

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Prof. Norman Richardson of the chair of Religious Psychology and Pedagogy of Boston University school of Theology is to be here September 27 and 28 to train leaders in Bible study and also to take charge of Sunday services.

W. S. Hoffman '11 sailed on September 6 to take up his new work in the Syrian Protestant College at Beirut.

Physical Director Lewis, S. M. Dean, P. Jones and H. R. Austin attended the Physical Director's Conference held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Timothy Hughes, last year an instructor in English at the college is in charge of the Cosmopolitan Club work at Columbia University, under the direction of the Y. M. C. A.

The first Y. M. C. A. meeting will be held at 6:30 p. m., Sunday in the Auditorium. All are welcome.

Don'ts for the Freshman.

The following are a few customs and regulations which have been lived up to in the past, and which must be recognized by the individuals of the class of 1917, if they wish to prevent friction with the hazing tribunal:—

1. Do not walk upon the grass of the Campus.
2. Do not smoke outside.
3. Do not have cuffs on trousers.
4. Do not associate with the fair sex.
5. Do not part with green dome.
6. Do not be without matches.
7. Do not obstruct the path of upper-classmen.
8. Do not speak disrespectfully to upper-classmen.
9. Do not linger on the Co-op corner.
10. Do not wander in the streets in the late hours.

ASK FOR IT

and you will get any kind of flavor you like at this candy store. You can have anything from the good old-fashioned molasses candy to the richest of chocolates. And no matter what you buy the candy will have that delicious flavor which lingers in your memory and makes you sorry you didn't buy a bigger box.
