MOCK ELECTION SET FOR THIS COMING FRIDAY

Civics Club Announces Rules Governing the "Election."

Next Friday from eight o'clock in the morning to five in the evening the students of Penn State will have opportunity to show their preferences in the most elaborate mock election ever attempted in any college. There will be six polling booths each presided over by the student election officers, a judge, two inspectors and two clerks. The registration will be provided for by the list of student enrollment from the registrar's office. Registrations will be allowed. Each class must vote at their own booth and they will not be allowed to vote at any other booth. The booths for the election are as follows: The two-year men are as follows: The Seniors will vote in the Foyer of the Auditorium; the Juniors in the Corridor of the Laboratory; the Sophomores in the hall-way of Old Main and the Freshmen in the entrance of the Army. Booths for all the women students of the college will be provided in the Woman's Building and will be presided over by women officers. The two-year men will vote in the Club Room of the Architecture Building. Regular election ballots will be provided and correct marking of the ballot will be required or the votes will be counted.

During the coming week the various political clubs will make a more or less active campaign to secure votes for their favored candidates. A Republican Rally addressed by some speaker sent by the Republican State Committee but nothing certain has been arranged for. President Sparks says that this campaign instituted by the Civics Club has been the most realistic mock campaign and election ever attempted by any college. The students may vote the entire county election as well as the national candidates. Results will be made known of the result for all officers to be elected this month by Center County voters.

TOPIC CHOSEN FOR DEBATES

Debating Management Hold Early Try-Outs and Pre- pares for Active Season.

The subject of the inter-collegiate debates for the coming year has been decided. Resolved, That Congress Should Enact Legislation Providing for Compulsory Arbitration of Disputes Between Labor and Capital, Constitutionality Waived.

All last week from Tuesday night to Saturday night and continuing to last Sunday night debating try-outs were held for old and new candidates by Professor Marshall. In all forty-five candidates tried out, including six women. No definite announcement has yet been made of the personnel of the debating squad but it will contain at least thirty-five candidates. Professor Marshall is expected to announce the squad with the number and ability of this year's candidates, the number of freshmen trying out being exceptionally large. Definite announcements of the personnel of the squad will be made the coming week.

Following the plan of last year there will be a girls' debate. The debating management will make strenuous efforts to stage a home debate in which the girls take part.

DR. MARTIN TO SPEAK AT SUNDAY CHAPEL

Dr. R. H. Martin, president of Geneva college, will be the college speaker at the various chapel services next Sunday. He will speak at the freshman chapel service and the regular college service in the morning and in the evening will deliver a short address, Oct. 22, Y. M. C. A. meeting in the auditorium.

Freshman Team Tuned Up For Fray With Quakers

Underclassmen Stack Up Against Penn Freshmen On Franklin Field Next Saturday—Backfield Lineup Still Uncertain

Captain Hermann and his band of freshman warriors will meet the first real test of the season next Saturday afternoon when the first year team lines up for action against the Quakers from the University of Pennsylvania. The game will be played in Philadelphia and according to all present indications will be one of the hardest and most important contests on the freshman schedule. The Blue and White players in their invasion of Franklin Field are not anticipated in the same manner as they over the Quaker City organization, but throughout the entire team there is a deep-seated determination to wipe out as far as possible the defeat inflicted on the State varsity by Holwell's men two weeks ago. The team will leave State College early Friday afternoon and arrive in Philadelphia the same evening. The game itself will be played early Saturday afternoon as a preliminary to the Penn-Lafayette contest.

The Pennsylvania Freshmen have played three games so far during the season. The first game, played against the Williamson Trade School on October 14, resulted in a 20-2 victory for the

All-College Play To Be Presented

Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Plan Presentation of "The Piper"

Under the direction of Miss Dunham and Mr. Marshall Penn State will produce here, sometime next February, the drama "The Piper" written by Josephine Preston Peabody and made prominent in the theatrical world by Edith Wynne Matthison several years ago. The need has long been felt here for some such production which would stand out as distinctly a college play. With the coming of this year of Miss Dunham who has successfully coached several plays such as the one chosen here, the time becomes opportune for the inauguration of this project.

All students interested in taking part in the production having had previous experience or not are requested to report at once to Mr. Marshall or Miss Dunham. Preparations are already being made to give two performances sometime in February—one for the town people and the other for the college. The play will be given under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. of the college.

TUG-OF-WAR WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY

Rope Finally Secured From U. of P. for First Scrap.

HELD ON NEW BEAVER

The Freshman class will at last have a chance to get on equal terms with the dictating Sophomores and show what they can do with them, for the first class scrap of the year—the Tug-of-War—will be held on New Beaver field next Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

After several weeks of diligent work on the part of the special scrap committee composed of Student Council members and a suitable rope to be used in the tug, one was finally secured from the University of Pennsylvania. It is only borrowed for this special occasion and the classes participating in the scrap will of course be held responsible for its return.

HELD ON NEW BEAVER

There have been a number of changes made in the rules of the scrap, chief among which is the shortening of the length of the time for each pull. Last year a seven-minute period was allowed, but at the time it was seen that it was too long and for this scrap the period will be of five minutes' duration. The rope will be secured in the shorter time by one class pulling the other all the way over the central mark. There will also be a greater number of pulls in the scrap, as well as a greater number of men on each team. The rules are arranged that every member of each class who reports, will, so far as possible, be given a chance to pull. Opposing teams of 100 men on each side will be started, pulling until enough heats are run off that will permit all underclassmen to get into one of them. In the case of a tie, the sides participating in that pull will be held in their places, given a short rest, and will pull again for a period of three minutes to determine the winner of the scrap. As many extra periods of this kind as are necessary will be provided for.

The members of the Freshmen and Sophomore classes will be held this week and arrangements made for the scrap. Definite announcements of the personnel of the squad will be made the coming week.

A feature of the scrap will be the meeting of the Freshmen and Sophomores classes in the evening at the regular class meetings.

A feature of the scrap will be the meeting of the Freshmen and Sophomores classes in the evening at the regular class meetings.

Happy Thoughts!

BLOOMBURG OUTCLASSED BY FRESHMEN

Normal School Overwhelmed 37-0 by Herman's Cohorts.

FIELD GOAL BY MILLER

Coach Herman's proteges added another victory to their rapidly growing list last Saturday when they defeated the Bloomsburg Normal team 37-0. The game was too one-sided to be really exciting but for all that there was plenty of pep in evidence both on the part of the Freshmen and the Normal school lads. The visitors put up a game fight and kept at it to the end, but never in the course of the game was there any doubt as to the ultimate outcome.

During the greater part of the time the Bloomsburg team was decidedly hard on the normal school players. Although there were no touchdowns scored throughout the entire game, and on one occasion the Normal school warriors went through four or five plays with only ten men in action.

The Freshman score was largely the result of steady line plugging, interspersed with off tackle plays. All in all the first year team secured five touchdowns and a goal from the field. The latter was produced by Miller, in one of the prettiest efforts seen on Beaver field. Smorinsky, on one occasion, returned a kickoff from kickers, as was the case last week, some good runs were made. Receiving the ball on the kickoff, Smorinsky, on one occasion, returned it to the 50 yard line before being downed. Miller at another time got the ball in the middle of the field and made a 50 yard run for a touchdown. The latter also had another run of 40 yards.

At the pipe of the whistle, Jones kicked off for Bloomsburg. With the normal school team in the field, the Freshmen proceeded right back toward the end zone.

GLEE CLUB TRIP IS HANGING FIRE

Carnegie Tech and Pitt Not Able to Participate in Joint Concert.

Delicate work has been received by Dean Robinson that the musical clubs of Carnegie Tech and the University of Pittsburgh will be unable to participate in the joint concert which was to have been given in Pittsburgh at the time of the Thanksgiving vacation. The two western institutions do not enter upon their musical activities until earlier late in the year and for this reason are unwilling to engage in the Thanksgiving concert without sufficient preparation. The matter of the Pitt trip itself is still hanging fire however. Tentative arrangements have been made for concerts in Butler, Greensburg, and New Kensington, while it is possible that engagements can be secured in several other western Pennsylvania towns.

It is possible that Dean Robinson will be unable to make the trip to the Pacific Coast next spring because of the growing business of the department. If this turns out to be the case Professor Marshall will go in his stead and will take the dean's place in the readings. On account of the rapid growth of the musical department it is probable that a new assistant will be necessary in the near future.

Arrangements are well under way for the intercollegiate glee club contest in New York next spring. The contest number is being arranged.

BASKETBALL MEN WILL BE CALLED OUT NEXT WEEK

Light Work Under Captain Walton Will Be First on the Schedule

PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Candidates for the Varsity basketball team will be called out some time next week by Coach Herman and light preliminary work will be taken up for several weeks prior to the opening of daily practice after Thanksgiving. Coach Herman will be unable to devote much time to this preliminary work and will leave matters in the hands of Captain Walton until the Freshman football season is over.

Prospects for a successful season are very bright and Penn State supporters can look for one of the strongest squads that has represented the college in years. There are not only seven of this year's squad that are available for varsity material but a first team from a strong representation from last year's freshman team that will make considerable contribution for a two or three positions.

Material for a freshman team has not been altogether rounded up as yet, but from the known men on hand it is seen that a good nucleus is present for the formation of the team. The varsity men will practice three or four days in the week at first and the Freshmen will have the same schedule.

CALVIN M. RICE DISCUSSES INDUSTRIAL PREPARATION

Calvin M. Rice, secretary of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and a visitor at the student branches in schools all over the country, was in State College last Friday in the interbranch of the society. He addressed the branch at 8:30 p. m. in Engineering 11, and later attended a banquet tendered him by the M. E. Society at the University Club.

His talk in the afternoon, attended by about 200 of the engineering students and faculty, was not on engineering problems but rather in regard to the engineering movement and on the relation of the college man to the laborer. Mr. Rice stated that at the request of the President of the United States, the banquet was served at the University Club, and was attended by members of the faculty, the finance committee, and chairman of the other committees. Included in the list of the faculty members present were Professors Foustelund, Director, Wood, Weber, Kinloch, Walker and Burr. Professor Dummer and F. G. Bright, 17, president of the society, acted as associate toast-masters. Mr. Dummer calling on the faculty and Dr. Bright calling on the students.

State—Robb, one for 70 yards, one for 45 yards	Beck, one for 33 yards	Conover, one for 30 yards
Gettysburg—Rote, one for 25 yards

The team came back! What was probably the crucial point of the season for the State eleven was passed successfully when Gettysburg went down to defeat last Saturday on Beaver field by the overwhelming score of 48-2. Following close upon the heels of the Penn defeat, and with the team in a badly battered condition, the game with "Punk" Berryman's proteges was looked upon as the make or break point of the season by the coaches, for a second defeat would discourage the players, while a victory meant renewed confidence. The result was very gratifying, for the Blue and White team put up a strong game under the circumstances.

With Captain Clark, Ewing, Higgins and Ege out of the game, with ends playing in the line and vice versa, and with a green quarterback, it was a queer looking aggregation of players that trotted out on the field. And in the first three minutes of play, it looked as though State were due for another beating. But after presenting Gettysburg with two punts on a safety, and handing them several other opportunities to score a touchdown, the team found itself, and from then on the game was never in doubt.

STATE'S LINE STRONG

As has been the case in every game this year, not even excepting the Penn game, the State line completely outplayed their opponents. Gettysburg's gains through the line could be numbered on the fingers of both hands. O'Donnell did not touch the ball until the second half, but he had taken Jones' place and he pulled off several clever plays. The line was very strong in the second half, and it was this strength that prevented them from being successful. The Freshman quarterback played a good game for Berryman's team, but he gained nearly all his ground from scrimmage on a 25 yard run around State's right end.

Acting Captain Morris was the top and chose to receive the kick-off. Beck played a very smart game, but he was caught and fumbled the ball, but he recovered on the five yard run. On the next play, a bad pass got away from Jones, but he was forced to fall on the ball back of the line for a safety. Score, Gettysburg 2, State 0.

State put the ball in play on the 29 yard line. Beck punted to Gettysburg's 15 yard line, where the ball was grounded. On the second play, Gettysburg fumbled, Jones poked up the ball and went to their 15 yard line before he was intercepted.

The patronesses for this first dance of the series are: Mrs. Sparks, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Shoenberger, Mrs. Vorse, Mrs. Dunham and Miss Lovejoy.
