The Old Spirit

The old Penn State spirit of cheering for visiting athletic teams as strongly as we do for our own was well exemplified in the Bucknell Meet on Saturday; and the spirit of fair play is an asset which we should forever cherish as part of our college code. But should not this spirit be extended to other fields than that of the track, the gridiron, or the diamond? The poor attention accorded the Chapel speaker on Sunday was a distinct exception to our theory of the "square deal." When similar happenings have occurred before, we have been appealed to from the standpoint of politeness and of gentlemanly conduct. Since, for self evident reasons, that appeal has failed in its effect, it seems that the only remaining solution is to call upon college spirit. If for no other reason, then, than to uphold our ideal of fair play, let us recieve in an honorable manner every visitor who comes to us, and let us treat each one in a way that will not tarnish or mar our record of clean, square, conduct.

Game Schedules

The game schedules issued by C. W. Smith of the Toggery shop are very neatly and conveniently arranged. The cards give the date of our baseball, interclass baseball, and track events with space reserved for noting the scores, and Mr. Smith deserves praise for supplying a college need in so complete and convenient a manner.

Sophomores Awarded Game.

The senior—sophomore game of last Saturday came to an abrupt ending in the sixth inning with the score standing 7 to 6 in the sophomores' favor. In this inning Mason 1911 reached first base safely. Caruthers the next batter bunted a ball towards first base, which Umpire Sheldon called foul. The seniors refused to accept Sheldon's decision and he awarded the game to the sophomores. The seniors have protested the game.

The score:

							R	H	E
1911	3	0	0	0	3	0	-6	8	4
1913	-1	6	0	0	0	0	—7	6	4

Two-base hit—Murphey. Base on balls—Off Lentz 1, off Hechinger 3. Struck out. By Lentz 5, by Hechinger 4 Umpire—Sheldon.

Professor J. P. Jackson spoke in Lock Haven last week to a large audience of men composed of the members of the Presbyterian Brotherhood and their friends. His address was entitled "The Importance of An Industrial Education."
