THE THESPIANS.

Tuesday June 10 in Their Sixteenth Annual Production.

Everyone that saw this years production of the Thespians will undoubtedly remember the remarkably clever plot and the very catchy music, which along with the ability shown by the entire cast and chorus, made the Yankee Brigands one of the best shows ever staged by the organization.

The same men that appeared in the previous performance will be seen in this show, and with the experience attained through the six shows, as given on the very successful trip during Easter vacation, they should make a more decided hit than when seen here for the first time.

With the "Swing Song" and "Hold Em State", two songs from the show that every-one is singing and Whistling, made more prominent than in the former production, and with the many added features, this last performance of the Yankee Brigands should make a very favorable impression on the audience which will see the show in the Auditorium on Tuesday June 10.

The dates of the various ticket sales will be posted on the bulletin boards around the College.

BY THE WAY.

The day of the poor professor is apparently a thing of the past. The modern professors and instructors are highly paid men. The average wages for professors and instructors in the following universities is as stated:

Columbia, $2,000 a year; Harvard, $2,000; Cornell, $2,000; Yale, $3,000; Princeton, $3,000; Michigan, $4,000; and Stanford, $5,000.

The will of Miss Margaret Van Deusen, an aged spinster, of Middletown, Conn., reveals the fact that Wesleyan University lost a fortune because some eight or ten years ago students stole Miss Van Deusen's pet cat for experimental purposes in the biological laboratory. The owner was heartbroken. It was then that she changed her will, cutting off without a penny the university which was to have been bequeathed most of her estate.

Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford Junior University, has resigned and his place will be filled by John Casper Banner. Dr. Jordan vacated his office as head of the university to accept that of chancellor, which will be created by the board of trustees next Friday for his special benefit. In his new position he will work for the world peace movement.

Valuable Gift to the College.

Full length portraits of President Sparks and General James A. Beaver, by Hildebrandt, of New York, will be presented to the college at commencement, and will be added to the art collection in the Carnegie. The portraits, which are exceedingly valuable, are the gifts of Mr. J. G. White '82

Mr. S. C. Long, General Manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be in State College, with a number of others, on June 11. It is to be hoped that better railway connections will follow.
