

The Taylor System.

While the Taylor system of efficient planning for industrial plants is revolutionizing the present method of doing work and handling men it has until quite recently been confined entirely to shops and factories.

The department of Industrial Engineering has, however, made a start along the study of the subject with the point in view of making a thorough study of the question, and has added to the present shop equipment a Tabor tool grinder, made by the Tabor Tool Co. of Philadelphia. Tools will be shaped and ground on this machine, which will be made from high speed, Tabor process steel, donated by the Bethlehem Steel Co.

A system of planning for test results will be started and cards made out and tabulated from data obtained on this machine. Mr. Hathaway, who is interested in the application of the Taylor system in the Tabor Co's shops, will be at the College some time in the near future and will give a talk on the Taylor system.
