TORONTO IS DEFEATED

Blue and White Matmen Win Second Meet by Decisive Score Six to One.

Penn State again showed good form and great strength on the mats, when her team defeated the strong team of the University of Toronto by the score of 6 to 1 on Saturday evening. Again the Armory was packed with an enthusiastic, appreciative and fair minded audience. Interest was at fever heat and the cheering was excellent and impartial.

Toronto came with a good reputation to defend. Her Coach, "Kid" Batten is bantam weight champion of England and his team showed the effect of good training in this regard. They were defeated but even with the one sided score put up a brand of wrestling that marked them as one of the best teams that has ever appeared on the Penn State mats.

Penn State opened with a victory when "Little Jack Horner" put in his thumb and pulled out the first plum from the Toronto pie. The bout was well contested. Horner securing a fall at the end of 6 minutes from his heavier opponent. Jones and Morrison came on next and seemed evenly matched. At the end of five minutes of fast work Jones superior condition seemed to be telling and he threw his man heavily to the mat. The Canadian received a badly wrenched knee and could not continue the bout, losing by default. Fulkman again showed his characteristic speed and at the end 3 minutes and 35 seconds secured a fall from Kahl.

The best bout of the evening was between Captain Haynes of Toronto and Captain Shollenberger of Penn State. The former has won several medals as an amateur in the provinces, among others being Amateur Y. M. C. A. champion of Canada, while the latter is considered one of the best men in his class in the college wrestling world. A great exhibition was given and the bout was hard fought. There were several imminent falls but neither could complete his advantage to that end. Captain Haynes won on decision at the end of nine minutes.

Very won the quickest bout of the evening when he threw Card in 26 seconds.

Sayre proved too strong for Curtis in the 175 pound class and secured a fall in three minutes. Lamb won from Mahaffy with a chancery hold in a little less than four minutes Summary:

115 Pound class. Horner, Penn State won on a fall from Ross, Toronto, 6 minutes, 4 second.

125 Pound class. Jones, Penn State won by default from Morrison, Toronto; 5 minutes, 55 seconds.

135 Pound class. Fulkman, Penn State won on a fall from Kahl, Toronto, 3 minutes 35 seconds.

145 Pound class. Capt. Haynes Toronto, won on decision from Capt. Shollenberger, Penn State; 9 minutes.

158 Pound class. Very; Penn State, won on a fall from Card, Toronto, 26 seconds.

175 Pound class. Sayre, Penn State won on a fall from Curtis, Toronto, 3 minutes, 2 seconds.

Heavyweight. Lamb, Penn State, won on a fall from Mahaffy, Toronto, 3 minutes, 54 seconds.

Score: Penn State 6, Toronto University 1; Referee, Malcolm MacMillan, U. of P.; Judges; Lewis Penn State, Batten, U. of Toronto; Timer, Dr. Stecker, Penn State; Recorder, Light, Penn State.

THREE IN A ROW.

Penn State Five Loses Three Closely Contested Games - Binder Plays Exceptional Game.

The Penn State basketball team took a strenuous trip the latter part of last week dropping games to Lehigh, Swarthmore and Franklin and Marshall. The team made the dormitories at Swarthmore and the several fraternity houses at Lehigh and Franklin and Marshall their headquarters. As was the case on the Western trip, Penn State was a leading attraction and played to crowded gymnasiums. Collegiate work prevented Mauthé and Craig from taking the trip. Binder performed well in all three games and was easily the best shot on the team.

The team opened its series of games in South Bethlehem with Lehigh as the opponent. Every representative of the Blue and White played hard but lost to the strongest teams in the the East. The Lehigh team was especially strong in intercepting passes. The Swarthmore game was not so sensational or well played as the Lehigh game. With a tie score and one minute to play in this game, McKissick made good at a free shot from field and at the same time was fouled. Weaver at the foul line then increased Swarthmore's two-joint lead to a three-point lead which it retained until the whistle blew a half moment later. Park turned his ankle near the end of the game and was substituted by Willard. The final game of the trip terminated in a 26 to 23 victory for Franklin and Marshall. Brenner's accurate shooting for F. and M. was largely responsible for Penn State's defeat. The scores.

Our Engineering School Defended.

Dean Jackson strongly defended the Engineering School of this college against the plan of devoting the institution exclusively to agriculture at the sixteenth annual dinner of the Engineer's Society of N. E. Penna. held recently at Wilkes-Barre.

Football Dance.

The annual football dance was held in the Armory on the evening of Feb. 12. About twenty-five couples attended the dance.

THESPIAN ORCHESTRA CHOSEN

Nineteen Pieces to Furnish Music for "The Yankee Brigands".

A pleasing feature, that accompanies The Thespians, this year is the excellent spirit that came with every man who responded to the call for material. The Thespians have an orchestra this year of nineteen pieces, which will be the largest orchestra that ever played for a show in State College. Prof. J. S. Crandell is the director and is making excellent progress. The musicians who were picked from the best in the college include the following: clarinets, Sumner, Strickler and Jamison; cornets, Moyer and Jones; trombones, Clapp and Morrell; drums, S. Redecker; piano, W. B. Walton; violins, Brodstein, Crawford, Cressman, Eckley, Grundhoeffer and O'Brien; viola, W. G. Powell; cello, A. D. Robinson; flute, G. B. Leyden.

The music was written especially for "The Yankee Brigands", which will be produced by The Thespians for the first time on Friday, March the seventh, in the Auditorium.

Prof. J. S. Crandell wrote all the words and Victor Lecoq, of New York City, wrote the music for the show. The music was orchestrated by Prof. Crandell. Every indication points to an excellent performance and a prosperous year for The Thespians.

Pitt Versus Penn State.

Penn State's varsity basketball team will wind up its most successful season, on Saturday night, when it meets the University of Pittsburgh on the Armory floor. The team has made a good record this year and it is putting it mildly to state that it has not received the support it deserves. It is inconceivable that there were fewer than 500 paid admissions at the recent Allegheny game, a number which conclusively proves that only a small proportion of the student body is witnessing the home basketball games. The admission fee is small and let every man be on hand Saturday night at 7:15 to see Penn State's best basketball team in action. On account of the many house parties over Washington's birthday, special provision will be made to accommodate the large number of lady visitors who are expected to attend the game.

The Pitt five is one not to be toyed with as it has an excellent record, having won most of its games this year including victories over such strong teams as Swarthmore and Penn. Penn State's 30 to 25 victory over Pitt during the western trip must not be considered as an everyday occurrence as this game was hard fought from start to finish.

Free Victor-Victrola Concerts

The sacred concert at 4 p. m. in Old Chapel on Sunday afternoon next should be well attended. The success of this affair will in a large degree decide whether the concerts are to be continued. If so there will be two each month. One sacred Sunday concert and one concert some week day devoted to popular music. The concert is given free by J. Mulvihill, '14 sales representative, for State College, of the W. F. Frederick Piano Co., Altoona.

California is the second largest school in the country. The enrollment is 7,263.

MINING SCHOOL INSPECTED.

Prominent Mine Operators Are Interested in Our School.

The growing interest and appreciation shown toward the development of our Mining School was clearly evidenced last week by the presence of official committees of two state mining organizations. The following men represented the Bituminous Mine Operators of Pennsylvania:—J. B. Irish, of W. R. Roberts and R. A. Cha lfield, Philadelphia; R. Peale and J. P. Lincoln, of New York; B. M. Clark of Punxsutawney; and J. C. Cosgrove, of Cherry Tree. Representing the Clearfield District of the United Mine Workers of America were Robert Lindie, of Blossburg; Hugh McGinty, of Osceola Mills; and Jas. Purcell, of Wellsboro.

The visitors made a careful inspection of the resources of the school with the idea of determining its needs, and taking measures, through their representative organizations, to aid in securing more adequate state support. This is the first time that either mine operators or workers have seen fit to actively support the school; and the fact that the two have co-operated is an assurance that the production of skilled mining engineers is considered a valuable asset to the state.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

Delightful Musical Entertainment Presented Before Large Audience—Given Under Auspices of the Glee Club to Partially Defray Expenses of Western Trip.

A delightful evening's entertainment was afforded a large audience in the Auditorium last Friday evening by a concert given under the auspices of the Penn State Glee Club. The performance was beyond a doubt one of the best, perhaps the very best, of its kind that has been produced here; and it may well be a matter of pride to realize that we have, at Penn State, talent of such a varied and decided nature as that shown on Friday evening.

The Glee Club was well assisted. Hawley's "Reclouin Love Song" was well sung by G. H. Moffitt '13, leader of the club, a bass solo, Elliott's "Hybris the Cretan," sung by C. M. Logan '16, was also very pleasing. A banjo solo by R. G. Spiegle '13 was an enjoyable feature of the program; and several humorous readings by L. R. Austin '16 proved to be very entertaining. One of the hits of the evening was scored by the college quartet, Messrs. Robinson, Kieckhefer, Leyden, and Vale. Their humorous selections, notably "My Ole Banjo" and "A Tragic Story," were very amusing, and the quartet was heartily encored as long as it could respond. The first part of the program was closed by the Mandolin Club, under the direction of E. N. Sullivan '14, playing expressively Offenbach's "Barcarolle."

The glee club itself, one hundred male voices, sang four of the twelve numbers on the program. The concert was impressively opened by their singing, in martial manner, Park's "Old Brigade," one of the most generally appreciated numbers given. Stevenson's "Tulita," a Spanish love song was sung with great precision and expression. Perhaps the most difficult of the glee club selections was the well known poem, "Three Fishers," set to music by Goldbeck; and the manner in which it was delivered vouches for the ability of the club and its director. "The Land of the Sky-blue Water," sung as an encore, was especially good. The closing number of the entertainment was Prof. Robinson's arrangement of Boud's beautiful composition, "A Perfect Day," and it would be difficult to find a more fitting ending to a delightful entertainment.

While our musical organizations in previous years have been worthy indeed, the care and attention of a talented director, the ensuing renewal of interest among the student body, the prospect of a wonderful trip this year and the increased prestige of following years have combined to a remarkable extent in producing a concert like that given Friday night. The well filled Auditorium was evidence that a college organization, to be supported at Penn State, must simply "make good." The Glee Club has certainly "made good."

Senior Civil Dance.

Following a custom established last year, the 1913 Civil engineering students held the second of a series of 1913 Civil dances in the Hotel last Thursday.
