KILLARNEY GIRLS AND RITA RICH COMING

Best Entertainment of the Course Will be Given This Week.

Next Saturday evening, March 20, the Killarney Girls and Rita Rich will present a program of instrumental music and singing in the college Auditorium. This will be the last of the course entertainments, and in all probabilities will be the best.

MISS RITA RICH.

The company appears in Irish costume and with an appropriate setting afford an excellent entertainment consisting largely of vocal music. Miss Rita Rich as a vocalist and in special costume has for several years been an impersonator of both children and grown ups of all nationalities. It has been suggested, however, that her voice appears to its best advantage in the songs of old Ireland. The other members of the company are all artists in their particular line and a fine entertainment is anticipated.

Resolutions

Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call from this world the mother of our friend and classmate, Sidney H. Karr, be it resolved, that we, the class of 1915 of the Pennsylvania State college, extend our deepest sympathy to him and to his family in their bereavement.

Furthermore, be it resolved, that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the class and published in the Penn State Collegian. And furthermore, let it be resolved, that a letter of condolence be sent to the family.

Committee: I. E. Long, William Horner, R. H. Radcliffe.
