

WE WONDER

If the students should not refrain from throwing paper bags on the baseball field during games.

If we do not sympathize with the "Co-eds" in their having to leave dances before eleven o'clock.

If the straw hats are not a welcome sight.

What the grand total of Sunday Chapel collection's will make this year at the present rate.

If the freshmen should not remain seated in chapel until the upperclassmen have passed out.

If it is right for us to voice our appreciation of a Sunday evening band concert by applauding.

Whether some work done on the diamond of Old Beaver Field would not result in fewer injuries to players of the inter-class baseball league.

New Catalogues.

A few advance copies of the 1911-1912 General Catalogue have been received at the Registrar's Office. The general supply will be ready for distribution in a few days.

The number of students in four years' courses are as follows: seniors 238, juniors 328, sophomores 369, freshmen 548. The total number of students including the above mentioned, and students in the non-degree conferring course is 2,075.

In addition to students engaged in study at the college, the following are under extension instruction at other places: Apprentice School R. R. at Altoona 250, Night Vocational School at Williamsport 107, Correspondence courses 3600.

A Chance for $150.

A competition has recently been started in the New York Times by Owen Johnson, author of "Stover at Yale," which has aroused so much discussion because of frank criticism on conditions of American colleges and universities of today.

Mr. Johnson is desirous of learning what the students themselves have to say about the social conditions of the college they are attending, and offers two prizes, one of $150.00 to undergraduates, and the other $100.00 to graduates, for the best papers on the subject. The competition will close June 2. The issue of the the New York Times on Sunday April 28 gives full details of the competition.

A Saturday Evening Musical.

There will be a free musical evening next Saturday at eight o'clock in the Auditorium under the auspices of the Birmingham School for Girls. The program is unusually interesting and for lovers of music there will be a rare treat. Mrs. Brown, who has charge of the music at Birmingham and Mrs. Grier will sing. The next Sunday Association meeting will be given over to a sacred concert at which Mrs. Grier and Mrs. Brow will sing.

Former Faculty.

Five former faculty members at present connected with the Westinghouse Lamp Company at Bloomfield, N. Y. are Dr. Y. Frankmeyer, R. E. Myers, A. R. Dennington, C. A. Whittemore and E. Romanelli.

Junior Prom Notice.

All fraternities and crowds desiring booths at the Junior Prom should know the number of couples they can guarantee, and should report to Stewart at the Nittany Inn before May 11th.

The Return of the President.

Dr. Sparks will return from his trip abroad during the first week in June. Mrs. Sparks and Miss Sparks will not return until September.

The Sunday Chapel speaker will be the Reverend Mr. Woodcock, who was the first secretary of the Christian Association at State.

Third High School Conference.

Thirty-five principals representing the high schools of the principal cities and towns of Penna. attended the two sessions of the conference, held here on Friday, May 3. Problems of interest to the college instructor and the secondary school teacher were discussed. It was generally acknowledged that the liberalizing of the entrance requirements of this college will be of great benefit to those wishing to enter. It was the most successful conference ever held at the College.

All members of the class of 1914 desiring to compete for assistant manager of the Thespians should give their names at once to E. W. Pickett, Phi Sigma Kappa House.
