Alumni Notes

The usual alumni gathering for the Penn football game will be held this year at Boston on October 24, the occasion being the Penn State-Harvard game. The Boston alumni will have a cheering section reserved for the Penn State rooters, who are expected to attend in large numbers. Following the game the annual dinner of the New England Alumni Association will be held at Youngs Hotel.

The New York alumni are arranging for a special car to take them to the Harvard game.

Shorty Miller '14, phenomenal quarterback and captain of the 1913 eleven, is located at Bawlf, Alberta, Canada, and is managing the farm of W. N. Williamson '00. Shorty writes, "Particularly at this time of the year, when college is opening and the old pigskin is being cuffed about, I feel as if there is something missing in my daily routine of life. At any rate, to be more specific, I would hate to be within earshot when one of those coaches calls for all candidates who would like to fit themselves into a quarterback's uniform." And Penn State men all over the country re-echo Shorty's cry and they, too, would like to see the midget in uniform ready to tackle, hurl forward passes or bring the stands to their feet, madly cheering, as he dodged through an open field.

J. D. Bebout '14, is manager of the Hopehill dairy farm at Clinton, Pa.

Billy Binder '14, basketball captain of last year, has returned to the college to act as instructor in chemistry and to work for the masters degree.

Fred Dose '14, has returned to college as instructor in the animal nutrition department.

Neil Fleming '14, has been appointed assistant alumni secretary and has returned to college to assume his duties in that capacity.

Jordon Gauthier '14, is taking the Westinghouse apprenticeship course at Pittsburgh.

Oliver Vogel '14, is director of athletics and instructor in academic work at Bellefonte academy.

Jimmy Leyden and W. B. (Peck) Troxell are with the W. F. White engineering company of New York City.

Joe Schollenberger '13, has organized a branch alumni association at Kansas City and has arranged to have monthly smokers on the first Friday of each month. Joe can be found at 409 Federal Building or at the Y. M. C. A.

In the College World

A freshman at F. and M. unconsciously gave the trend of modern education when he said "I'm taking the A. B. course; wonder if I'm a special?"

The opening event at South Dakota State College is a "College Mixer", which both old and new students attend. The objects are to awaken good-fellowship and college spirit.

The college authorities at Hobart have issued a pronouncement to the students to the effect that hereafter any Hobart student who is known to use alcohol will be debarred from receiving scholarship or other financial aid from the college. This action is in line with the policy of President Lyman P. Powell, who was recently inaugurated.

The University of Michigan, although 77 years old, claims more living alumni than any other institution of learning in the country. There are 22,000 living men and women who hold degrees from Michigan. In the total number of degrees granted, Michigan holds second place with 31,000. Up to the class of 1912, the Michigan alumni register contained 29,144 names, the last two classes increasing the enrollment to 31,000. Of this number 622 reside in foreign countries, while 192 are found in national dependencies.

Since Ursinus abolished hazing a custom has grown up whereby the freshmen entertain the other classes with the sophomores as their particular guests. 'Tis a far cry, George, from "ye olden days".

Carnegie Tech is celebrating the opening of their new "Beanery". The restaurant is in charge of the director and of the cost of the meals (20 cents each) it has been estimated that 88 per cent. stands for value while but 12 per cent. represents the cost of the service.
