PENNSYLVANIA DAY TO BE A BUSY ONE

For the Fourteenth Time Penn State Will Celebrate Occasion---Governor Here.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND FOOTBALL WILL FEATURE.

All indications point to a most successful observance of Penn State's individual holiday—Pennsylvania Day—on next Friday. The observance of this day, which in importance at Penn State ranks second only to Commencement, will bring hundreds of visitors to the campus, many of whom will remain for several days. The program that has been arranged for the occasion is more interesting than ever and will furnish no end of pleasing entertainment for the visitors.

ment for the visitors

The event on Friday will be the fourteenth of its kind to be celebrated by the college. The idea was started in 1903, the occasion that year being observed on November 20th Similar celebrations in privately endowed colleges and universities are known as "Founder's Day," in honor of the founder of the institution. In this tax-supporting college, established by the Federal Government and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, this day is any day set aside to be celebrated by the people by whom and for whom the college was established.

STATE DOWNS LEHIGH IN HARD FOUGHT GAME

Edgerton Makes Good in Pinch and State Wins---Ewing Scores Touchdown.

STATE LINE HOLDS BUT LEHIGH GAINS ON PASSES.

In what was without doubt the hardest fought game of the year, State triumphed over Lehigh at South Bethlehem last Saturday, the final score being 10-7. The Lehigh players remembered the seven to nothing defeat administered to them last year and they were out to redeem themselves, but to no avail. Despite the closeness of the score, the State cleven proved superior in nearly every respect and the blue and white line hurled back the Lehigh attacks time after time. It was only in the last quarter, when Lehigh began a series of passes that they were able to score "Bob" Edgerton, although he was in the game for only one inmite, was the hero of the day, for standing on the Brown and White 30 yard line, he drop-kicked one of the prettiest field goals seen in many a day. As has been the case in every game this year, the State line completely outplayed their opponents. On the defense, they were a veritable stone-wall, which the Lehigh backs were unable to penetrate, while on the offense, they opened up big holes for the State plungers to dive through. During three quarters of the game, Lehigh attempted to gain through the line and around the ends, but with little success; and in a last despairing effort they began to hurl forwards on every play. In this manner they carried the ball down the field twice, and hnally went over for a score.
