

Coming—Coming Coming.

Balmer's Boy Choir of Africa will be with us on Saturday evening, Nov. 4. This entertainment is the first one to be presented of the Y. M. C. A. series, and it is one not to be missed. The choir has made repeated appearances before the late King Edward, and before many of the nobility of England. Mr. Balmer has had great success abroad with his novel company, and his numerous appearances throughout the United States have been greeted with enthusiasm.

Now is the time—get your ticket at once. Freshmen sit up and take notice, phone or call at the Y. M. C. A. office and buy your tickets as your predecessors have done. The general admission for five entertainments is $1.50, for a single entertainment 50 and 35 cents.

The plans and specifications of the new Engineering Building have been completed, and bids are being received.
