Wednesday evening before the German Verein. On March 1 he will give a talk on the history of Germany, leading up to the present political conditions. Everyone is invited to these lectures.

A Prime Hereford steer fed by the school of Agriculture was exhibited on foot and carcass before the live stock breeders associations in Harrisburg. The thickness of covering, color, texture and marbling of meat, was pronounced almost perfect by those present.

A carload of livestock was sent to Harrisburg for demonstration and exhibition purposes. In the car were two pure-bred Aberdeen Angus cows, two Shorthorn steers, two Berkshire and one Chester White brood sows and four Delaine Merino ewe lambs. A blue ribbon was won by the college stock in every class.
