

There's no way to describe the lively, smart styles of these new overcoats so that you'll get a really good idea of them. Even the best illustrations don't do the clothes full justice. You've simply got to see the goods if you want to "get a line" on them.

The Sim Store

has produced the best overcoat styles this season you have ever seen, unless you have a look at them you'll miss the smartest lot of stuff in the market; and we're sure you don't want to do that.

You can find plenty of good looking clothes everywhere; but there's more than looks in these. There's quality in them; fine fabrics, fine tailoring, fine finish. They're the clothes you want.

New styles for young men; new belt-back models; new colors and weaves.

"Big Cife" Married.

Miss Nellie Wright and Ellis Raymond Cyphers were married recently in Plains, Kansas. Mr. Cyphers was at one time a noted "Penn State Foot-ball Player", and played three years on the Blue and White team. Mr. and Mrs. Cyphers are living on the Cyphers Cattle Ranch, Johnson, Kansas.

Experiment Chickens.

Some person has recently broken into a building and stolen several valuable experiment chickens. If a student, do not forget the "death knell" to a college education; if a townsman, remember the "rail road."

A Talk on China.

The Chinese National Night was presented last Friday under the auspices of the Cosmopolitan Club. Mr. Taam spoke on women activities in China. Mr. Chang spoke on Chinese philosophy, mainly as taught by Confucius.

Harrisburg Dance.

The Harrisburg Club cordially invites all Penn State men to attend their annual dance at Christmas, to be held Thursday, December 26, at the Studio Music Hall.

The P. R. R. is trying to give us better train service at Christmas time than ever before. All the company asks of the students is that each person sign a card signifying the exact time of his departure.

Remember the special attractions at the Pastime on Friday, Dec. 13 and Wednesday, Dec. 18.
