

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment.

On Saturday, November, 18 the second of the series of entertainments in the Y. M. C. A. course was given at the Auditorium, a fair sized audience being present.

The entertainment consisted of "Chapin as Lincoln", a monologue in four sections by Mr. Chapin in costume, representing our great martyred president. As a prologue Mr. Chapin gave a speech which was delivered by Mr. Lincoln just before his first journey to Washington. Later the representation was of Lincoln at the beginning of the Civil War, during the war, and finally at the close of the war on the evening of his assassination.

The entertainment was very enjoyable, amusing as well as sad, as Mr. Lincoln was depicted in all his different moods, and to those who have seen both the "original and imitations," it is said the likeness seems perfect.

You'll find here a fine line of bags for traveling; there's a lot of style to them; such "leathers" as you'll be glad to associate with. Good values at $5; and better up to $25.

If you're doing much auto-riding, we can outfit you in such togs, too. Auto coats, warm gloves, caps for it, warm stuff for body and feet.

Fine furnishings, things you'll be delighted with. Shirts and neckwear. There's nothing in fine dress for men that is not here.
