FOR EARNEST CONSIDERATION

The necessity that has brought about the combining of the Senior and Junior classes in donating a fitting memorial to the college, is made evident to the most doubtful when the true facts are presented...

Naturally, the question of available money for a memorial was the first to be taken up by the Senior committee in charge.

In the past few years there has been a steady reduction in this fund due to the fact that the damage deposit of each man has been very much reduced.

The question now arising is—Why is there not more money available this year? There is a two-fold answer.

Enough, say we, of this we've had. We ask for something better. O' weather man, please cut it out. This '77 kind of weather.

OUR KINGS of headgear is going up just now. No, the price is about the same, but Old March Wind is making em sea.

"WHERE'S THERE'S a will there's a pocket," the girls were told in chapel last Sunday morning.

WE SCRIBES will stop composing long enough on Friday nite to let the College Orchestra grind 'em out while we lumber up on the one-step stuff.

AN EPIDEMIC of "ungagementitis" has broken out among a bunch of our Dear Old Seniors.

ONE MORE lung passed—Penn State will wrestle in the first class next year. Just watch 'em go!

OUR FRIENDS the Thespians say its going to be the best ever this year. They've said it so much that we are inclined to believe it.

AND WE shall surely go to see FRESHMAN CLASS ELECTS A MANAGER FOR TENNIS

The Freshman class held a meeting in the Amphitheatre last Thursday evening and elected A. D. Williams tennis manager.

BLAIR COUNTY DANCE The Blair County Club will hold their annual Penn State dance on Monday April 9 in the Vaif Building at Altoona.

rate, let us believe that "the longest way 'round is the shortest way home." It will pay in the end.

A rare treat is to be offered next Tuesday night when President Sparks will give his lecture on "Old Hickory" Jackson in the Old Chapel.

The proposed plan of the Student Council to find a suitable display room for Penn State's athletic trophies is a most excellent one.

The College Orchestra is to be complimented upon its excellent performance last Sunday afternoon. We are all very much indebted to both the band and orchestra for their courtesies during the past winter.

Is class spirit really on the decline? Twenty-five years ago the Freshman class held a most successful banquet.

WHO'S WHO IN THE FACULTY

Fred Lewis Pattee, B. A., M. L., Litt. D.

ON THE CORNER

Spring is Here at Last, but Where's Sam Hill is She Hiding?

'S ENUP! Enough, say we, of this we've had. We ask for something better.

STRAW LIDS made their appearance hereabouts last week, which reminded us that Easter is coming.

WILL ASK COOPERATION IN KEEPING CAMPUS CLEAN

Efforts will be made by the Civic Club to keep the Campus clean, with the cooperation of the student body.

Among the other events at this meeting was a discussion by Professor Tanager on new ideas in government.

Candidates for the position of editor and business manager of the 1918 La Vie were chosen at a meeting of the class held in the Old Chapel last Thursday evening.

Candidates for the position of editor and business manager of the 1918 La Vie were chosen at a meeting of the class held in the Old Chapel last Thursday evening.

It was decided at this meeting to hold a class smoker at some time in the near future and a committee has been appointed by President Unger to arrange the date and place.

Announcement was made that the class hats would arrive before Easter vacation.

Frank Woster was elected baseball manager and Sheldon as tennis manager.

LETTER BOX

Editor, "The Collegian" Dear Sir:

In an article in "The Collegian" of recent issue, entitled "Don't take the other fellow's dust," the question, among others, was asked "What are you giving to the college in return for that which it is giving you?"

In participation in college activities the real criterion of a student's loyalty and value to his college? In answer to this question we must first ask ourselves, "For what purpose was the college founded?"

College activities are a very good and necessary adjunct to an institution, but they must at all times be made subordinate to the real work of the institution.

MEDALS AWARDED TO STOCK JUDGING TEAM

At a recent meeting of the Sirloin Club, medals were awarded to the members of the stock judging team from Penn State who competed in the stock judging contest at the International Livestock Show at Chicago last December.

The men who received the medals are: Zug, McDonald, Lininger, Sprout and Williams. These men, in charge of Paul Gerlach, instructor in Animal Husbandry, scored a total of 3,402 points out of a possible 5,000, and took eighth place in the contest.

During the meeting Professor Saverson gave a history of the sheep in Pennsylvania. A scale of livestock in the spring was proposed in order to acquaint the men with the methods of such a proceeding, but no action has been taken as yet.

PLEASE

The time of year has now come when the conduct of the students will determine to a large extent the possibilities of a beautiful campus.

"A Pathless Campus!" Let that be our motto for the next few weeks and for all the time, for that matter.

Let us all be Freshmen for the next few weeks, at least, and keep away from the struggling blades of grass that our campus may be more attractive to ourselves and our visitors who gain much of their impression of Penn State on her general appearance.
