

Second Band Concert.

On Sunday evening, November 19, 1911, the Cadet Band will offer their second concert of the year in the Auditorium at eight o'clock. Although the attendance at the last concert was not large, owing to the inclemency of the weather, the fact that the excellent interpretation of the more serious numbers, together with the splendid rendition of the lighter operatic airs, was more than appreciated was demonstrated by the spontaneous applause. Under the competent direction of P. M. Snavely, '12, the band has again prepared a concert that will demonstrate to the visitors during the Pennsylvania Day celebration that we are the proud possessors of a band, the quality of which is far above the average. The band will be assisted by Alex Gray 3rd, upon whose vocal ability no comment is necessary. As every one knows a large audience is conducive to greater effort, and therefore let us have "All Out" at the Auditorium on Sunday evening. The following program will be rendered.

March, Slav, Tschaiakowsky; Overture, Wilhelm Tell, Rossini; Selection, Spring Maid, Reinhardt; Baritone Solo, selected, Alex Gray 3rd; Scarf Dance, Chaminate; Medley Overture, Ted Snyder; March, Loyal Americans, King.

Dean Crane Honored.

Dean W. R. Crane, of the School of Mines, has been notified that he was recently elected an honorary life member of the Coal Mining Institute of America. As this is the most important society in America dealing with coal mining problems, this is to be considered as a signal honor for Dean Crane.

At the recent meeting of the Association of American Mining Schools, held at Chicago, Dean W. R. Crane representing the School of Mines at this College, was elected to membership on the Executive Committee. This position gives him a strong hand in the shaping of the policies of this organization, which has for its principal objects the bettering of the conditions of the mining schools, and which is at present carrying on a campaign looking to federal support for the mining schools on somewhat the same basis as is now extended to the Agricultural schools.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove by death, the father of our friend and classmate Norman K. MacGregor, be it resolved that we, the class of 1912, of The Pennsylvania State College, express our sincere sympathy to him and his family in their bereavement,

And furthermore, be it resolved, that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the class, and be published in the Penn State Collegian,

And furthermore, be it resolved that a copy of the same be sent to the family.

Signed:—R. B. Dunlap, J. J. Perry, H. H. Woodward.

Philadelphia Club Feed.

The opening meeting of the Philadelphia Club was held in McAllister Hall after the wrestling meet last Friday evening. Following some good eats and a stag dance, the evening's enjoyment concluded with a sleight-of-hand performance, some choice stories, and some singing—not so choice. With about 75 men present, much good fellowship prevailed, and the affair was a big success.

The meeting augurs well for the success of the Club this year, and undoubtedly served its purpose well of arousing the interest of the men, and getting the year's work started.
