Fifty Alumni Will Be Here.
A large number of State Alumni will be here for the W. and J. game on Saturday Oct. 12. At a recent Alumni meeting in Pittsburgh many expressed their intention of coming up to College the Thursday before the game. The main crowd will leave Pittsburgh on Friday evening October 11th on the 7:10 train to Altoona. This will make a comfortable trip and mileage will be used entirely as the Pennsylvania Railroad failed to offer attractive rates for a party trip. Doubtless 50 Pittsburgh Alumni will be on hand to see Captain Mauth's men defeat W. and J's strong eleven.

Rules for Use of the Gymnasium.
Gymnasium open to all students from 8:30 a. m. to 10:00 p. m., except holidays, Sundays, and gymnasium class hours.
Baths open to 10:30 p. m.
A plain white gym suit with soft soled shoes required when appearing on the floor.
Smoking in the building not permitted.
Spitting on the floor prohibited.
The throwing of peanut shells and other refuse on the floor not allowed.
The enforcement of these rules shall be insisted upon.

Largest Freshman Bible Class.
The largest freshman bible class in the history of this institution, numbering approximately 500 persons, assembled in the Old Chapel on Sunday morning, September 22nd. The work of this class in past years was heartily endorsed by prominent members of the sophomore and upper classes.

We Wonder
Whether "sob" Reed's idea of true Penn State spirit would not help.
Whether there is a freshman in college today who does not know his Alma Mater.
Whether a few upperclassmen could not assist in keeping the crowd back to the track at football practice.
Dean Jackson in Atlantic City.
To-morrow Dean Jackson will speak at the Road Congress Conference which is now in session at Atlantic City. His talk will consist of a detailed discussion of the public roads and the benefits derived from the course in Highway Engineering as given at the Pennsylvania State College.

President Sparks to Speak.
President Sparks will give some interesting impressions of his recent trip to the Holy Land on Sunday evening next at 6:30 in the Auditorium under the auspices of the Christian Association.
The President's Reception.
On Friday evening, September 27th, President and Mrs. Sparks received both the old and the new members of the faculty at their residence from eight to ten o'clock.

Latest Registration.
The freshman class has now enrolled within its number 650 freshmen. The total number of new men is 760.
Dr. G. G. Pond, who is on a year's leave of absence, is travelling in Italy with Mrs. Pond. Miss Millicent and Albert are in Seesan, Germany, and Miss Clara and Gilbert at Bornhausen, Germany.
