

HARLOW SUCCEEDS HOLLENBACH

Coaching System Entirely Changed. Whitney, of Dartmouth, Appointed Advisory Coach—Freshman Position Undecided—System Expected to be Best Evolved.

The Alumni Advisory committee on athletics, after an extended investigation of local conditions and of methods in force in other institutions, has just announced the system of football coaching which is to become effective next September when the recently adopted one year residence rule will become operative. The new system differs considerably from the old in scope and form. The elimination of first year men from intercollegiate competition presents a new problem in the development of athletic material which is to be met by a comprehensive course of training for freshmen and second string men not only during the fall season but also throughout the winter and spring. In its form of organization the new system provides for responsible supervision and direction not only for the playing season but for the entire college year, it affords the benefits of having Penn State graduates on the coaching staff without suffering the evils of the so-called "graduate system"; and by having as one member of the staff a graduate of broad football experience from another college it operates to bring to the Penn State style of play the best ideas of other football systems.

The formal coaching staff will consist of a head coach, who will be in charge of football activity throughout the year, an advisory coach, who will assist with the varsity squad, and a freshman coach. One of the assistant coaches will probably be retained throughout the college year and in addition to football work will take charge of basket ball or one of the other minor sports. It is also planned to occasionally call in for periods of a week or two prominent football authorities of the east to consult with the coaching staff. Former Penn State players will also return for short periods at the invitation of the head coach.

"Dick" Harlow, Penn State, '13, has been chosen to fill the position of head coach, his appointment becoming effective at once to run through the year 1915-16. Harlow's fame as a tackle on the 1910 and 1911 teams makes his name familiar to all followers of Penn State athletics. His subsequent work as assistant coach of the 1912, 1913 and 1914 teams and his effective efforts in the spring development work of the past two years give promise of greater success in this position of enlarged responsibilities.

For the position of advisory coach the Alumni committee has chosen Lawrence W. Whitney, Dartmouth, '15. "Bud" Whitney began a remarkable athletic career at Worcester (Mass.) academy where he competed on the football, baseball and track teams. At Dartmouth he has been on the varsity football, basketball and track teams. Last fall Whitney was captain of football and during the coming season will captain Dartmouth's track team. In 1912 he was on the American Olympic team to

Stockholm where he took third place in the shot put. He holds the Dartmouth records of 48 feet 1-2 inch in the shot and 135 feet 5 inches in the discus. In football, although playing for short times at tackle and end his largest experience has been as a half back. At the close of the 1914 football season he was selected for Walter Camp's third All American team. Whitney will not enter into a formal contract with Penn State until the end of the spring track season in order that his amateur status may not be affected at Dartmouth. The position of freshman coach has not as yet been filled. The

COLLEGE PHYSICIAN ENTERS DUTIES

Dr. W. E. Forsythe Recipient of Many Degrees. First Holder of Position Recently Created by Trustees.

The long-felt need for a college physician has been met by the appointment of W. E. Forsythe, who has arrived to enter upon his duties. The house formerly occupied by Dean Craig has been converted into a dispensary where free treatment will be given to any student between 8:00 a and 11 p. m.

Dr. W. E. Forsythe

names of "Pete" Mauthe, '13, "Dutch" Herman, '12, and Captain Tobin of the 1914 team are before the committee. A selection will be made in the very near future.

"Bill" Hok, back, coach of Penn State's 1909, 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914 teams, has entered into a very attractive three year contract as the representative of a prominent coal concern in the city of Philadelphia and the demands of business may force his complete withdrawal from athletics, although he may find it possible to retain an active connection with one of the institutions in Philadelphia.

Registrar's Office Hours

In order that all grades may be recorded and all grade reports made out as quickly as possible, the registrar's office, after Saturday, January 30, will be open to callers only during the following hours: From 8 to 9, and 11 to 12 a. m.; 4 to 5 p. m. (except Saturday afternoon).

Change of Noon Hour.

Commencing with the second semester the first afternoon class will commence at 1:30 p. m. instead of 1:20 p. m. All afternoon periods will be moved forward 10 minutes making the day's work end at 5:20 p. m. instead of 5:10. The morning hours will remain unchanged.

Mid-Year Convocation

Seven bachelor degrees and a masters degree to Mr. Packham will be conferred at the mid-year convocation exercises. If the sedilia presented last year arrives in time it will be used by the president.

Senior Class Meeting

A very important meeting of the senior class will be held in the Old Chapel, Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. The banquet question and senior memorial are among some of the questions that will be taken up.

and also between 6:30 and 7:00 p. m. The contagious hospital will also be under the supervision of Dr. Forsythe. In many colleges a hospital fee is charged. The cost of maintaining this health service will be met from the gymnasium fee paid by each student and no new fee will be charged.

Dr. Forsythe received his first degree from the Oregon State College in 1907. He then entered the University of Michigan and took a degree in Pharmacy in 1908. Next he entered the medical school of the same university and was graduated in 1913. Since that time he has been one of the staff physicians of the health service of the university and recently made a survey of the hospital and health service of the leading colleges and universities of the United States. He comes well prepared for his important duties and is warmly welcomed by the students of Penn State.

Faculty Changes.

The following additions to the faculty for the second semester have been made. Dr. C. C. Mellocke from Wisconsin university, instructor in Chemistry, H. B. Gardner '13, instructor in Chemistry, and H. H. Zimmerling '12, assistant in Horticulture. Mr. Demaree of the Botany department has resigned because of ill health, while Mr. Little of the Roman language department will enter commercial work.

Two Interclass Basket Ball Games

Last Tuesday the interclass series of basket ball games was opened on the "gym" floor. Following a custom established last year the juniors proceeded to take the freshmen into camp by a 46-13 score. On Thursday evening the sophomores won the second game of the series from the seniors by a 27-7 score. Both games were decidedly one sided.

BASKET BALL TRIP SUCCESSFUL

Varsity Defeats Westinghouse, and W. and J., Last Year's Champions; Loses to Pittsburgh.

The varsity basket ball trip to Pittsburgh and Washington was a decided success. On Thursday evening the strong Westinghouse Athletic Club team was met and defeated upon their home floor by a 85-24 score. The Amateur Athletic union for a time threatened to stop the game but these objections were eliminated when the State five were signed up in the Amateur Athletic union. Next day the team met and defeated W. and J. at Washington. The superior team work of State was responsible for the victory. State led at the end of the first half by a 10 to 7 score. In the second half three straight baskets enabled W. and J. to crawl up upon, but not overcome State's margin. The team was shown every courtesy both at the Westinghouse Athletic club and at W. and J. Both games were fast but clean, good officials were provided, and the home teams well satisfied.

The last game of the trip was played with Pitt Saturday night. The game was fast and hard fought, but the team work so in evidence the two preceding nights was strangely lacking and at the finish Pitt lead by one basket and a foul goal, score 35-32.

Harrisburg High 30, Freshies 26

For the second time in two years Harrisburg High won from State Freshies in basket ball when they defeated the freshman five in the Armory last Saturday, score 30-26. The prep school lads started off with a rush and almost before the freshmen realized it, had piled up 19 points. Then with a changed lineup the freshmen braced and played around their opponents. The first half ended 19-10 with the visitors on the long end. In the second half the freshmen got 16 points against the visitors 11.

Band Concerts.

Due to the lack of an open date and to the fact that examinations are near at hand, the band has been unable to give concerts as often as desired. It is thought that during the second semester, the band will give concerts much more frequently than before.

Columbia University is thinking of taking up football again next year.

BOSTON TECH WRESTLES HERE

Visitors Undefeated in Three Years. Chinaman a Lightweight Champion. Date of Ticket Sale to be Announced.

On Monday evening, February 1, Captain Lamb's seven opens the wrestling schedule with Captains Crowell's team from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The records of the New Englanders is free from any defeat during the last three years. In this time, Harvard Yale, Brown, Tufts, Springfield and various Y. M. C. A's were conquered, and of the entire 20 meets, all have been their victories.

Five veterans of last year's champion team form the main-stay of the team this year, and they come to Penn State hoping to maintain their clean sheet.

The interest taken in wrestling is evidenced by the fact that early in the fall, over 100 freshmen reported for the teams. It is their only self supporting athletic activity, and has been the most popular with the student body. Of last year's veterans, Ping Yok Loo 16, the light weight Chinaman was the only man on the team to win the straight varsity letter, and incidentally is the second Chinaman to have made his straight letter in any university in the United States. Lamb's opponent will be Captain Crowell.

The line up will probably be: Loo, 115 pounds; Rounds, 123 pounds; Giles, 135 pounds; Goodell, 145 pounds; Wood, 158 pounds; Bond, 175 pounds; Captain Crowell, heavyweight.

Penn State's line-up has not been made as yet due to the fact that the semi-final and final trials have not been completed. The seating arrangement will be posted and announcement of ticket sale will be made in due time. Reservations in the visitors sections will be made so long as they last if notice is received previously.

Report of Grades

A report of all failures will be sent to students by mail as soon as the grades in a given subject have been received by the registrar. It will not be necessary, therefore, for any one to call at the registrar's office in order to learn what grades he has received.

An oral report of grades (except in the case of seniors) can no longer be given out at the office, because, from now on, all the time of the office force will have to be devoted to the work of recording grades and making out the written reports.

As soon as the grade reports have been prepared, an announcement will be made, and all students except freshmen will then be able to obtain their grade reports by calling at the office of their respective deans. All freshman grade reports will be given out by the registrar's office.

Free Entertainment

An effort is being made to have an entertainment in the Auditorium on Friday evening, January 29. The nature of the amusement will be announced later.
