

SUSQUEHANNA DOWNED

Selinsgrove Collegians Easy for Our Pitchers and Batsmen—Craig and McKibben Hit Often.

With the baseball diamond of New Beaver Field in the best condition and a clear sky overhead, Susquehanna University went down to defeat before Captain Eberlein's nine by the score of 20 to 0. Wardwell, the former Andover Academy pitcher, in his first appearance before a home crowd struck out the opposing batters at will and did not allow a single hit the five innings he was in the box. Whitney pitched the remaining innings striking out five men and allowing one hit.

The home team started to score in the first inning, making five runs. The heaviest scoring was in the sixth inning, when eight men crossed the plate. It was in this batting fest that Jack Eberlein drove out a three base hit scoring three men. Carson's home run and the fielding of Crawford featured in the game. Boyer was the only Susquehanna man to get a hit. He batted out a single in the sixth inning but was put out stealing second. The summary follows:

	R	H	O	A	E
Susquehanna Univ.	0	0	2	2	0
Dreese, 2b	0	1	2	3	1
Boyer, c	0	0	2	3	3
Hoy, ss	0	0	1	0	0
Martz, cf	0	0	10	0	1
Spangler, 1b	0	0	2	0	0
Harpster, lf	0	0	0	2	1
Hoch, 3b	0	0	2	0	0
Stetler, rf	0	0	0	2	1
Peters, p	0	0	0	2	1
Swope, 2b	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	0	1	21	12	7
Penn State	R	H	O	A	E
Crawford, rf	4	2	3	0	0
Bien, ss	3	1	3	0	0
Craig, cf	3	3	1	0	0
Eberlein, 1b	2	2	3	2	0
Carson, 3b	2	1	0	1	0
Blythe, 2b	0	1	0	0	0
McKibben, lf	3	3	0	0	0
Henderson, c	1	1	10	0	0
Wardwell, p	0	0	1	1	0
Whitney, p	1	0	0	1	0
*Kern,	1	0	0	0	0
McCracken, 2b	0	1	0	0	0
Miller, rf	0	0	0	0	0
Graham, c	0	1	3	0	0
Vogt, 1b	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	20	16	25	5	0

*Batted for Wardwell in sixth.

	R	H	E
Susquehanna	0	0	0
Penn State	5	0	16
Two-base hits—Craig, McKibben, Crawford.
Three-base hits—Eberlein
Home run—Carson, Sacrifice Hit, Carson.
Struck out—By Wardwell 8, Whitney 5, Peters 2. Base on balls—Off Wardwell 2, Peters 2. Time 2:10. Umpire, Torrey.

Interclass Baseball.

Despite the fact that the seniors are financially unable to support a team this season, the three lower classes in the league, have arranged a schedule which promises to equal that of other years.

The calls for candidates, issued by Managers Reist, Swift and Hess, have resulted in many new men reporting for practice, and with the abundance of material to pick from, each class should have a team which will put up a good fight for the pennant.

Whether our interclass baseball season will be a financial success or not, will depend on the support which the members of each class give their respective teams. No better opportunity than this is afforded to do something for your class, and every one should feel it his duty to attend these games and root for his team. A schedule of twelve games is to be played.

A sacred concert will be given in the Auditorium Sunday evening at eight o'clock. All are invited to attend.

SPRING TENNIS.

Various Tournaments to be Held Throughout the Spring.

The Tennis Team will play its first match of the spring season at home with the University of Pittsburgh on May 1, less than a week away. Due to the fact that none of the members of last year's successful team returned to college last fall, the coach and manager find themselves faced with the task of building up a successful tennis team from men of ability untried in Intercollegiate matches. Consequently it is hoped that every man of any ability at all in tennis will come out for the team and help to make the season a success. Several tournaments will be held in which every man will have a chance to show his ability, and from the showing made in these tournaments the final team as well as the Captain will be chosen. Among those who were on the tennis squad last fall and who are expected to make strong bids for the team are Irish, McConnel, Patterson, Reber, Harris, Ware, Hastings, Walters, Harrower and Hay. The following schedule has been arranged by Manager Gheen:

May 1, University of Pittsburgh, at home.

May 8, open.

May 9, University of Pittsburgh, at Pittsburgh.

May 18, Lehigh, at home.

May 24, Dickinson, at Carlisle.

May 25, Gettysburg, at Gettysburg.

Season tickets for the home matches will be put on sale before Saturday at the rate of 50 cents, single admission being 25 cents.

Aside from the Intercollegiate tournaments, four college tournaments will be played, in the following order:

College Singles, College Doubles, Inter-class Singles, Stevenson Cup Interfraternity Doubles.

Gold medals will be given by Mr. Ray D. Gilliland to the winners of the first three tournaments, and silver medals to the runners-up. The finals of the Interfraternity Doubles for the Stevenson Cup will in all probability be played at Commencement.

Dean Crane to Visit Alaska.

Dean W. R. Crane, of the School of Mines, has been granted a year's leave of absence, for the purpose of visiting Alaska to make a complete study of the coal resources of that country.

Dr. Crane feels that it will be of interest and value to make an exhaustive and unbiased study of the Alaskan coal situation in order to clear up if possible the more or less confused ideas concerning the value and importance of these coal beds. He will leave just as soon as possible after the close of college, and will return in September 1913.

Professor Weigel's Good Fortune.

Professor W. M. Weigel has accepted the position of General Superintendent of the mines and smelter of the North American Smelting Co. Ltd. of Kingston Ont. and will move to Kingston with his family about June 1st. Mr. Weigel has been in the employ of this company since last summer and has designed and erected their smelter, and concentrating plant. The company is just about ready to begin operations at the smelting plant, and will have the largest lead smelting plant in Eastern Canada.

PHARSONIANS SHOW

The College Minstrels Gave Their Annual Performance in the Auditorium Last Saturday Night.

When the curtain went up in the Auditorium at 8:15 Saturday evening, it was the cue for the beginning of two solid hours of first class amusement. The Pharsonians were on their marks, and ready to surpass all their previous records. Although at the beginning of the performance things seemed to lag a little, the Minstrels soon struck their stride and from then on there was not a dull moment. The performers entered into the spirit of the occasion and presented such amusing actions that they drew one round of applause after another from an appreciative audience. The music was especially pleasing throughout the whole show. Everyone of the special numbers made a decided hit. They were original and excellently produced.

Gray, Kaiser, Webner, Buck, Entwisle, and Meyers as soloists all deserve much credit. Gray's rendition of "Naomi", the words of which were written by Prof. J. S. Crandell, was especially pleasing to the audience.

Junkin as interlocutor and Nelson, Greene, Gauthier, and McKnight as ends kept the mirth flowing at a lively pace. Nelson and Greene were easily the stars of the evening. Nelson scored a big hit in his song entitled, "Oh, Wouldn't that be a Dream" in which he presented many humorous parodies, as did Greene in his little ditty called "Dat's Enuf". They both starred in their spirited sketch "The Ragtime Violin". Gauthier represented a typical coon when he sang "Chicken Reel", McKnight came back strong on his encore for "Maybe I'll Come Back".

Hillery and Stonerod took the house by storm with their sketch of grand opera and mind reading. Buck and his pickaninny dancers conveyed the spirit of the plantation in their number.

Meyers and Entwisle gave a clever imitation of Nora Bayes and Jack Norwood singing their "Moon Song".

Greene, Gauthier, Nelson, and Buck closed the performance with an original sketch entitled, "The Coming Champion".

The work of the chorus was not very good. However, considering the fact that it was an exceptionally large one, the difficulty of securing perfection in singing and in acting can be realized. The Mandolin and Guitar Clubs assisted the chorus. The excellent lighting effect, the efficient coaching and managing, together with the performance of of several individual stars, were the winning features of this year's Pharsonians. Among the latter was our well known "Boog" Nelson who has, in many instances, made the whole show himself, and he contributed a large part to Saturday's show.

"Bill" Hollenbach Recovering.

"Bill" Hollenbach, who so successfully coached our victorious football team this year, has undergone an operation at the German Hospital of Philadelphia. Injuries received in his famous football career caused the trouble. The operation was successful.

Trials for the 1915 debating team will be held Friday April 20, seven o'clock, in room 114 Main.

VARSITY TRACK.

Promising Prospects For Present Season.

The sophomores, Leyden, Reinhart, and Chamberlain and the freshmen, Piner, Michner, Entwisle and Hedrick made fast time on the cinder path Tuesday afternoon and from these men five will be chosen to represent Penn State at the Penn Relays to be held on Franklin Field in Philadelphia this Saturday. Four of the runners will take part in the one mile relay race and the fifth man will be used as a substitute. Leyden took part in the relays last year. The men averaged 53 3-5 seconds in the trials.

Director Golden has been unable to get a good line on the men owing to unfavorable weather conditions but with his efficient coaching, a promising track season is assured. Captain Watts will take care of the two mile races while Lumm, Savery, and Fulkman, will look after the mile runs and Leyden the half. Piner has shown good form in everything from 100 to 440 yards. Chubb, Reinhart and Entwisle are expected to make fast time in the quarter mile events. Park and Lamb will be used in the high jump and Henney '14 in the broad jump. Lamb is also developing into a weight man.

In practice, Chamberlain has done the best work in the hurdles while Pier, Armsby and Silver have also shown good form. Hoskins, Maybee and Hays, the strong pole vaulting trio from last year's team, will again appear in State uniforms. The former two men hold the Penn State pole vaulting record.

CALENDAR.

FRIDAY, APRIL 26

7:00 p. m. Room 202 Engineering Building. Mr. C. L. MacIlvane.

7:00 p. m. Room 226 Main. Cosmopolitan Club.

7:00 p. m. Room 114 Main. Trials for 1915 Debating Team.

8:00 p. m. McAllister Hall. Final Senior Cotillion.

SATURDAY, APRIL 27

1:00 p. m. New Beaver Field. Sophomore-Freshman Track Meet.

1:15 p. m. Old Beaver Field. Class Baseball. 1913-1915.

3:00 p. m. New Beaver Field. Varsity Baseball. Dickinson vs. Penn State.

3:00 p. m. Franklin Field, Philadelphia. Penn Relays.

7:45 p. m. Auditorium. Col. Nox McCain. Lecture.

9:30 p. m. McAllister Hall. Senior-Junior Mechanical Banquet

SUNDAY, APRIL 28

10:00 a. m. Old Chapel. Bible Class.

11:00 a. m. Auditorium. Chapel Service. Rev. Mr. Reed will speak.

6:30 p. m. Auditorium. Y. M. C. A. meeting.

8:00 p. m. Auditorium. Sacred Concert.

TUESDAY, APRIL 30

4:15 p. m. New Beaver Field. Baseball. University of Maryland vs. Penn State.

6:30 p. m. Old Chapel. Y. M. C. A. Prayer Meeting.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1

2:00 p. m. Armory Courts. Tennis Match. University of Pittsburgh vs. Penn State.

4:00 p. m. Old Beaver Field. Class Baseball. 1913-1914.

THE GOLDEN WEST

Nox McCain To Lecture Here on Interesting Subject and For a Worthy Cause.

We have always believed, here at Penn State, in doing everything to keep our college campus and buildings appearing at their very best; and an opportunity is now offered to continue this custom. The so called "bulletin boards" in the college buildings, especially in Old Main and the Engineering Building, have come to be very disagreeable objects. It is necessary to have convenient bulletin boards where notices may be posted, and plans have been made to erect modern boards so arranged that all signs may be posted uniformly by the college. A design made by H. S. Rogers '12, has been approved by the faculty, and to secure the necessary funds, a committee has secured, as a lecturer, the services of Col. George Nox McCain.

Nox McCain two years ago gave a series of five lectures here, and needs no introduction to those fortunate enough to have heard him. He is a splendid speaker, and a man of wonderful personality, holding his audiences in rapt attention from beginning to end of any of his famous lectures. As a traveller, Col. McCain has lectured in every part of the world; and in the Auditorium on Saturday, April 27, at 7:45 p. m., he will speak on his favorite subject, "The Golden West" This will prove a very interesting topic, the more so because of the wonderful colored motion pictures used for illustration.

Tickets can be procured at the Business Office, Toggery Shop, Drug Store and from a committee of seniors—price, 25 cents. Remember the date—Saturday, April 27, at 7:45 p. m. sharp.

The Flower Show.

For the second time in the history of the institution, the faculty, students, and public were treated to a rare scene of beauty such as can be presented only by a display of flowers like unto that exhibited at the annual show of the Department of Horticulture and the Penn State Crab Apple Club, last Saturday. A number of well known leading florists of the state contributed generously in augmenting the collection of the Department of Horticulture. The college exhibit showed much improvement over that of last year, and the student designs, which were also displayed, caused considerable comment.

The display consisted of the different varieties of roses, carnations, hyacinths, lilies, sweet-peas, pansies, potted specimens, and designs. The roses and carnations were represented in almost every variety, and were, by far, the prettiest flowers there, although the display included a collection of superb specimens of every flower shown. Professor Gregg who managed the show deserves much credit for maintaining the interest for floriculture here at Penn State, and for securing the invaluable assistance of the state florists in making our flower shows not only the most popular but also the most beautiful exhibits given at the college.

The annual interscholastic track meet, to be held under the auspices of the Penn State Athletic Association, will take place on New Beaver Field Friday, May 3.