WE WONDER.

Whether the freshmen who carried the benches for the two football teams Saturday are not starting right.

Whether there was not too much class spirit shown between the two lower classes at the first varsity football game of the year.

Whether New Beaver Field has not enough hard usage without being run over by a fourth of the men who take part in a class parade around the track.

Whether we should not all keep off the track in leaving the football stands.

Whether the students cannot keep to the walks, instead of wearing disfiguring paths across the front campus.

Dr. Seerley Coming.

Dr. Seerley of Springfield Mass. will be at the college from Saturday until Monday noon. Appointments with him can be arranged at the Y. M. C. A. room. Here is what a well known alumnus says about him.

"Fellows—Get on the job next Sunday night and you'll never regret it. 'Shorty' Miller and I induced Mr. Buchman to get Dr. Seerley down here because he is one of the best men we ever heard.

I have heard numerous speakers but Dr. Seerley in his treatment of social problems far surpasses them all. Come out fellows for he appeals to the college man."

Civil Feed.

Last Thursday night witnessed one of the most successful and enjoyable feeds that has been given in this college for some time. It was given by the junior civils in honor of the 1916 men of that school.

In the woods back of New Beaver Field, the fellows, 125 in number, sat around a big bon-fire enjoying the refreshments, consisting of pretzles, Martin's cider, peanuts and stogies

The arrangements made by the committee; Hubbert, Carpenter and Porter were complete in every detail, and every thing went off without a hitch.

The object of the feed was to get the freshmen acquainted with the upper classmates, and also to make them feel at home in their new surroundings.

After a general introduction all around, and singing the Alma Mater, the cider barrel being "dead" the crowd disbanded, happy, but too full for utterance.

Concerning the Mails.

Hereafter, what is known as the 4:30 mail will go straight to Bellefonte reaching State College the following morning at 7.30. The first afternoon mail will reach the State College post office at 2:35 instead of 3:20 as heretofore. The new time of these mail arrivals will go into effect October 9.

The sophomore class banquet will be held in Philadelphia during the Penn trip. The senior banquet will probably be held at the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburgh, during the Thanksgiving holidays.
