GETTYSBURG DEFEATED

Blue and White Goal Line Never in Danger—Mauthe and Very Play Well.

In a game void of much spectacular playing, Penn State won an easy victory over Gettysburg on Saturday, on New Beaver Field. The field was water soaked and slippery, which fact accounts for the absence of long runs. Captain Mauthe and Very featured the game for Penn State by their all-round playing, while Clark at center was strong on defense, his tackling being sure and timely. In the absence of Miller, Langdon played at quarter and although lacking in experience, made an able substitute. Hoar and Poffinberger were the best performers for Gettysburg, the former was especially strong on defense while the latter showed good line plunging ability and was responsible for most of Gettysburg's gains.

Gettysburg kicked off to State defending the west goal. Very received the kick and returned it to midfield from where Langdon went around left end for a touchdown but an infraction of the rules brought the ball back and Mauthe kicked to Gettysburg's ten yard line. Gettysburg was forced to punt to Mauthe, who returned the ball to Gettysburg's 30 yard line, from where Very rounded left end, bowled over Hoar, and scored the first touchdown. Mauthe kicked the goal. Score 7-0.

Wilson received the kick-off and returned it fifteen yards, Mauthe immediately sent a long, soaring punt over Hoar's head, but the latter made a nice catch and was downed in his tracks by Engle and Very. Sheffer's punt was short, and line plunges by Mauthe soon took the ball over the line. The goal failed. Score 13-0. Soon after Mauthe kicked off, the quarter ended with the ball in Gettysburg's possession on her 35 yard line.

In the second quarter, Hoar was forced to kick. Mauthe made 18 yards through left tackle. After gains by Engle, Tobin and Mauthe, the latter kicked to Hoar on the 1 yard line, Lamb made the tackle. Wilson blocked Hoar's attempted punt from behind the line, but Hoar recovered, scoring a safety. Score 15-0. During the remainder of the quarter, Mauthe got away for a 35 yard run and touchdown but State was caught holding, the ball was brought back and a fifteen yard penalty inflicted.

In the second half Mauthe kicked off to Poffinberger. After an exchange of punts Scheffer caught a forward pass from Mauthe but Gettysburg could not gain. Langdon returned Hoar's kick 13 yards. Line plunges then with Mauthe and Berryman carrying the ball placed the pig-skin on Gettysburg's 5 yard line, where a magnificent stand by the Gettysburg line forced State to surrender the ball on the 1 yard line. Hoar kicked from behind his goal line to Langdon on the 35 yard line. Capt. Beegle was injured in making the tackle but after a rest resumed play. Wilson made 18 yards on a forward pass and Mauthe added 10. Gettysburg held and Mauthe then kicked a field goal from the 20 yard line. Score 18-0. The quarter ended soon after.

The above is a cut of the new loving cup offered by the A. G. Spaulding Company. The cup will be given to the team that wins three of the first five games between the University of Pittsburgh and Penn State.

In the last quarter Gettysburg started with a first down through line plunges of Poffinberger. Several substitutions were made in this quarter. After an exchange of punts, Keller caught a kick from Hoar on Gettysburg's 40 yard line. In six rushes Mauthe and Keller carried the ball over for the final touchdown. Mauthe kicked goal. No further scoring was made.

The failure of the completion of two or three long passes in the remainder of the game kept State from increasing her score. The game closed just after a 30 yard run by Mauthe around right end had placed the ball on Gettysburg's 15 yard line. Lineup:

"COUSIN KATE" WAS GREAT

Excellent Acting Characterizes the First Amateur Show of the Year. Best "Co-ed Show" Ever Staged

Last Saturday evening in the Auditorium, a rather small audience had the opportunity to see one of the best plays that has been given at the college for some time. The comedy "Cousin Kate" was enacted under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., directed by Mr. C. L. Downing, of Thespian fame. The play itself is charming, full of amusing situations, yet compelling serious attention at all times. The cast was possessed of all the ability to effectively portray the characters represented.

Miss Williams, as Mrs. Spencer; Miss Heuer, as Amy, her daughter; Miss Ancona, as Cousin Kate; Miss Guthrie, as Jane; Mr. Lincoln, as Bobby; Mr. Deering, as Heath Desmond, an artist; and Mr. Hughes, as Mr. Bartlett formed a well balanced cast in which each character was well enacted.

The leading roles were taken by Miss Ancona, as Cousin Kate, and Mr. Deering, as Heath Desmond. The former is well known by her successes in previous performances during the past three years, and the fact that in Cousin Kate she excelled all her other appearances is not surprising. Mr. Deering, however, was almost an unknown acting element and captivated his audience. His acting was the best ever seen at Penn State, and it is hoped that we shall have the pleasure of seeing him in many more shows throughout the year.

The audience was very enthusiastic in its appreciation of the play, and the many who did not attend have missed something decidedly worth while. "Cousin Kate" is by far the most difficult, and yet the best production that the Y. W. C. A. has attempted; and if the same standard is maintained in future years, success is assured.

Philadelphia on Saturday.

On Thursday at 5:15 o'clock Coach Hollenback's warriors will leave for one of the most important games of this year's schedule. State supporters on a basis of comparison to date have good reason to expect victory, but there is no doubt in the minds of all that it will be a hard fought battle from start to finish. Penn started the season with championship aspirations. Three recent defeats have made her desperate. Add to this the stinging remembrance of the crushing defeat the Blue and White administered last year and it is easy to see that Penn has enough provocation to make her fight to the last ditch. Further than this Penn has never been victorious over a Penn State team coached by "Big Bill". The two team have met eighteen times. Penn was victorious in all but two games. Penn State tied Penn in 1909, lost in 1910 and won her first victory in the memorable battle of 1912.

The special athletic train will leave State College Friday at 6 a. m. via Harrisburg to Phila. Round trip $6.75. It will return Saturday night, leaving Broad Street Station at 11:59 p. m. Pullman sleeping accommodations may be secured on the return trip at $1.50 for a lower berth and $1.25 for an upper berth.

Cross-Country Meet.

Saturday morning, November 2, at 11:30 a. m. the Penn State cross-country team will meet the University of Penna. team in a dual meet at Fairmount Park, Philadelphia. The course will be five miles in length consisting for the most part of road work. This is the first attempt to introduce cross-country as an intercollegiate sport. The future of the sport will depend to a great extent on the showing made. The men are determined to show that the team is of intercollegiate calibre and a good meet is expected. The team will consist of Capt. Keyser, Lum, Savery, Harrison, Horst, Schroeder & Stergir.

In Honor of Captain Mauthe.

As the football team came on New Beaver Field Saturday, Captain Mauthe was presented with a circle of white carnations enclosing a blue "S". The presentation speech was made by Dean Jackson, the wreath being given by the Farmi Nous Society as a symbol of appreciation. A large bunch of chrysanthemums tied with Gettysburg's colors was also given to Captain Biegel.

New Musical Society.

A choral society has recently been formed for the purpose of studying and practicing choral music, and is now rehearsing the Cantata, Ruth, by Gaul, under the direction of Prof. Robinson. A public performance will be given at the close of the semester.

Penn Returns to the Alumni.

Alumni in the vicinity of Philadelphia will make headquarter during the Penn game at the Engineers' Club, 1317 Spruce St. Pittsburgh alumni will receive the returns in the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburgh.

The Class Banquets.

The banquet of the junior class will be held in Philadelphia, November 1, at the Collonade Hotel. The sophomore banquet will take place at the Walton at 11 o'clock of the same evening.

OUR ATHLETICS AS SEEN BY OTHERS

Attitude Taken by Papers is Unfair to Our College—Time for All to Act.

With the growth of Penn State as a college in the past few years, it is not to be wondered at that athletic success has followed. One of the rewards of this success seems to come in the form of knocks at Penn State's code of eligibility and ethics.

The following item clipped from the Lynn (Mass.) Item is a sample of the absurdities published about us:

"On the other end of the stick is Penn State, a college where athletics are supreme and the teams made up of men practically subsidized because of athletic ability, and whose schedules are picked so as to hit the soft spots and leave the men free to devote the maximum of time to sports. Their men come and go, little or no entrance requirement hindering their entrance and no one-year transfer rule to prevent a man from another college playing for Penn State immediately upon his changing his residence. Every Cornell man likes to win and hates to lose, but few would rather be a Penn State winner than a Cornell loser."

Such articles have in the past been ignored with the thought that the real truth would gradually filter through to the outside world and indicate our position in athletics. This unfavorable publicity seems to be multiplying rather than disappearing. The time is now come for every Penn State man, whether alumnus or undergraduate, to thoroughly acquaint himself with athletic conditions and then in the light of these facts insist on fair statements in quarters where such unfair statements have been made.

In the case of our recent game with Cornell, stories of Penn State's rowdiness and brutal play found place in the daily papers. Our athletic policies stand for no such conduct as is blamed. A thorough investigation is being made and steps have been taken to get at the real truth of the matter. Our coaches know of only one rough play made in the whole game by our team. Telegrams have been sent by Graduate Manager R. H. Smith to the men who officiated the recent game and at the time of our going to press only the following reply has been received.

TELEGRAM

Ludlowville, N. Y.

Oct. 25, 1912

R. H. Smith,
 Graduate Manager,
 State College, Pa.

Unable to detect unnecessary roughness beyond one instance. Game hard fought and well played.
 J. Cooney

Reports from other sources all indicate how utterly false these criticisms are. Now is the time for all of us to get busy. The interests of Penn State have triumphed in other cases which have meant just as much to our Alma Mater, and in order to discourage such publicity in the future our true standards must be known by the outside world.

Progressive Adherents.

All men interested in the Progressive Party are asked to hand their names to men posted at the Wednesday evening Mass meeting.
