

Who's Who in the Campaign

NEVIN J. SAYRE

Princeton '07; prepared at the Hill school and Lawrenceville, general secretary at Williams college, 1907-08; summer of 1908 joined Dr. Grenfell on the coast of Labrador; deckhand on Dr. Grenfell's schooner; two years at Union seminary, New York; summer of 1910 in charge of the church at Fortean, Labrador; ordained minister of Episcopal church at Cambridge, 1911; secretary Princeton Y. M. C. A., 1911-12, traveled and taught in Japan, China, Siberia, Norway, Sweden, Germany, (University of Marburg student); Holy Land and Turkey; now instructor in Biblical literature and general secretary of the Philadelphia society (Y. M. C. A.), Princeton university.

HENRY WISE HOBSON

Yale '14, Andover '10 - Skull and Bones; manager 1914 crew; successor to Walter Camp as treasurer of Yale Athletic association; secretary of Dwight Hall, (Y. M. C. A.) Yale university; Psi Upsilon.

PROF. A. R. MANN

Cornell '04; B. S. agriculture; 1904-05, assistant superintendent Boston Farm and Trade school; 1905-09, secretary to Prof. L. H. Bailey in preparation of the Cyclopaedia of American Agriculture; 1909 to present secretary, registrar and professor of agricultural editing, New York State College of Agriculture; editor of text book "Beginnings in Agriculture"; fraternities, Sigma Xi and Alpha Zeta; member and deacon, First Baptist church, Ithaca, N. Y.; president of the board of trustees of Cornell University Christian association; member of the committee on rural conditions of the New York State Baptist Missionary convention; county committee of the Laymen's missionary movement.

J. C. ROBBINS

Brown university '97; Alpha Tau Omega; mining engineering, gold mines, British Columbia; veteran Spanish-American war; Newton Theological seminary, 1899-1902; Baptist missionary, Philippines, 1907-09; home field service, student volunteer movement; Baptist Home Missionary society; Foreign Missionary and Publication society; candidate secretary student volunteer movement.

CHARLES W. WHITEHAIR

DePauw university, '09, Beta Theta Pi, class president; varsity football, student Y. M. C. A.; secretary for Kansas, general secretary, Madras, India; national secretary, southern India, 1912-14; general secretary, Cornell University Christian association, 1914.

WILLIAM A. DE WITT

Yale; prepared at Connecticut Military academy and Andover; basketball and football at Andover; Alpha Delta Phi; class poet, Yale university; general secretary Christian association at University of California; now secretary Yale Sheffield Scientific School Christian association.

WELLINGTON H. TINKER

Amherst '99, Union Theological seminary '03; varsity baseball four years, played in every game that the college played during these years; president of the Christian association last year in college; prominent in debating; now religious work director, University of Michigan.

RAYMOND B. CULVER

McMinnville college; B. Mus.; B. A.; (leader of the music for the campaign); spent 12 years on the Pacific coast; two years, fur lumber business in Oregon; interested in mining and forestry; member of glee club; oratory; track, travelled in concert with Tri State trio; has sung for Cairns, Lamkin, Jones, Thomson, Bourne, Orr and Davis.

BURLEIGH E. CRUIKSHANK

Washington and Jefferson '15; Phi Kappa Psi; first base, baseball team; captain 1914 varsity football team; representative on student senate; winner of junior oratorical contest; given first All-American selection as center by many critics and a place on Walter Camp's 3d. eleven.

GILBERT A. BEAVER

Penn State '90; owner of a large farm near New York, part time secretary international committee. The man who was with Dr. Mott during the other and only visit to State.

FRED RINDGE

Secretary of the industrial service movement in the colleges. He will have charge of the work among the engineers during the campaign.

W. J. CAMPBELL

Princeton '99; Princeton M. A., 1902, pastor of Suffern Presbyterian church, 1902-6; associate county work secretary for New York state, 1906-11; state county work secretary for Pennsylvania, 1911-14; director of county work course at the International Y. M. C. A. college, Springfield, Mass., 1914; member of county work institute faculty at Silver Bay Summer school, N. Y., 1906-, director of playgrounds for New York City, summers of 1900-1.

JOHN COLT

Princeton '14; editor in chief 1914 Bric-Brac; editor in chief 1914 Nassau Herald; chairman university debating committee; vice president of the Philadelphian society, member of the graduate council of Princeton university; permanent secretary of the class of 1914, now associate secretary of the Philadelphian society (Y. M. C. A.), Princeton university.

HUGH BURR

Princeton '11; prep., Gloversville High school; Princeton track team; member editorial board of Bric-Brac, also Nassau Herald; composer for Triangle club; wrote 1911 class ode; class ivy orator; winner of Baird prize for oratory; secretary of the Philadelphian society, 1911-12; now in Union seminary, New York.

RALPH B. COLSON

Hamilton college '11; Emersonian society; varsity track; holder of 120 yard high hurdle intercollegiate record for New York state, 1911; state student secretary for New York state, 1911-13; Oberlin Theological 1913-14; Union seminary, 1914-15.

MRS. WILLIAM BORDEN

Of New York City; mother of William Borden; a woman of large affairs who gives much time to the furtherance of Christian work.

J. H. CAMPBELL

Washington and Lee; will sing during the campaign.

R. H. EDWARDS

Yale; social service expert; author of "Amusements and Recreation"; formerly connected with University of Wisconsin as religious director.

HOWARD Y. WILLIAMS
University of Minnesota, '10; Alpha Tau Omega; president (4); member of the Grey Friars, honorary senior society; manager editor of 1910 "Gopher"; junior annual (3); member of the University Dramatic clubs (2, 3, 4), business manager (3, 4) relay team; general secretary Y. M. C. A. State University of Iowa, 1910-14.

HAROLD VREELAND Jr.

Yale Sheffield Scientific school, '12; Prep. at the Hill school, '09; now registrar Yale Sheffield Scientific school; Phi Sigma Kappa; Schem club; Cosmopolitan club Aurelian honor society; class deacon; treasurer Y. M. C. A.; graduate secretary Yale Sheffield Y. M. C. A. two years.

ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL

University of Washington, '13 Phi Delta Theta; University of Washington Glee club '11; Y. M. C. A. cabinet, '13; rowed in 1913 crew and in varsity four at Poughkeepsie; mining surveying work in the Behring river coal fields, Alaska, 1911; railroad and highway surveying in Washington. Princeton Theological seminary, 1914-1915.

GUTHRIE SPEERS

Princeton, '12; Musical and Dramatic clubs; threw hammer on track team; member of senior council; Phi Beta Kappa.

DR. HENRY BURT WRIGHT

Lecturer in ancient history in Yale university and graduate schools. Dr. Wright is a son of the former Dean Wright of Yale and, who like his father, enjoys the respect and confidence of the faculty and student body in a marked way. Dr. Wright is interested in all phases of the university life. He is frequently called into athletic councils but with all this popularity and the consequent demands upon his time, he holds rigidly to this rule, that every professor in order to hold his position of influence must maintain the highest possible scholastic standing. He has written books not only on his subject, ancient history, but his "Will of God and a Man's Life Work" has a wide circulation and has lately been translated into Chinese.

PROF. J. W. ROE

Assistant professor machine design of Yale Sheffield Scientific school; member of the advisory committee for industrial service movement; author of "Important Monographs on Human Engineering".

CHARLIE CAMPBELL

Yale '09; Montclair academy (preparatory) 1905; Zeta Psi; Phi Beta Kappa; intercollegiate record holder, pole vault, 1909; president Y. M. C. A., 1908-9.

CHARLES R. TOWSON

Senior secretary of the industrial committee. He is an accomplished welfare expert, a man of wide experience.

T. R. HYDE

Yale, prepared at Hill school—permanent class secretary; senior council; president Y. M. C. A.; post-graduate at Yale.

ROY B. CHAMBERLIN

Wesleyan '09; varsity basketball three years; musical clubs; editor of college paper; class president; president undergraduate body; teacher for three years at boys' private schools; two years Spring Street church, N. Y. successor to Roswell Bates; now on the staff at the Brick Presbyterian church, New York, and studying at Union seminary.

MRS. DWIGHT POTTER

Secretary for the student work of the Presbyterian church; graduate of Occidental college; Mr. Potter was the foreign board secretary of the Pacific coast for the Presbyterian church; Mrs. Potter has been a missionary to Tripoli.

TIMOTHY HEALY Esq.

International president, Stationary Fireman's union, New York City. Will be here for February 3 to speak on the view point of the laboring man.

WILLIAM M. MILLER

Washington and Lee; president student body; Phi Gamma Delta; Phi Beta Kappa; stroke of crew; manager gymnasium team; president Y. M. C. A.;

BURNHAM DELL

Princeton; freshman track team; varsity track team three years; high hurdles and high jump; varsity letter.

FRANK GLICK

Princeton, 1915; captain elect varsity football team; Cap and Gown club.

H. WALTON MITCHELL

Penn State '90; president of the board of trustees.

MORGAN NOYES

Yale '14, Phillips-Exeter academy '10—manager 1916 freshman baseball team; editor of the Yale News; chairman of the sophomore German committee; chairman of senior council triennial committee; Psi Upsilon; Wolfe's Head, senior society; preparing to go to Union Theological seminary.