West Va. Wesleyan Puts Up Stubborn Fight But Penn State Wins

Clark and Beck earned a first down through the line. O'Connell set state back five yards, and failure to gain a first down gave Wesleyan the ball. They were unable to advance, however, and Calne again punted. Clark, Robb and Beck gained two successive first downs, but State lost 15 yards for holding. Beck, Lantz and Robb made a run of 15 yards for holding and after gaining 15 yards were again penalized 15 yards for holding. At this juncture Beck returned to the game, replacing Gross. The quarter ended immediately after.

Clark Downed the Field.

The fourth quarter commenced with the ball on Wesleyan's 10-yard line, and after failing to gain on an end run, Beck and Thorpe advanced the ball in his tracks on the 45 yard line. Thorpe was substituted for Lantz. State now commenced a march on Wesleyan's goal line and Thorpe advanced the ball for a first down and Robb, Beck and Thorpe gained two successive first downs. Beck gained 15 yards through right tackle, Beck helped the cause with a three yard gain, and then Robb went around right end for a touchdown. Beck punted the ball on the 10 yard line and O'Donnell and Wilson were substituted for Kruhshank and Swain. State followed a re-enactment of Beck's run of last week. The only difference was that the star performer in this case was Robb. He caught the ball on the kickoff on the 10 yard line and went through his opponents like a whirlwind so that from the 45-yard line he had an open field before him. Beck of West Virginia chased him all the way but did not catch him till the ball was placed between the goal posts. Cabbage failed to kick the goal. Score, 32-0.

West Virginia kicked off and Robb again colored the ball on the 10-yard line and gained 15 yards. Pond was substituted for Robb. Thorpe lost 2 yards while Pond gained 10 yards and Beck and Thorpe advanced the ball. Beck had gained 15 yards when State was penalized 15 yards for holding. Robb punted from the 45-yard line over Wesleyan's goal line. Morris was substituted for Lantz and Conover for Biggs. West Virginia advanced to a first down on the 20 yard line but Beck and Thorpe secured the first down. Pond lost 4 yards and was then taken out and Wilson put in, in his place. Beck gained 1 yard through right guard. Smith was substituted for Czarnecki. Thorpe made 2 yards around left end and then Smith attempted a placement kick but failed. A brilliant forward pass, Fisher to Bradley gained 30 yards for West Virginia but another pass of Fisher's was intercepted by Conover on the 30-yard line. Conover started for the goal and after some clever dodging and with line interference secured a touchdown. Smith kicked the goal. Score, 39-0.

Tavener and Kraft were substituted for Parrish and Cabbage. Morris returned West Virginia's kickoff on the 15-yard line and advanced it 15 yards. Robb made 3 yards through right guard and Thorpe went around left end for 11 yards and a first down. Beck had made 5 yards through right guard when the game ended.

WESLEYAN BRACES
West Virginia braced considerably during the second half and played more on the offense and also more aggressively. Although they were unable to score, they at least succeeded in getting 1 first down. An indication of this is found in the fact that during the second half they gained 30 yards in scrimmage as against the 2 yards of the first half. Another fact tending to prove this is the fact that State was unable to secure any first downs during the third quarter.

Cabbage kicked off and West Virginia received the ball on the 10 yard line, and the runner was dovetail immediately by Clark and Thorpe. Beck and Calne lost 10 yards, Calne kicked to Robb on the 10 yard line, and he returned the ball 5 yards. The West Vians were penalized 5 yards for off-side playing. Beck succeeded in going through right tackle in a 4 yard gain, but State received a 5 yard penalty for off-side playing on the next lineup. After a gain of 5 yards through left end attacks, Cabbage attempted a field goal from the 30 yard line but failed.

West Virginia punted to Robb on the 75 yard line after being unable to gain more than 4 yards. Clark was hurt in the last scrimmage and Gross took his place. Clark, stated very strongly against being taken out but finally consented to leave although it could be seen that it was his earnest desire to remain in the game. Cabbage attempted a field goal from the 40 yard line which failed. The ball was put in play on the Wesleyan 20 yard line. A series of line plunges netting them but 4 yards, Calne punted for Virginia on the 50 yard line. After advancing the ball 4 yards, State was penalized 15 yards for holding. Robb and Gross succeeded in retrieving

CLASSES MEET ON MAT SOON

Interclass Wrestling Bouts May Be Held on Penn's Day—Date for Navy Mete Fixed.

Although the date for the annual interclass wrestling meet has not yet been definitely decided upon, there is a likelihood that it will be staged this year on either Nov. 10 or 15. An early arrangement, if carried out, will cause the meet to be held much earlier than in former years, but by so doing it will be possible to present it as one of the features of the Pennsylvania Day celebration. Manager Roberts and his assistants are now engaged in working out plans for the contest and a definite decision should be reached within the next week or so. Last year the meet was held the second week in January.

During the past week an agreement was reached concerning the date for the Navy meet. According to the agreement, Captain Long and his men will meet the interclass team on Feb. 23, March 3, or eight days after the meet with the Cornell matmen, who are scheduled to appear here on Feb. 23. The dates for the contests with Boston Tech and Lehigh have not been decided upon as yet.

With the rapid approach of the wrestling season there has been a noticeable increase in the number of candidates reporting to Coach Lewis. In addition to the men who have already reported there are several others who will not be able to turn out until the close of the football season. The sophomore candidates, or rather the lack of sophomore candidates, is giving "Doc" Lewis the most concern at the present time. The turnout of 1911 men has been far below the number of the other classes, with the result that there is a lack of candidates in all of the seven weights. In the freshman class quite a number of men are already out for practice, especially in the lighter weights. There is, however, still a decided dearth of material in the heavier weights. The first year men are being assisted by the Junior wrestlers in picking up the fundamental principles of the sport. The list of freshmen candidates is as follows:

115 pound class—F. P. Heckel, W. S. Roth, R. B. Shanor, L. A. Catron, R. L. Lantz, C. W. Gullen.
125 pound class—A. M. Wolfson, W. L. Thompson, E. H. Dale, W. R. Major, A. W. Nash, W. J. Utts, A. Barnhart, G. D. Givens.

COLLEGE EXPERIMENTS MAY RECLAIM 12,000,000 ACRES

Through a special Field Day held at its demonstration plots near Snowshoos on Thursday, October 12, the Pennsylvania State College brought to the attention of the public, one of the most noteworthy experiments that has ever been conducted by an agricultural institution. The occasion of the Field Day was the completion of a year's experimental work concerning the fertilizer requirements of what are technically known as Delkalb soils. These soils, which extend over an area of more than 12,000,000 acres, comprise over two-fifths of the total soil area of this state. The Delkalb soils through their nature contain vast areas of waste land, and the college by means of a series of thirty three demonstration plots has for the past year been attempting to devise means for reclaiming these soils through the proper use of fertilizers.

The Field Day, held by the college authorities at Snowshoos last Thursday, was arranged for the purpose of explaining the results of the first year's experiments. The occasion was a public success. Hundreds of farmers from the surrounding country assembled at the demonstration plots to take part in the program which had been previously arranged. Addresses were made in the morning by President Sparks, Dean Witta and Professor J. W. Witta, who has had charge of the experiment. The afternoon was given over to talks by Professor Tomiway who spoke on "Stock and the Utilization of the Delkalb soils" and Professor Gardner who chose as his topic the question of "Making Poor Soils Good."

With the success which has attended the first Field Day an established fact the college plans to arrange similar annual gatherings in the future.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION SUCCESS

The reception by President and Mrs. Edwin Erle Sparks in honor of the new members of the college faculty, held at the president's home last Friday evening, was a great success. President and Mrs. Sparks received 150 new members of the faculty. President Sparks was one of the speakers at the 150th anniversary exercises of the founding of Rutgers college at that place last Saturday, representing the land grant colleges. On Sunday he spoke at the National Farm School, near Doylestown, Pa. Rabbi Joseph Kruhshank is president of that institution.

WEST PHILLY H. S. CLUB PLANS FOR STATE DANCE

The West Philadelphia High School Club held its first meeting of the year last Wednesday evening in the Engineering building. One of the largest turnouts that ever attended a meeting of this club was on hand to discuss plans for the year. Among those present were many Freshmen who admitted that one of the reasons for their coming to State was the effect of the smokers and the dance held in Philadelphia last year. Because of the success of last year's dance held during the Christmas vacation, it was voted to hold another dance this year, and a committee was appointed to confer with the Northeast club on the subject. Another suggestion that is to be carried out, was that the minutes of the meetings be published in the West Philadelphia High School paper. The new officers are Draker, '18, president; Muller, '18, vice-president, and McCarthy, '18, secretary-treasurer.
