THE BEST MATERIALS

only go into the making of our bread. These are mixed and baked by experts, the result being a bread unequalled in toothsome and wholesomeness. Why put off trying it? We also carry a complete line of confectionery and our ice cream cannot be excelled anywhere. Ask anyone about it. Ice cream served by dish at our ice cream parlor, 220 East College avenue.

The New York Alumni are arranging for a private Pullman car and will use this car as their headquarters during commencement.

It is rumored that '09's fifth reunion stunt will have some bearing on the present Mexican situation. Mexican uniforms will probably feature.

Departmental Notes

On Wednesday, June 10, the Horticultural Building of the Pennsylvania State College will be dedicated. The following program has been arranged: Chairman, Dean R. L. Watts; "Development of Horticulture at Penn State", Mr. C. J. Tyson; "Potentialities of Horticulture in Pennsylvania", Prof. M. G. Kains; "The Arts of Peace", Prof. F. A. Waugh, of the Massachusetts Agricultural College; presentation of the portrait of the late Gabriel Hiester, D. H. Stewart; acceptance of the portrait of Gabriel Hiester, President Edwin E. Sparks; presentation of the Horticultural Building, Mr. E. S. Bayard; acceptance of the keys, Dean R. L. Watts.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will operate one-day excursion trains to the college on the following dates: June 2, Coatesville and intermediate stations to Harrisburg.

June 3, Bedford division.

June 11, Elmira division, Lewisburg & Tyrone branch,
June 11, Baltimore & Frederick divisions.

June 12, Middle division.

The itinerary for the fair exhibit next fall has been arranged and 16 fairs in as many counties of the state will be visited.

Mr. Thomas W. Dawson, assistant chief engineer of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, visited the school recently and has decided to take part of the model of the Standard No. 2 mine from the Mining Museum. He will use this as a part of the H. C. Frick Coke Company's exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

In the College World

Swarthmore boasts a Women's Student Government association, whose officers are nine members, all women. Another novelty at this institution is a faculty committee on social affairs. Social functions are permitted only on Saturdays and a limit is set of one affair each semester.

Huron College has originated a new holiday, which was of the nature of a spring festival. All kinds of outdoor sports were taken part in at this celebration which was called Paddle Day.

Walter Christy, track coach at the University of California, states as his opinion based on 25 years' experience, that one fourth of the efficiency of track men comes directly from the cheering of the rooters. Think it over.

The faculty of Allegheny College have unanimously adopted the honor system, which the student body voted upon so favorably a short time ago.

The University of Georgia is awarding diplomas to all Confederate Veterans who enrolled during the Civil war and left the university to go to the front, Columbia has introduced soccer football in the regular course of gymnasium work. A varsity squad will be selected from the 600 students who are required to play the game twice a week.

The University of Vermont, by a vote of the student body, has placed the ban on the tango, turkey trot and other new dances for a period of one year.

The Red & Black, the college weekly at W. & J., reserves a special column in its issue which is devoted to news classified under the general subject of "Fussing".

The executive committee of the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic association is considering limiting the number of athletic contests in which any member may participate.

According to figures issued by the Federal Bureau of Education, 4222 students from foreign countries attended American colleges and universities in 1913. This number includes only regular students; short-course students were not included.

Ashville, N. C., and Burlington, Vt., have been chosen as sites for the students' summer military camps of the University of Pennsylvania. Captains Edwards and Brown of the regular army will be in command.

A Good Roads day will be inaugurated May 26 by the faculty of W. and J. and the students have been invited to take part, which statement leads us to remark that they do not have anything on our own junior highway engineers.

At Lafayette, recently, the Y. M. C. A. services were held out of doors. The presence of the college band proved an added attraction at this meeting which, was largely attended.

The students at Braz University, Rome, Italy, started a public agitation recently when refused their demand for Italian instructors. On their parade around the city they found the streets blocked by the German students, and a serious fight took place which the police after a while succeeded in quelling.

There have been several complaints lately from townspeople of Easton, Pa., about Lafayette freshmen being too fresh on the streets. Only very recently 54 sophomores were dismissed from this institution for alleged unnecessary hazing.

The Philomatheans of Penn are running a series of two o'clock talks at which the students and faculty meet on common ground. It is claimed for these meetings that they bring about a closer understanding between the students and faculty.

The Pennsylvanian of the University of Pennsylvania ran a full page in their latest number boosting the Eaglesmere convention. "Shorty" Miller's name was prominent among those quoted in favor of the convention.

President Wheeler, of the University of California, shows $400 to be the average yearly expense for the great body of undergraduates in that institution. Chancellor Brown, of N. Y. U., estimates $500 as sufficient to take a man through a college year; while President Stryker, of Hamilton, if he had his way, would put any man out of college who spends more than $700 a year.
