

The Band

Mr. Thompson is very optimistic regarding band prospects for this year. The first regular rehearsal was held last Wednesday evening and everything went off splendidly. The material is good and even more abundant than had been expected, 57 men being now on the roll with the possibility of a couple additions later. The aim of a 60 piece organization will in all probability be realized. The first concert will be given in the early part of November and by that time it is predicted that we will have a band excelled by none of former years.

Mr. Thompson will also have charge of the orchestra. Trials were held Monday evening. The organization of the field and bugle corps is to be taken up today, Wednesday.

The following men make up the band roll to date: Student leader, Strickler; chief musician, Broadstein; principal musician, Eichelberger; sergeants, Snyder, Morrell, Powell, Rummell, Detwiler, Geary, Langenberg, Elder; corporals, Watson, Johnson, Morey, McCracken, Veder, Busch, Bachus, Kerrigan; privates, Freeburn, Bainey, Pond, Millard, Mayer, Rainey, Metzger, O'Brion, Yeagley, Lutz, Prutzman, Feldser, Olds, Gochenauer, Longenecker, K. A. Miller, G. B. Miller, Reber, Jones, Garis, Wills, Benelisha, Spenser, Fry, Kessler, Brown, Eby, Dennis, Gray, Bachman, Wilhelm, Sites, McMain, Westcott, Waltz, Horner, Clark, Morrison Lindeman.

Forum Society

The Forum Society held its regular weekly meeting in Room K, Library last Tuesday evening. The day of meeting has been Tuesday thus far, but an amendment was offered for changing to Wednesday. An open meeting is planned for the near future and is to be followed by a feed. The program for next time will include a recitation by J. R. Harris, current events by W. S. Bollinger and D. S. Adams and an account of a trip west by A. J. Morrison.

Agricultural Society

A special social meeting of the Ag. society was held last Thursday evening. L. R. Zeisenheim, manager of the fair, gave a report of the plans for this year's celebration; and Dean Watts and Professor Kains gave short talks. Last but not least came a two course banquet of cider and pretzels. The society will meet regularly every other Tuesday.

Company K to Feed.

Company K, composed of Freshmen, has planned to hold a cider, apple and pretzel feed in the woods opposite Beaver field next Saturday night. A bonfire will be on the program. It is the purpose of those back of the movement to get the Freshmen "Heps" in Company K better acquainted with each other.

Liberal Arts Society Meeting

The Liberal Arts Society held an almost purely business meeting last Friday evening in Room K of the Library. Membership and program committees were appointed.

Resolutions

Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call from this life the mothers of our classmates, George H. Gleason, Herman G. Miller, and Benjamin F. Smith, be it Resolved that we, the class of 1915 of The Pennsylvania State College, extend our deepest sympathy to these families in their bereavement.

Furthermore, be it resolved that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the class and published in the Penn State Collegian.

And furthermore, let it be resolved that a letters of condolence be sent to these families.

Committee: I. E. Long, William Horner, and R. P. Radcliffe.

Scholarship Cup

The Inter-fraternity Scholarship cup, presented each semester to the fraternity whose members average the highest in scholastic standing, was presented to the Phi Delta Theta fraternity last week. This was the second time the Phi Delta Theta's have been awarded the custody of the cup, and to date it is the only fraternity having that honor.

Y. M. C. A. Gleaning.

Owing to unforeseen and unavoidable circumstances, "Bob" Gailey was not able get here until Friday of last week. His stay, although shorter than had been expected, was none the less profitable. He was quite interested in our farms and hopes to introduce scientific agriculture into the mission schools in Peking.

Deutscher Verien will hold its first meeting in the Old Chapel, 7 o'clock, Friday evening, October 9. Mr. V. R. Jones will give a very interesting talk on "Personal Experiences in Germany during the Beginning of the War". Everyone who is interested in German songs, customs, language and activities, is welcome to attend.

Mark Huber, freshman treasurer, collected about $200 in class dues at the class meeting in Old Chapel last week. Here is where the freshmen set the example for the upper classmen in regard to the assessments that are bound to come soon.

The cane rush at Lafayette was won by the freshmen, the score being 15 to 11. It had been previously decided that the scrap should run the regulation time without regard to the number of "killed or wounded". According to "The Lafayette", the contest was no full dress affair by any means.

"All freshmen must wear caps this year," says Edmund N. Yantes, chairman of the student council cap committee at Ohio State University. A vigilance committee of sophomores is to be appointed by the student council to see that the caps are worn at all times.
