

Junior Oratorical.

The forty second annual Junior Oratorical contest will be held on the evening of Monday, June 8, at eight o'clock sharp. The prizes to be awarded will be the Barlow Oratorical prize of $50, and the College Oratorical prize of $25. The orators and their subjects, in the order in which they will appear on the program are as follows: Norman E. Hartman, "A National Duty"; Ralph D. Bole, "Our Permanent Asset"; Arthur C. Horst, "Living for Efficiency"; Beaty H. Dimit, "Profit Versus Life"; Edgar Fottinger, "Individual or Collective Bargaining"; and George V. Luersson, "A Crying Need, and a Challenge."

Harlow Re-engaged

All rumors concerning the possibility of Harlow leaving State this spring were set at rest by a recent announcement from the graduate manager's office. Harlow will be connected with the State football department during the entire college year of 1914-1915. As usual he will probably devote his attention in the fall to the linesmen, while in the spring he will have complete charge.

Agricultural Club Room.

All sophomore, junior, senior, and two year agricultural students are requested to pay their club room dues this week. The assessment of 25 cents per man will be used exclusively to furnish a club and smoking room in the Agricultural Building and will be payable either at the Toggery Shop or in the Agricultural Building on Thursday, May 28th.

Fall Re-examinations.

Re-examinations in all second semester subjects will be held on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, September 10, 11, and 12. Copies may be obtained by leaving with or sending to the Assistant Registrar a stamped self-addressed envelope, bearing the word "re-examination" on the back of the envelope.

Amid ideal surrounding the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet for the year '14-'15 was organized last Saturday afternoon and Sunday at the Fairbrook Country Club. Mr Irving, editor of the North American Student, a publication that is rapidly demanding the attention of the college world, took charge of the organization and through his advice and experience the new cabinet has gained information and inspiration that should carry the Y. M. C. A. work through a prosperous and effective year.

The girls at Oberlin have class hockey teams, the members of which are awarded numerals.
