

YALE UNIVERSITY WRESTLING SQUAD.

CORNELL WRESTLERS WIN FIRST MEET

Penn State Wrestling Team Loses to Cornell 12-6—Shollenberger and Fulkman Secure Falls.

Scoring two falls and three decisions to our two falls, Cornell defeated Penn State in a very fast meet at Ithaca Friday night. The bouts were all closely contested, several bordering on the sensational order. The only exception to intercollegiate rules under which the meet was held was the fact that, if a man secured a hold on the mat and was forced off, the wrestling was continued on the floor. Three points were given for a fall and two for a decision. The bouts were all interesting and a large number of students witnessed the contest. Decisions were given on rolling falls, a rule that our men were unused to.

The 115 pound match started the meet with a rush. Mason of Cornell showed aggressiveness at the beginning, but Park secured the advantage for two minutes by an arm roll. Mason was given the decision in nine minutes.

In the 125 pound class, Matchat and Callendar were very evenly matched, both guarding so closely that most of the first nine minutes and the two extra periods of three minutes each were spent in grappling. On a very close decision Cornell won on aggressiveness.

Fulkman threw Lewis after 6 minutes 31 second by a half Nelson and body hold. This bout which resulted in a fall for the Blue and White was the fastest of the evening. Great credit is due Fulkman, especially as the Cornell meet was his first varsity contest.

After 50 seconds of grappling Shollenberger went to the mat with Stokoe. Shollenberger's experience enabled him to win a fall from his opponent by a bar lock and head hold in 3 minutes and 39 seconds.

Shaw's fall from Very in the 158 pound class came as a surprise. After a minute the men closed and went to the mat with Very on top. Shaw won the event by a double arm roll, securing a fall in 4 minutes 36 seconds.

In the 175 pound class, Captain Lesh was thrown by Bame in 7 minute 51 seconds on a half Nelson and bar lock. Lesh secured a neck chancery, but Bame pushed it off before the fall.

Five minutes of grappling in the heavy weight bout between Captain Collins of Cornell and Lamb resulted in no advantage on either side. Collins then took the offensive and sent his opponent to the mat. Lamb lost on a decision.

WE WONDER

If our President was not very well pleased with his rousing send off.

If, too, we do not wish him and his family a most pleasant vacation.

If we are not mighty eager for that Yale meet.

If, too, we should not endeavor to make a lasting impression upon the first athletic team of that university to come to Penn State.

If our new eligibility rule will not bring us more recognition from the larger colleges.

How many are pleased with their grade reports.

If that band concert on Sunday was not highly appreciated.

If the "movies" will, some day entirely replace Penn State spirit.

Fraternity Bible Classes.

The following fraternities have Bible classes: Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Chi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Gamma Delta, Delta Upsilon, Alpha Chi Sigma, Alpha Kappa Delta, Theta Psi, and Alpha Delta Sigma.

State two years ago had the national record for fraternity Bible classes, every chapter but one having a class.

The Y. M. C. A. and the Sigma Chi fraternity substantially helped Mr. Woods of Shingletown, who was recently burned out, and who has lost everything. Besides the parents, there was a family of five children.

Varsity baseball practice at 2 o'clock this afternoon (Thursday).

THE YALE MEET.

Strong Delegation Coming to Meet Penn State on Saturday Night.

In the coming wrestling meet to be held in the Armory on Saturday between Yale University and Penn State, Yale will be represented by the following line-up:

115 pound class—Ingram.
125 pound class—Hute.
135 pound class—Colver.
145 pound class—May.
158 pound class—Avery.
175 pound class—Newberry or Allen.

Heavy weight class—Capt. Perry. Assistant Manager Warren has charge of the team for this trip.

In our display of the old spirit which will naturally be in evidence at this big wrestling meet, let us make sure that nothing unsportsmanlike mars our reception of the Yale team. Plenty of spirit, yes; but remember the old square, honorable policy of meeting our opponents. This meet is regarded as a step toward restoring athletic relations between the two institutions and if the effort is to be successful, we must do our part by properly entertaining the visiting team.

Big Show Tonight.

In what promises to be one of the best shows ever seen at State College, a large cast of students and faculty will produce "The College Boy's Wedding" tonight in the Auditorium. Don't miss it! If you do, you will be "too far back" to carry on an intelligent conversation. "Get in college", and be there tonight.

Sophomores Lead Again.

Last Saturday evening the juniors were defeated by the sophomores in an exceedingly fast game of basketball by the score of 48 to 23. It was not an easy victory for 1914 and the large score did not make the game uninteresting, since there was good playing to be seen at all times.

Since the defeat of 1914 on last Wednesday night, 1913 held first place in the league. To regain this position again, all that was necessary for the sophs was to win this game and with both teams knowing this, the game was, naturally, hard fought. The juniors scored five points on the sophomores early in the contest and it was a long time before the latter got started. Throughout the entire first period both teams were evenly matched and they alternated in taking the lead.

Later in the game the soph's five developed such wonderfully good team work, passed so surely, and shot goals in such rapid order that their opponents were almost overwhelmed. The juniors fought hard to prevent defeat, but in vain.

The lineup:
1914—48
1913—23
Binder f Erwin
Leyden (Moore) f Maybee
Savery c Murphy
Warr g Karcher (Reel)
Quirk g Hoffmann

Field goals—Binder 5, Leyden 3, Savery 8, Quirk 6, Erwin, Maybee 6, Murphy 3. Foul goals—Binder 4 out of 7, Erwin 3 out of 6. Referee—Love-ridge '12.

A larger number of students witnessed this game than any previous to it this year and there was also more class spirit shown than ever before. The managers are glad to see the students come out, but they would also like to see spectators stop at the door and buy tickets before entering to see the race for championship interclass basketball. The percentages up to date follow:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
1914	4	2	.666
1913	3	2	.600
1912	2	2	.500
1915	1	4	.200

Memorial Service on Sunday.

A memorial service for Dr. Benjamin Gill will be held in the Auditorium Sunday afternoon, Feb. 25 at four o'clock. Dr. E. W. Runkle will give a biographical sketch of Dr. Gill, and Prof. F. L. Pattee an appreciation of his character and his services to the college. The music, which will be in charge of Mrs. Govier, will include the rendition of a hymn, composed by Dr. Gill.

BIG THESPIAN SHOW

"The Commandant" on March 15, Promises To Be Best Show Ever. Strong in Cast and Chorus—Elaborate Scenery and Dazzling Costumes.

Three weeks from to-morrow night the Thespian organization will produce its annual show, prior to the extended trip which will be made by the thirty-two actors and actresses in the first week in April.

Coach Downing is working his men night and day to produce a show which will equal and indeed surpass all past productions given by this organization, and at present it would seem that such will surely be the result. Novelty dances will be introduced, the equal of which has not been seen in any of our modern ball rooms. The ban has not been placed on the Turkey Trot or the Hula Hula but rather two more striking and graceful dances, notably the "Japanese Glide" and the "Camel Ride" will be presented to the followers of the Thespians on Friday, March 15.

The first scene laid in the Armory at Penn State presents an entirely new idea for future commencement dances—Can you guess it?

The second act of the show transports the audience to Japan and introduces a wonderful panorama of Japanese scenes and characters, and any person who has never had the pleasure of a trip to Japan cannot well afford to miss this chance of seeing its wonders and beauties.

The management has gone to a great expense to procure elaborate unique, and dazzling costumes, which together with the appropriate and beautiful scenery that is being prepared by famous artists, are sure to hold the audience bewildered and spell-bound.

The first show has usually been considered a trial one but this year the finished product will be placed before the public. No true Penn State man, from senior to freshman, can afford to miss the blushing but confident debut of this brilliant production "The Commandant."

Yale Meet.

The Yale wrestling team will furnish the first contest at State College Friday evening at seven o'clock in the Armory. Perry and Avery who were on the Yale team last year will be in the contest tomorrow night. The meet will be the best on an floor. Admission by tickets only will be allowed by the management.
