

PENN STATE COLLEGIAN.

VOLUME 8 NUMBER 28

STATE COLLEGE, PA. MAY 16, 1912

PRICE FIVE CENTS

NOTRE DAME WINS

Visitors Play Fast Game and Break Penn State's Row of Victories. Whitney's Support Ragged.

In a game marred by bad weather and poor support back of Whitney, Notre Dame won from Penn State on Saturday, 6 to 1. Henderson was out of the game with an injured hand and his "popper" was missed, although Vogt caught a creditable game. Notre Dame lived up to their reputation of having one of the fastest college teams of the year. They were fast on the bases, fielded cleanly, made their hits count, and deserved to win.

Crawford scored for State in the first when he hit to right for three bases, and crossed the plate on Bie's sacrifice fly to centre field. The visitors made two in the second. Granfield walked and scored with Arnfield on the latter's circuit smash to right field. Kelly was wild but was unhittable with men on bases, while the visitors scored three runs in the third on three hits, a sacrifice, two errors and a passed ball. Their final count came in the ninth when Whitney threw Gray's tap away, the runner reaching second from where he scored on Kelly's third hit. Craig and Blythe played well for State in the field and Carson made two hits. O'Connell and Kelly starred for the visitors.

The score:

	R	H	O	A	E
Penn State	1	1	1	0	0
Crawford, rf	1	1	1	0	0
Bie, ss	0	0	0	1	3
Craig, cf	0	0	2	1	0
Eberlein, lb	0	0	8	0	0
Carson, 3b	0	2	0	0	0
Blythe, 2b	0	0	3	2	0
McKibben, lf	0	0	2	0	0
Vogt, c	0	1	8	2	0
Whitney, p	0	0	2	4	1
Totals	1	4	27	10	4
Notre Dame	R	H	O	A	E
O'Connell, ss	0	1	1	3	0
Farrell, lb	1	1	6	1	1
Dolan, rf	1	1	0	0	0
Williams, Capt, cf	0	1	3	0	0
Granfield, 3b	1	0	0	0	0
Arnfield, 2b	1	1	2	1	0
Rengan, lf	0	0	1	0	0
Gray	1	0	10	1	0
Kelly, p	1	3	0	3	0
Totals	6	8	26	9	1

Vogt out for not touching second base. Summary: Two-base hit Vogt, Three-base hits—Crawford, Williams, Home run—Arnfield; Stolen bases: Notre Dame 4; Sacrifice hits: Bie, McKibben, O'Connell; Struck out: by Whitney 10, by Kelly 10, Bases on ball: off Whitney 3, off Kelly 5; Passed ball: Vogt; Double Plays: Whitney to Blythe, Craig to Blythe. Time 2 hrs. Umpires: Donovan and Torrey.

Interclass.

The freshman soccer team was again victorious last Saturday, defeating the sophomores in a hard fought game by the score of 1 to 0.

For the sophomores, Warr and Lindsay starred, while Tobin and Vollmer did the best work for the freshmen, the latter kicking the only goal of the game.

The standing:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
1915	2	0	1.000
1913	0	1	.000
1914	0	1	.000

Cornell Wins.

Penn State was shut out by Cornell 2 to 0 in a six inning game, Tuesday, May 14. Game was called on account of darkness. Whitney replaced Wardwell in the third inning. Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Penn State	0	0	0
Cornell	2	3	0

CALENDAR.

THURSDAY, MAY 16
 Penn State vs. University of Vermont at Burlington, Vt.
 6:00 p. m. Old Chapel. Athletic Association Elections.
 7:15 p. m. Engineering Building. Meeting Philadelphia Club. Election of Officers.

FRIDAY, MAY 17
 3:00 p. m. Baseball. Penn State vs. Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass.
 7:00 p. m. Room K Library. Meeting Liberal Arts Society.
 7:15 p. m. Rifle Club, Final Meeting. Room 202 Engineering Building. Election of Officers.
 8:00 p. m. Auditorium. Interclass Debate. 1914 vs. 1915.

SATURDAY, MAY 18
 P. M. Baseball. Penn State vs. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y.
 1:30 p. m. Old Beaver Field. Class Baseball. 1913 vs. 1915
 1:30 p. m. New Beaver Field. Class Soccer. 1913 vs. 1915.
 2:30 p. m. Varsity Track. Pennsylvania Intercollegiate at Harrisburg.
 7:30 p. m. Banquet of Cosmopolitan Club. McAllister Hall.
 8:00 p. m. Armory. Stag Dance by Orchestra.

SUNDAY, MAY 19
 10:00 a. m. Old Chapel. Bible Class.
 11:00 a. m. Auditorium. Chapel Service. Chaplain Reed will speak.

6:30 p. m. Auditorium Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

TUESDAY, MAY 21
 6:30 p. m. Old Chapel. Y. M. C. A. Prayer Meeting.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22
 4:30 p. m. Old Beaver Field. Class Baseball. 1913-1914
 4:30 p. m. New Beaver Field. Class Soccer 1914 vs. 1915.

Opinion of Our Graduate Manager.

The financial support given our Tennis team in its match with Lehigh University next Saturday will be taken as an indication of the desire of the student body for the abandonment or continuance of Tennis as an intercollegiate sport. Varsity Tennis depends almost entirely on the gate receipts for its support and up to the present time the debt of the Tennis Association has increased with every contest. The largest attendance was at the match with the University of Pennsylvania when 35 paid admissions were received. There were considerably more than 35 spectators who watched the match but many positively refused to pay the small fee requested.

If it is true that our team has not won a match this year but we have had winners and will have them again. We like to tell and be told of the wonderful "spirit" of Penn State but is it worth much when it will only support a winner? A little of that "spirit" on the side lines on Saturday might make our players feel that they have something to play for and—who knows—it might help along to victory.

Fellows, shall Intercollegiate Tennis be dropped or will we get behind it and "boost" it to the level of our other Varsity sports?

Two Good Programs.

Highly instructive and entertaining musical programs were rendered by Mrs. John Potts Brown and Mrs. A. R. Grier, under the auspices of the Birmingham School, of Birmingham, Pa., in the Auditorium, Saturday and Sunday evenings, May 11 and 12. On both occasions, the participants were greeted by large audiences of music lovers.

NEWS FROM TURKEY

Constantinople, April 18, 1912

When this letter reaches State College the Italian-Turkish war will probably be ended; but here it is very much in evidence. We reached the entrance to the Dardanelles yesterday morning at daylight on a French vessel from Smyrna, but a small Turkish gunboat blocked our way and we lay until noon under the guns of the forts which guard the entrance on either hand. A number of other vessels were likewise held but at last the little boat led the crooked way among the submarine mines with which the entrance is said to be planted and we followed in a long line, crossing and re-crossing the narrow strait as our leader led the way.

Rumors reached us at Smyrna that Italian war vessels were hiding behind Samnos Island, but this news was discounted along with others of its kind. We landed here this morning and almost at the same hour the Italian fleet of twenty-seven vessels appeared at the entrance to the straits and opened fire on the forts. If only we had been a few hours later we might have seen the action. But we would not have reached Constantinople.

There is great excitement in the streets. New papers are issuing extra editions in French, Greek and Arabic. Crowds are gathered on every corner. Some believe that the Italians will destroy the forts and then come on to bombard the city. We passed about ten Turkish war vessels lying at the town of Dardanelles, this side of the entrance; what resistance they could make is a question.

At Beyrout I towed out to the sunken Turkish men-of-war in the harbor and photographed as much of them as was visible. They made scarcely any resistance when attacked. This occurred while we were on the way to Alexandria.

I have talked with the Secretary of the American Embassy who lives at our hotel and he thinks the attack was simply a demonstration to hasten a reply from the Turks to the peace proposition presented to them recently by the Powers. I have not the slightest doubt that this will prove to be simply "A Dream on the Dardanelles" and we can carry out our program of leaving next week for Greece. Meanwhile it is interesting to be near the scene of action.

On Saturday I expect to attend a session of the new Turkish Parliament which assembled today with a great deal of display. Many provinces sent in banners and delegations with their deputies. The Sultan came down from his palace to the parliament building in his yacht which was gaily decorated. But there seems to be little enthusiasm for any kind of government. Most nations believe that Turkey is doomed in any event, and the present assembling of a large Russian force about the Black Sea is thought to be suggestive of the trend of events in the near future.

Cast Your Vote To-night.

The election of officers of the Athletic Association and of assistant managers of baseball and general athletics will be held this Thursday evening, May 16, from 6 to 8 p. m. in the Old Chapel.

PENN STATE LOSES TO PENN VISITORS WIN TENNIS MATCH BY 4-0 SCORE.

The University of Pennsylvania tennis team experienced little trouble in taking a fast and well-played tennis match from the Varsity on Saturday, May 11th, by the score of 4-0. The individual superiority of the visitors was apparent at all times and enabled them to secure easy victories in the singles. Reber and Allison, of State, showed excellent form against Jones and Page, of Penn, in the doubles, and this was undoubtedly the best played match of the day.

Summary of matches:
 Singles—Page, Penn, defeated Allison, State, 6-3, 6-2; Jones, Penn, defeated Reber, State, 6-0, 6-0; Tilden, Penn, defeated Patterson, State, 6-0, 6-2.

Doubles—Page and Jones, Penn, defeated Reber and Allison, State, 6-4, 6-3.

Juniors Lose Another.

Nineteen-Thirteen suffered its third straight defeat at the hands of the sophomores last Saturday on Old Beaver Field.

The consistent pitching of Gockley for the sophomores, and the difficult running catch made by Page of the juniors, were the features of the game. The loss of Sumner, whose hand was split during the game, will doubtless be felt by the sophomore team. Quirk took Sumner's place behind the bat for the remainder of the game, Hammond going to third.

	R	H	E
1913	3	10	4
1914	9	10	5

Batteries '13, Mautre, Adams, Coon.
 Batteries '14, Gockley, Sumner, Quirk.

The standing:

	Won	Lost	Pct
1915	3	0	1.000
1914	2	1	.666
1913	0	3	.000

The Philadelphia Alumni Association Will Eat Shad and—?

Put this down. Saturday afternoon 2 to 6.30 p. m. May 18th, 1912. Taken why? Penna. State Alumni first Annual Shad Dinner and everything that goes with it. Where? Mozart Fishing Club, Pea Shore, New Jersey. Take Market St. Ferry, Phila. North Cramer Hill Trolley at Camden and ride as far as line goes.

What? Baseball Game and Other Sports. Principal thing to do Eat Shad and—? Be sure and book the date. It will happen you know Rain or Shine. Reply early. All are welcome.

Committee: C. E. Kremer, E. J. Neary, J. G. Funston, D. Dougherty and E. Cheetham.

Of Interest to Seniors.

The following action was taken by the Council of Administration two years ago:

"That 12 o'clock (noon) on Thursday, June 6, 1912, be fixed as the time when the list of graduates whose names are to appear on the Commencement program be completed.

"That students whose names are to appear on the Commencement program as graduates should not have any deficiencies whatever against them at 12 o'clock (noon) on Thursday, June 6, 1912.

"That any Senior at that time specified above having any deficiencies at all shall not have his name on the Commencement program".

VICTORY ON THE TRACK

Penn State Team Defeats Colgate at Hamilton, N. Y., by the Good Margin of Twenty-three Points.

Contrary to expectations, Penn State defeated the Colgate track team last Saturday on Whitnall Field, Hamilton, N. Y. in a dual meet by the score of 63 1-2 to 40 1-2. Colgate scored only three first places to State's ten. First and second places only were counted. Piner and Lamb starred as individuals. One Collegiate record was broken by McLaughlin of Colgate, in the broad jump.

Summaries:

100-yard dash—Piner, Penn State, first; McDonald, Colgate, second. Time 10 2-5 seconds.

120-yard hurdles—Pickard, Colgate, first; Pier Penn State, second. Time 17 seconds.

One-mile run—Gould, Colgate, first; Lum, Penn State, second. Time 4.33 2-5.

440-yard dash—Leyden Penn State first; Baker, Colgate second. Time 52 1-5 seconds.

Two-mile run—Keyser, Penn State, first; Carney, Colgate, second. Time, 10.08.

220-yard hurdles—Pier, Penn State, first; Pickard, Colgate, second. Time 27 4-5 seconds.

880-yard run—Leyden, Penn State, first; Lewis, Penn State second. Time, 2.06 1-5.

16-pound shot-put—Lamb, Penn State, first; Brooks, Colgate; second. Distance, 38 feet 4 1-2 inches.

Pole vault—Hays, Penn State first; Maybe, Penn State, and Marshall, Colgate, tied for second. Height, 11 feet 1 inch.

High jump—Elliott, Penn State, first; Terwilliger, Colgate, second. Height, 5 feet 8 inches.

16-pound hammer throw—Lamb, Penn State, first; Wilkinson, Colgate, second. Distance, 136 feet.

Broad jump—McLaughlin, Colgate, first; Binder, Penn State, second. Distance; 21 feet 9 1-2 inches.

H. H. Negley.

Notice has been received of the death of Mr. Henry H. Negley who was a member of one of the first classes in agriculture at Penn State. He entered in 1859 and attended school here until a few months before commencement of 1862, when he would have been graduated, being called home to aid his aged father on the farm.

Mr. Negley was descended from Swiss Reformers, and during the 69 years of his life was prominent in civic and religious affairs of Pittsburgh and vicinity. He would have received his Bachelor and Master degrees as of the class of 1862, at the commencement exercises this June, when the members of '62 will hold a reunion to celebrate their fiftieth anniversary.

The International Night.

A unique and interesting program was presented by the members of the Cosmopolitan club in their annual performance, last Friday evening. The various nations were represented by their "sounds," and thus the variety of the music was the feature of the occasion for quite a number of the nations are represented in this club. Our foreign students with Prof. Foster, one of the founders of this organization, deserve much credit for creating such an active society.

A stag dance will be held Saturday 8 p. m. in the Armory, by the Orchestra. The object is to get the floor in good condition for Commencement.