appeal is made to the common sense of every man whom this rule affects urging him to use his discretion and not abuse the right which it conveys. In other words, that he will not demand the services of freshmen indiscriminately.

7. No class shall be allowed to wear caps or hats bearing their class initials until after Easter vacation of their sophomore year.

8. Sophomores are permitted to parade around the athletic field between halves of a varsity football game. Upper classmen only are allowed to kick the football.

This parade is restricted to the grass between the track and gridiron.

9. Sophomores shall issue but one proclamation each year, and the freshmen shall none. Proclamations shall not be posted on the college buildings.

10. Sophomores and freshmen are not allowed to go without coats except on poster night and bonfire nights.

11. Freshmen must always wear green caps except on trips, Sunday, holidays, and except when entertaining their mothers and sisters.

12. Freshmen shall not be permitted to smoke in public, and they shall not wear college colors during the first term.

13. Freshmen shall not be permitted to carry canes unless they defeat the sophomores in the inter-class football game.

14. Freshmen must keep off the grass at all times.

This means that freshmen are not permitted to walk on the grass at any time whether accompanied by senior, junior or sophomore. The ruling is general and in such instances as Y. M. C. A. Reception, scraps, and similar occasions its non-observance would be sanctioned.

15. Freshmen shall not talk back to upper classmen when being instructed by them.

16. The painting of class numerals shall be restricted to the freshman year, said painting of numerals shall be done on the armory roof on the Saturday night before Baccalaureate Sunday.

17. Freshmen shall not wear preparatory school athletic, class, or society insignia.

18. Freshmen shall not wear cuffs in their trousers.

19. Freshmen shall keep their hands out of their pockets at all times.

20. Freshmen shall attend all class meetings, athletic meetings, and mass meetings.

21. Freshmen are not permitted to go with young ladies except at times of house parties or when entertaining their mothers or sisters.

22. Freshmen are not permitted to accompany sophomores or upper classmen when calling on young ladies.

M. E. Society.

At a meeting held on January 14 the Mechanical Engineering Society elected the following officers: president, Foell '14; vice-president, Kennedy '15; secretary, Herzog '15; treasurer, Rudy '14.

Mr. Charles W. Z. Hilbert 1913, District Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company at Allentown, Pa., under Walter S. Buck, won a handsome prize for insuring the largest number of lives during the month of December 1913.

A course in Old High German will be offered next semester. Any one intending to take the course will kindly confer with Prof. Simmons so text books may be ordered and hours arranged.

Dr. R. J. Patterson.

Reverend Patterson of Belfast, Ireland, the leader of the Catchmy-Pal movement in Great Britain will speak at the college on Sunday, February 1st. Dr. Patterson has achieved wonderful success in Great Britain and Ireland, and his address is one of supreme significance. A London paper says: "Dr. Patterson, like many of his fellow-countrymen, has a rich fund of humor—he is a racy speaker, blends humor and pathos in a judicious manner, and grips his audience from the very start."

Senior Dance.

The next senior dance will take place in the Armory on February 12, at 8:00 p. m.

At the request of the Pennsylvania State College, the Forest Assistant Examination will be held at the Forestry Building at State College, Pa. on March 11 and 12, 1914. Proper application blanks, Form No. 1312 can be procured from J. A. Rice, local secretary, at the postoffice at State College.
