The L. A. S. Play.

The Liberal Arts Society will present "The Rivals" in the Auditorium Nov. 23. This play written by Richard Sheridan, is closely linked with the great actor Joseph Jefferson.

Concerning the cast many good things can be said. Miss Jean McNarney, who starred last year in Oliver Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer," will assume the role of the leading lady, "Mrs. Malaprop", Mr. A. W. Tuholski will play the part of "Bob Acres." Miss Helen White, Miss Mary K. Jackson, and Miss Florence Powdermaker will impersonate "Lydia Languish", "Julia Melville", and "Lucy", respectively. Mr. Ross as "Sir Anthony Absolute," Mr. Nichols as "Captain Jack Absolute," Mr. Russell as "Faulkland," R. A. Kester as "Lucius O'Trigger," Mr. Gleim as "Fag," and Mr. L. R. Warner as "David" will each contribute a unique feature to the acting.

Professor J. H. Frizzell, upon whom the entire burden of training the players formerly devolved, has recently been aided in his commendable work by Professor C. O. Harris. Professor Dye will also augment the training staff.

Tickets will be on sale at the Business Office on Saturday Nov. 16, from 6:30 to 8:00 p. m., for members of the faculty, and on Monday and Wednesday Nov. 18 and 20 from 6:30 to 8:00 p. m. for the general public. The prices will be 25, 35, and 50 cents. L. R. Warner is the Business Manager of the play.

Interclass Wrestling Meet.

Tonight (Wednesday evening) at 7 o'clock in the Armory, the sophomore and freshman classes meet in their first athletic contest, the annual Interclass Wrestling Match. The freshmen, under the tutelage of upperclassmen have been making rapid strides and will present a strong team to contest for the honors of being winners, while the sophomores, because of their greater experience feel confident of victory. Nevertheless the fact that they have been working hard shows that they respect their opponents and that they are going to be prepared to meet all exigencies. Without a doubt the meet will be an interesting one, since the freshmen wish to retain the prestige gained by winning the Cider Scrap, and the sophomores seek to avenge that defeat with an overwhelming victory.

The first match will start at seven o'clock. An admission of ten cents (10 c) will be charged and a section of seats will be reserved for ladies and members of the faculty. Managers Hill, 1915, and Herr, 1916, give out the following line up.

1915	1916
Burns or Miller	115 Baird or Williams
Kirk	125 Bennett or Rock
Frantz or Smith	135 Rayburn or Lewis
Hill	145 Breneiser or Goetz
Gleason	158 Chambers or Martin
Stoner	175 Clark or Kaylor
Stecker	Heavy Mayer
or Hanson	or Miller.

A Change in Places.

Because of the large attendance at the first meeting of Dr. Holmes's discussion of student problems, the following three lectures will be given in the Old Chapel each Sunday evening at 9:30.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Three short courses will be offered by the Y. M. C. A. extending over the next four weeks on the following topics: The Immigrant and How to Handle Him, led by Dr. P. O. Ray; The Challenge of the Country, led by Prof. R. L. Watts and others; and Some Social Problems of the Cities, led by Mr. F. D. Buchman. Call at the office for particulars.

Dean Holmes will have a class at 9:30 Sunday evenings in the Old Chapel, to discuss questions that fellows may ask, and other problems common to men in college. The invitation is extended to all.

Dr. C. K. Edmunds, President of the Canton Christian College, will speak at the college next Sunday, and will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the evening. That is Daddy Groff's college. Hear what he is doing.

Where Our Freshmen Come From.

Professor Espenshade, the Registrar of the College, has furnished us with the following facts about the Freshman Class that entered college in September, 1912:

The 657 Freshmen were prepared for college in 343 different schools, 271 public high schools and 72 private preparatory schools. Eighty Freshmen attended two or more different schools, most of them beginning their preparation in a public high school and completing it in a private preparatory school. Five hundred and eighteen Freshmen were wholly prepared in public high schools; 85 were wholly prepared in private preparatory schools and 53 were partly prepared in public high schools and partly in private schools.

Of the 343 different schools that have prepared students for the Freshmen Class, 277 are located in Pennsylvania, and 66 are situated outside the State. Two hundred and eighteen schools have but a single representative.

Four of the leading schools are as follows:

Northeast Manual Training H. S. of Philadelphia 18; Harrisburg Central H. S. 16; State College H. S. 14; York H. S. 14.

The Pilgrim Girls.

Those who attended last Saturday's evening performance certainly witnessed a very satisfying entertainment. The Pilgrim Girls who were garbed in the costumes of their namesakes combined to form a most efficient musical company, which evidenced excellent talent in the young ladies, and the application of concentrated training.

The program was made up of classical selections played by the entire orchestra, and of individual readings and solos by the various members. Miss Chesney, the reader, received much commendation. Everything she undertook she did well, and she had the special advantage of an exceedingly agreeable, strong, and well managed voice.

The evening was a success, and the persons that were unable to at-

WE WONDER.

How "Collegian" readers like the aristocratic vocation of cutting coupons.

Who the men will be that will draw unto themselves the most coupons.

Why the evening campus yodelers do not affiliate with the glee club. Why people write play advertisements and the like on the vertical steps around college, instead of confining them to the bulletin boards.

How the army is progressing in preparation for Pennsylvania Day. Who gives vent to those wierd yells on the campus in the evening hours.
