

The Forum.

On Tuesday evening, April 8, the new literary society was formally organized and the following officers were elected for the first year: President, W. H. Hillary '13; vice president, H. R. Rosen '13; secretary, L. R. Warner '14; treasurer, H. P. Young '13; sergeant at arms, M. Fishtein '13.

Meetings are held at half past seven o'clock every Tuesday evening in Room K of the Library, and anyone interested may attend the program part of the meeting which part precedes the business meeting of the society.

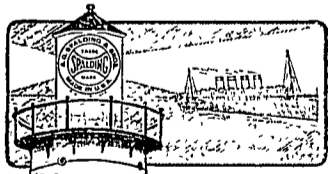

All students, who have ability in literary work and debating should make an effort to become members of "The Forum". The qualifications required for membership are that all applicants should have been on the scholarship list published by the Registrar, and should have marked literary ability; and that all applicants, whose names have not been on the scholarship list, should have shown marked literary ability either in preparatory school or in college.

An invitation is here extended to all students with literary ability to hand their name, class, course, and information concerning their collegiate standing and what they have done in literary work, to a member of the society that may be considered for membership.

Twenty American colleges will furnish 400 students to do routine work on United States Navy ships during their summer vacation and at the same time the men will receive special instructions including a series of lectures on various technical topics. These men must have completed two or three years' courses in their respective colleges. The object of this project is to benefit the men by deepening their interest in the navy and giving a practical extension of their technical training, thereby stirring up a new recognition of naval needs and requirements over the United States as a whole.

On Sunday evening, April 27th, Dr. Charles E. Barker will address the 6:30 meeting and present the topic "Physical Fitness". Dr. Barker was Physical Adviser to ex-President Taft during his presidential term of four years and is a man of country-wide reputation. An interesting article may be found in the April issue of "Association Men" dealing with Dr. Barker's four years' association with Mr. Taft.
