punts and a shifty runner. Clark will play rear half and either Edgerton or Welty at front half with the chances favoring Welty. At quarter Manown or Clark, both freshman, will probably replace James until Tobin is in shape to enter scrimmage. With Manown or Clark at quarter, either Harold Clark or Higgins will call the signals. The only other change possible is the substitution of Zarney for Lamb. Even with Thomas in condition the wonderful end play of Barron and Morris in recent game would not warrant a change. The game will start promptly at 2:30 p. m. and the officials will be Bennis, of Pennsylvania, referee; Cooney, of Princeton, umpire; and Cozzens, of Pennsylvania, linesman. President Sparks and Lieutenant Chaffin promise to start the dedicatory exercises on the front campus promptly at one o'clock and to make the program short enough to permit those entertaining girls to change their clothes before the game.

1917-1918 Wrestling Meet

All the preliminary arrangements have been completed for the inter-class wrestling scrap on Saturday. The seating has been planned so as to permit the best cheering. With this idea in view the seats on the side toward Old Main have been assigned to the seniors and sophomores, while the opposite side will be for use by the juniors and freshmen. The meet will start at seven o'clock and will not interfere with the Y. W. C. A. plays. The tickets are now on sale at the Toggery Shop and will not be sold at the door. The sections at each end and the entire stage will be reserved for the visitors. The teams are well matched and the outlook points to a very interesting contest.

The sophomore preliminary bouts have all been decided and the following men will represent their class in the various weights: 115 lb., Hoffer; 125 lb., Ostermeyer; 135 lb., Fritz; 145 lb., Goetz; 158 lb., Griffiths; 175 lb., Hollenbaugh; heavy weight, Gunders.

The freshman lineup: 115 lb., Shirk; 125 lb., Cook; 135 lb., Long; 145 lb., Shaulis; 158 lb., Fowler; 175 lb., Clarkson; heavy weight, Balbach.

With Dr. Sparks in the West

On Saturday evening, October 31, 1914, the following "State" people gathered at the home of Dean Louis D. Reber, in Madison, Wisconsin, for an informal chat with Dr. Sparks, who stopped off enroute to Racine, Wisconsin:

Louis E. Reber, '80, Helen Jackson Reber, '86, David L. Patterson, '95, Earle B. Norris, '05, Louis E. Reber, Jr., ex '10, Ralph W. Hills, ex '10, Jesse R. Hepler, '11, Harry R. Rosen, '13, Edward C. Sparver, '14, Alfred E. Chapin, ex '16.

The whole evening was spent in discussing "State" from every angle, including old times, football and athletics in general, improvements, and co-eds.

ture of the game was the excellent end playing of Morris and Barron. Both men played a championship game.

The faults already mentioned as well as poor selection of plays on the offense were directly responsible for the loss of the game. It should be noted however that without the fumbling the game would have resulted in a State victory 7-6. In view of this fact the team would seem to need drilling in the fundamentals of the game.

State rooters made a fine impression on the entire crowd by their spirited cheering when victory seemed hopeless. The band was pronounced by many critics to be the best that has ever played at a Lehigh game.

The first break in the game came when Lamb instead of kicking a field goal passed the ball to a Lehigh end on a forward when Lehigh was decidedly on the defensive. After an exchange of punts Hoban made 45 yards on a line buck which enabled Cahall to score the first points on a field goal.

In the second period after Lehigh had made four first downs, James took a punt and when two line plays failed Clark fumbled Cahall recovered and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. A fumble by James which was converted into a touchdown by Sawtelle ended the scoring in the first half. State braced in the second half and outplayed Lehigh in every phase of the game. Forward passes were broken up by State, while State passes succeeded fairly well. The most brilliant play in the last quarter was a 48 yard field goal by Cahall.
