in the cattle business on a tract comprising 168 square miles, or 107,520 acres. Madero may take Luiz Gonzalez, nephew of Provisional President Carranza, who graduated at Iowa State in animal husbandry, with him as a partner.

Because of the stringency of money and the inaccessibility of paying situations about the university and Ann Arbor, approximately 700 students will be lost by the University of Michigan this fall.

Fifty upperclassmen at Ohio State accepted the responsibility of acting as "Big Brothers" to five freshmen each at that institution.

Following the time honored tradition of the University of Pennsylvania the sophomores will burn their tyrannical members of the faculty in effigy at the 1916 cremation.

Mrs. Adolphus Busch has offered $63,000 to Harvard University to insure the completion of her husband's plans for its new Germanic Museum.

Dr. Nicholls, a Boston physician who performed the operation, declared that there was a slight possibility of Brickley's recovery in time to enter the Yale game on November 21. The hopes of such a speedy recovery are slight, however, and the Crimson will have a hard time in filling the place left vacant by her invincible leader.

Cornell has gotten into line in the popular move of having the football players wear numbers in games for identification purposes.

Charles E. Brickley, the Harvard football captain, who is considered to be the greatest gridiron player ever developed, has had to undergo an operation for appendicitis, and as a result will be lost to the Crimson team for the rest of the season. Brickley was undoubtedly the most valuable football player in college ranks. His accurate kicking of field goals and smashing offensive game have brought many victories to Harvard. Brickley had the distinction of kicking five goals from the field against Yale last year, practically winning that contest on his own merits.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. J. P. Aikens, proprietor of the Nittany Theatre, has retired and Mr. J. L. Blackford, manager, has entire charge and will continue endeavoring to follow out his own ideas in providing entertainment that really entertains—new and interesting. All that careful foresight and business activity can do will be done to make this the pleasing theatre for you.

The change was made two weeks ago and you have already had an opportunity of seeing some of the new bookings of the new firm, and in this connection we want to state we have contracted for some photo plays that we shall show at extremely popular prices, heretofore shown at much higher prices.

The regular 5c days will also be more interesting—newer pictures, of our own selection—brighter, more appealing things.

The same consideration extended the old firm is deserved and we shall endeavor to merit it in our service to you.
