

Continued from page 1

Sayre continued the good work for Penn State by getting his man to the mat at the end of six minutes and by keeping him helpless by using the wrist lock for the rest of the time. He won a decision in nine minutes. Lamb secured the quickest fall of the evening. He rushed Dayton from the start and soon threw him to the mat, where he secured a fall with an arm and head lock hold. Dayton sustained a badly injured wrist in the bout.

President Sparks' Lecture

On Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock in the Auditorium, President Sparks gave the first of a series of two lectures on "Egypt" before a large audience. This lecture treated especially of the Valley of the Nile and the methods used in its irrigation, with descrip-

Wheat and Clover

Many farmers stick to wheat raising mainly because clover follows it in the rotation. But why not get the best possible out of both crops? No crop returns better profit for the right fertilizer than wheat. What is the right fertilizer? That depends on the soil and on what fertilizer you have used on it. The longer you have used phosphate the sooner it will pay you to balance it with

POTASH

Insist on your wheat fertilizer containing 6 to 8 per cent. of Potash. Potash Pays on both wheat and clover.

If your dealer does not carry Potash, write us for prices, naming quantity needed, and ask for our free book, "Fall Fertilizers." It will show you how to save money and increase profits.
