THE KELLOGG-HAINES SINGING PARTY

The third entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. course will be given by the Kellogg-Haines Singing party on Saturday evening, January 9, in the Auditorium.

The Kellogg-Haines Singing party is one of the standard attractions in the lyceum world today. In fact, for seven years this name has stood for excellence as a mixed quartet. Both in the lyceum and on the chautauquas, the Kellogg-Haines Singing party is annually booked for full seasons. This organization presents a program of selections from the best known grand operas and from other musical literature.

There are five members in the Kellogg-Haines Singing party, including a pianist.

Miss Imogene Gross, soprano, was a pupil for six years of Madam Stella Kellogg-Haines of St. Louis, for whom the singing party was originally named. She has been a soloist in several of the large churches of St. Louis, and has appeared successfully in concerts and recitals.

Miss Altha Montague, the contralto, studied for two years under the well known Professor McBurney of Chicago and was for a time soloist of the big Hyde Park Baptist church in that city. She is a graduate of the Chicago university with an A. B. degree.

John Eichenberger, tenor, was soloist in several of the best paid church choirs in St. Louis, has had theatrical experience and has coached with the best teachers in this country.

William A. Goldberg, baritone, was a boy wonder on the violin, later discovering that he had a fine voice. He gave up the violin for voice though he had played violin for years professionally. He had also sung leading grand opera roles in English before entering the lyceum.

Mr. Delbert Chute, the pianist, is a pupil of Heniot Levy, one of the foremost piano teachers in the United States and has had work in harmony and theory with Adolph Brune. Mr. Chute has shown great promise as a composer, and, as an accompanist as well as solo pianist, has received much favorable press comment.

Dr. Berkowitz Next Sunday

Dr. Berkowitz, who is scheduled to speak before both chapels and the Menorah society on Sunday, attended Cornell University and is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati. He is at present one of the foremost Jewish rabbis in the country, but his sphere of knowledge extends far beyond that afforded by his calling. His reputation as a speaker is well established.

Dr. Berkowitz's subject matter is rather extensive for his interest in civic affairs is equal in rank to his clerical duties. As a literary man he is well known for he not only has his works published in book form but is a constant contributor to many papers, magazines and journals. As a man well advanced in civil affairs he has held many important appointments on civic committees, such as Child Labor and Sane Fourth. In 1912 he was appointed by the mayor of Philadelphia as a member of the Vice commission, making an official visit to England, Denmark, Germany and Sweden. On his return he presented a report embodying the results of his investigations. Dr. Berkowitz has resided in several of the large cities of the United States. While in Mobile he instituted the humane movement for the protection of animals and children. While in Kansas City he organized the first bureau of charity and was appointed by the governor to represent the state of Missouri at the session of the national conference of Charities Correction.

Inauguration Rumors

There is a possibility that both the band and cadet corps may attend the inauguration this year at Harrisburg. The expense of this undertaking would be very great, however, and the chances are that they would be too heavy to have the entire regiment transported there. Due to the fact that the cadets do not have military overcoats, the weather conditions would be an important factor as it would be manifestly impossible to parade in inclement weather. It is probable, however, that the band will represent the student body at Harrisburg and a movement is under way by which military overcoats will be purchased for the band men.

It's all over—even the shouting—the foot ball season of 1914—to go down in history in next year's Spalding's Official Foot Ball Guide. But, "the King is dead, long live the King." Now Old Boreas has his inning, and we are ready with all appurtenances to either welcome him or fight him. Still left in the Spalding Catalogue.
