

STATE WINS ANOTHER

West Virginia Proved Good Opponents. Craig's Clout in Second Paves the Way for Team's Fifth Victory.

Before a throng of chilled spectators, "Shorty" Miller's team managed to sew up a fast game with West Virginia on New Beaver field last Friday. A second game was scheduled for Saturday afternoon but owing to rain the game was called.

Barron for West Virginia started out strong by striking out two men in the first inning. Craig the first man up in the second landed on a fast one and scored a home run with a clean drive to deep right. This hit momentarily unnerved Barron who then walked Robinson. Kominars sacrificed, advancing Robinson to third. Weber lined a fast one to Long who fumbled and Weber stole second. A sacrifice fly by Vogt brought in two more tallies and Liebert made the third out with a pop fly to first. No further scoring took place until the sixth when Blythe laced out a single followed by another single from Craig's bat which advanced Blythe to second. A sacrifice by Robinson moved both men to second and third respectively and Kominars' hit to Barron forced Blythe at home. Another single by Weber to left scored Craig; Kominars came in on an overthrow to the plate. In the seventh we lost another opportunity to score when, after a hit by Liebert, and Millers clout to second which retired Liebert, "Shorty" stole second and tried to get home on Crawford's single but died at the plate.

West Virginia's only scoring was done in the second when Liebert weakened, issued two passes and Robinson overthrew third bringing in their lone tally.

Liebert pitched good ball and kept the hits well scattered tightening up and striking out the side when hits meant runs. Only five singles were credited against him while Barron allowed seven and was only effective at times. Liebert struck out seven men and issued three passes while Barron struck out three and walked only one. Craig continued his usual good stick work with two hits out of four times up and his fielding also proved to be above the average.

West Virginia's outfielders proved to be fast and played snappy ball while the team as a whole played a good game. The score is as follows:—

W. Va.	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	R	H	E
Penn State	0	3	0	0	2	0	0	x	5	7

State Wins at Relays

Through the withdrawal of one team to enter the championship race, two classes were combined in the one mile relay race. Humble ran a great race, but in touching off White he spiked and removed White's shoe. White ran his entire quarter mile with a spiked foot and minus a shoe. If this accident had not occurred, our team would have returned with two watches each in place of but one. Leyden ran the last relay and finished ahead of the Carlisle runner.

Lamb took third in the javelin throw but Hammitt was unsuccessful. The heavy track and numerous heats proved his downfall. The four mile relay also suffered from the condition of the track.

Baseball Trip.

The baseball team leaves on Thursday and will play Lehigh Lafayette, Vermont, Dartmouth, West Point and Princeton. Since the return of the team two new men have shown to such advantage that they are to be added to the squad. Baughman '16 will be taken with Hesselbacker and Liebert to care for the pitching. Baughman is small and has little speed but he has a good assortment of curves with the team in back of him he should win his game. Josefson will go as a substitute outfielder and Eliffe as the infield substitute.

With the exception of West Point every team to be played is strong. Lehigh has won four out of nine games. Chenoweth, the football star of the college, is playing second base while Leody, a first string pitcher, is also a football man. The only comparative scores are two defeats for Lehigh from W. and L. to one defeat for State.

The one game which the players wish to win above all is naturally the Princeton game. A Princeton defeat from a State team is no rarity. In 1912 Whitney pitched to victory and in the days of Cree and Hayerstick three victories in succession came to State.

Princeton has won seven out of ten games having lost once to Catholic University and twice to Georgetown. No doubt Wood their star flinger will oppose State in this battle.

Baseball Suggestions.

The committee on College baseball appointed by the National Collegiate Athletic Association has made several suggestions most of which appear to be of value. The first suggestion recommends the enforcement of that rule which limits the coaches' remarks to the base-runner only. At least some of our opponents have carried their remarks to our men. None of this coaching, however, has been heard from our team.

The second suggestion is in regard to the coach on the bench. Our men have decided to meet the opposing team half way in this matter. A third suggestion was that the catcher should be barred from addressing the batsman. This may or may not be wise. The constant chatter of a catcher does much to steady his battery mate.

The committee also suggests the elimination of the encouraging remarks from the outfield and the elimination of the spectators' remarks intended to "rattle" the visiting team. No doubt our outfield will meet opposing teams halfway in regard to the fourth suggestion.

Interclass Soccer

An interclass soccer league has been formed with teams from the three lower classes. A. L. Dorwart has been elected as manager of the sophomores and G. A. Doyle to the same position for the freshmen.

Interclass practice will be held each afternoon in conjunction with varsity practice. Class numerals are awarded to members of class teams and ample opportunity will be given to new men to make good.

The following schedule has been arranged:
 April 25, 1915 vs. 1917.
 April 29, 1917 vs. 1916.
 May 2, 1916 vs. 1615.
 May 6, 1915 vs. 1917.
 May 9, 1917 vs. 1916.
 May 13, 1915 vs. 1916.

LACROSSE TEAM WINS

Team Work and Accurate Passing Give Results—Pennsylvania Here Saturday.

A victory over Baltimore City college on Beaver field Saturday indicates that the lacrosse team will help keep State among the best teams of that sport. Hallowell played his first game and was very effective. His last goal was a very difficult shot and well executed. Yerger played a fine game at defense. His speed and weight proved to be of great advantage in body checking. The entire team played with remarkable ability for the first game. Team work was always in evidence and the passing was always accurate. Gallagher and Mehard played the same good game which characterized their work in 1913, while Farley outplayed the veteran Wolfe at center.

The number of spectators was the only disappointment. After seeing one game few care to miss a single contest. State College stamped its approval on the sport last year when it liberally supported the Penn game.

Next Saturday the University of Pennsylvania plays on Beaver field. Since the baseball team will be away, the game will be the only varsity contest that afternoon. Penn has lost to Johns Hopkins, Carlisle and Harvard. While State should win, the game should be well contested. Starting with Parker at goal, the Penn line will be Russell, Chandler, Hassen, Rockefeller, Graham, Hussa, Gorman, Holland, Heitman, Nessman and Kilgore.

Track Managers

Fifteen sophomores are needed to act as guides for the scholastic athletes who will compete here on Friday. Since the amendment to the athletic association constitution will probably be passed, which provides a new method for managerial selection, Manager De Voe wishes to have the names of all candidates in the sophomore class for second assistant track managers. Acting as guides on Friday will be part of the work assigned to the candidates.

Seniors Who Want Positions.

C. K. Ober, of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., will be in State College April 29 to May 1, to interview men who desire to take advantage of the Fellowship Plan.

This plan is similar to that of a scholarship in a University. A man has an opportunity to try himself out for a year to see whether he is fitted for industrial, city, student, or foreign secretaryship. He has a salary of $600 a year, and is under expert leadership. Tom McConnell was one of the men under this Fellowship Plan.

1916 Class Meeting

At a meeting of the sophomore class last Monday, Geary was elected editor-in-chief of the 1916 La Vie and Sipe, business manager. Dolbin was elected track manager, but resigned leaving the second highest man, Staiger, as manager. Liebacher was elected baseball manager. It was also decided that for the remainder of the present week, freshmen should be required to obey the nine o'clock curfew rule.

5. At the instant the signal is given, the freshmen shall place the pole in the hole, and the Sophomores may start. The scrap shall continue for 20 min.
6. To win the scrap the freshmen must plant their flag in the manner before described and retain this flag intact throughout the scrap.
7. Neither freshmen in defending nor sophomores in attacking shall use any mechanical means.
8. All contestants shall wear tennis shoes; all not so equipped will be debarred.
9. The judges shall consist of the Senior and Junior class presidents and one other, a faculty member or an alumnus chosen by them.

"Mining Quarterly" Elections.

At a recent meeting of the Senior members of the editorial and business staff of the "Penn State Mining Quarterly," the following men were elected to serve for the coming year:—

Editor in chief:—R. C. Hay, '15.
 Assistant Editor:—A. E. Rhoads '15.
 Associate Editors:—V. L. Ayers, '16 and H. H. Shaver, '16.
 Business Manager:—G. V. Luerksen, '15.
 Assistant Managers:—G. C. Faust '16, and S. L. McCoy, '16.

At the meeting of the Deutscher Verein in the Old Chapel, Friday night at 7:30 elections of the officers for the next school year will be held. Other important business is to be done including a discussion of an amendment to the constitution relative to the election of a treasurer from the faculty instead of from the student body as required in the Student Regulations. Prof. V. R. Jones will give an interesting talk and a May day program will be rendered.

"DAMAGED GOODS"

Great Moral Play to be Interpreted in Auditorium May 2. Has National Reputation.

Eugene Brieux's great play on Eugenics will be given in the Auditorium next Saturday evening, May 2, at eight o'clock; admission 25 cents. The attendance will be strictly limited to men.

"Damaged Goods" is a study of the great Red Plague in its bearing on marriage. It is a French production in three acts. Les Avaries, and the scene is laid in Paris. It is full of thrills. One of the dramatic climaxes is when a young man meets face to face with a physician and the awful truth is revealed to him. The play has produced a profound sensation wherever presented. "Damaged Goods" was first produced in America on March 14, 1913, and has since been continuously running in New York. It was the play selected to be presented at the National Purity Congress at Buffalo. On Sunday afternoon, April 6, 1913, there was given in Washington, D. C. a special guest performance for members of the Cabinet, both houses of Congress, the United States Supreme Court, representatives of the Diplomatic Corps, and others prominent in national life. The National Theatre was crowded with the foremost men and women of the Capital, including the most noted clergymen of that city.

Commencement Preparations.

Alumni Day at Commencement time will be an occasion of unusual celebration this year. Alumni festivities of Commencement week for the past few years have been growing in importance and interest and plans under way for the 1914 Commencement promises something entirely new. The alumni parade and stunts will be unusual in that reunion. Classes and undergraduate organizations will participate in fantastic costume.

The class of 1909 is very secretive about the stunt which they declare will be a "startler". The Varsity Club, on the occasion of the First Annual Home Coming of Former Athletes of the college will be very much in evidence. The class of 1914 has under advisement plans that will establish a precedent for future graduating classes. The Musical Clubs will stage some of their best hits.

Undergraduate organizations who desire to participate in the festivities of Alumni Day will be heartily welcomed. Representatives of any such organizations who are interested in the movement should see Alumni Secretary, Ray Smith, 120 Main Building, at the earliest possible date.

As Alumni day this year is a big feature of the "Booster Campaign" of the General Alumni Association every effort is being put forth to make the day memorable.

What Penn Thinks of Us.

"Every one of us from Pennsylvania certainly appreciated the magnificent reception which was given them by Penn State people. I have never been anywhere where the welcome was more cordial and whole-hearted, and I know it has done us all good to have been with you yesterday and caught some of the splendid spirit which seems to dominate the whole life of State's campus."
