A FEAST

for the devotee of athletics is a visit to a Spalding store. Therein he can see and examine implements and accessories for every known athletic sport. An expert will take pleasure in showing him what the champions use in their respective lines. He can wield a racket, swing a golf club or a base ball bat, punch a bag or "do a stunt" on the gym apparatus; he can even take an imaginary row on one of the rowing machines; in fact, he can go through the manoeuvres of every form of athletic sport right in our store.

If you cannot call at a Spalding store, then the next best thing is to send for a Spalding catalogue.

Lafayette Again Loses

The varsity soccer season was opened on New Beaver Field Saturday with a well earned victory over Lafayette. Lafayette scored its only point by a penalty kick in the first half and a goal by Cope evened the points. A tie game seemed certain when Staiger kicked a goal five minutes before time was called and clinched a victory. Smedley, Wilkinson and Cope were the stars of the State team.

Goals—Cope, Staiger, Stillwell. Substitutions—Staiger for Dorwart, Hesselbacher for Greenland, Longe for Dutemple. Umpire, McClain, State.

Across the Way

Mildred Ride '14, surprised the girls by paying a six days' visit to the Cottage. Mildred conducted the meetings during prayer week, lead prayer meeting, and gave a talk to the freshmen girls. On Thursday night, November 12, all the girls who had attended the Eaglesmere conference had a dinner at the Hunt house in her honor.

Edgar T. Smith '13, was married to Cleo Fellers, a prominent girl of Beach City, O., on his way to Wyoming where he teaches mechanical engineering in the state university.

The Cottage dining room was given over to the leading visitors Pennsylvania Day. Dinner was served by some of the girls. The others were given a Cafeteria lunch at the Pattee house.

Interclass Lacrosse

The juniors won their second game of the interclass series in lacrosse last Saturday when they defeated the seniors on New Beaver. The juniors lead throughout and at no time was their goal in serious danger. Stevens scored two goals, and "Bobby" Fisher and West each scored one. The sophomores won an interesting game from the freshmen by a 1-0 score. The ball was in freshmen territory practically all the time and only inability to locate the basket kept the score low. Next Saturday will decide the series. If the juniors win from the sophs their claim will be undisputed. Should the sophomores win they will have the best claim.

Resolutions

Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call from this life our dear classmate and friend, Raymond Lawall Knecht, be it

Resolved, that we, the class of 1915 of the Pennsylvania State College, extend our deepest sympathy to his family in their bereavement.

Furthermore, be it resolved that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the class and published in the Penn State Collegian.

And furthermore, let it be resolved that a letter of condolence be sent to the family.

Committee: R. H. Radcliffe, I. E. Loag, William Horner.

Guessing Contest

In connection with the sale of the All-College Picture it is proposed to work a guessing contest as to the number of people in the picture. A proof of the picture will be exhibited in a conspicuous place and each man placing an order for a picture will be allowed a guess. The first prize will be a $10 gold piece, the second prize a mounted picture and the third prize an unmounted picture.

A delegation of students from State will attend the Student Volunteer Convention for the eastern colleges to be held at Franklin and Marshall College, November 20-22. Robert Speer, Dr. Headland and "Sam" Higgenbottom are listed among the prominent speakers at the convention. Any student who desires to attend this convention should make arrangements before Friday at the Y. M. C. A. office. Princeton has already signed up a delegation of 25. State should have an equally large number of students present.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting at 6:30 next Sunday evening will be one of the most important as well as interesting meetings of the year. Dan Welty will preside, and a number of prominent college men will speak, among whom are Dick Harlow, Neil Fleming and Bob Reed. Mr. Whitehair, the chapel speaker of the day, will also give an address. Special music will be rendered by the quartet. Be a booster and bring a fellow along with you to this meeting.
