HAVE YOU A KICK?

Have you a "kick" to register against anything particular, or everything in general?

There is a great tendency on the part of college men to go about "crabbing" on the slightest provocation, and stirring up feeling on many little things, which if brought to the attention of the proper authorities in a reasonable way, could doubtless be settled by very little explanation.

A man in a Pennsylvania city recently "kicked" to the State Commerce Commission concerning an excess charge made by a street car company. The resulting investigation brought an immediate adjustment of rates to the satisfaction of thousands of people.

If anything at Penn State isn't going just as you think it ought to go; if you have any ideas that you think would better things here, don't keep the information to yourself, or go to your room mate, or to the table at your boarding house.

In the seven issues of the COLLEGIAN this year the editor has received for publication only three letters from students or faculty members. Two of these have been based on individuals "kicks" about college affairs.

Merely as a showing of good faith, we must ask that all articles bear the name of the writer, but no names will be published if so requested.

ANOTHER FORM OF CULTURE.

It is often said that a man's actions form an indication of his breeding and home training. We believe that this is to a certain extent true, but we fear that there are exceptions to this as well as to all rules, and that these exceptions will exist despite the efforts of a college to broaden a man in all lines.

We do not believe that any man in his home training has been taught to wilfully mutilate the belongings of another person or group of persons. We have always been under the impression that such acts were reserved for Kaiserism.

If these acts are due to thoughtlessness, as we believe is the case, a word to the wise should be sufficient. Perhaps the deprecations this year are due to new-comers to Penn State who are not familiar with our regulations.

Another matter in connection with the library is the carelessness with which magazines and periodicals are left strewn indiscriminately about the library. These publications have special sections reserved for them, and it is inconvenient, to say the least, when one goes to the library for a limited time to be forced to spend almost the entire time hunting for the magazine one desires.

BENEFIT BAND CONCERT

The COLLEGIAN wishes to urge upon the students, faculty, and townspeople the necessity of attending the benefit concert to be given by the cadet band next week. This organization is one of the hardest working of the many in existence at Penn State and may be said to receive the least support.

We take pleasure in noting the fact that the Freshman stands at the football games during the past two weeks have been filled to twice the capacity that they were for the first two home games.

On the Corner

Hats Off To Charles Ash Way, Quarterback

WE have to get this out of our system right away—WASN'T that SOME game last Saturday? If we have many more like that "Doc" will have to use his stethoscope and admit only those who has a strong heart.

WHERE there's a will there's a way, at least there was on Saturday.

THE Bellefonte Central is getting naughty—it stays out after dark quite a bit now.

Merely Me! What a Selfish Team!! WE notice from reports that Penn out-played, out-generated and out-classed Pitt in every way during the whole game. Pto on you Pitt for being so selfish to win the game!

OUR old friend, the h p q's, will soon be here exhibiting the winter fashions, if we are not mistaken in our data.

AN ODE Blessings on you, pretty girls, With dimpled cheeks and heads of curls

With your rainbow-colored suits, And your high-topped buckskin boots

NOTICE the disappearance of the "Ball Birds" with the coming of the first snow? They will hibernate for the winter in the m or j w k pool room.

WHO is going to write that College Song this year?

THE College Yell Ed reports business to be mighty poor to date (Monday A. M.) But wait 'till he gets our con- trol.

INSIDE dope on the Red Cross dance indicates a routing success. Remember, it's no "Stag" affair. Get in line.

DON'T forget the Band and Glee Club benefit concert next week-end.

SOME of these "letter-a-day" affairs are going to take a sudden drop when this ruling in postage takes place. Why not sock up on two-cent stamps now? WE promised that something new would be p o this week. We have c t e that will have to wait until next week. Cute Adols!

EFFICIENCY EXPERT

ADDRESSES ENGINEERS

Harrington Emerson, the well known efficiency expert, gave the opening number last Friday of the series of lectures arranged particularly for Senior engineers. He spoke at 430 in the Old Chapel on "Certain Phases of Efficiency," and at eight o'clock he discussed problems of engineering education before the engineering faculty.

ENTERS GOVERNMENT WORK.

H. S. Cocklin, instructor in drawing, has resigned his position and will go to the Philadelphia Navy Yard on November 1, where he will be employed by the government as a draftsman in the aviation department.

Editor of the COLLEGIAN: May I, if you see fit, have the privilege of having the following article printed in the "Public Forum" of the COLLEGIAN? With my name attached, if you wish? I trust it will not transgress any of your paper rules.

A Fixed Cycle

Are you the rare things of Penn State most appreciated? Can we only learn to enjoy the best things by having them appear but twice in a school term? To whom do the student organizations belong? Is another question. Last year may be taken as a representative year. Were not the organizations of the Band and Orchestra a wonderful treat throughout the year? Yet they did not appear but a few times during the term.

The absence of Glee Club concerts may be attributed to one cause. Shall the college proper soon realize this deficiency? May we not have some means of further local appreciation of local artists in the line of high grade concerts? It is done in other colleges, even in the small ones. If they can do it, so can we.

Yours respectfully, Russell L. Shay, '18

AIR

By Dr. J. P. Rittenour. Are you getting all the FRESH air you need? In these days of the H. C. L., which seems to be ever increasing, air, which is so absolutely essential to living, remains the cheapest thing on the market, but is not consumed in the quantities it should be, probably because it is so cheap.

It has been awfully cold this week. We have been studying in the Stone Barracks near by. The leather legging fellows have a steam heated apartment while we shiver in this barn. Don't worry folks, I'll soon grow big and strong.

The men are organizing a football team. I practiced yesterday with the players from several universities. I asked the Capt. what position I would play. He said I would be left out. Sunday night the hospital nearby burned down but were bravely fought the flames. I think we might get a box of candy, don't you?

Dinner is served, so I'll have to close. We have good things to eat, but the men are awfully rude at the table. They make such a noise when they eat. You aff son, Percy.

RECOMMENDATIONS BUREAU ESTABLISHED

A Bureau of Recommendations has been established by the Board of Trustees in charge of Dr. D. A. Anderson, Head of the Department of Education. It is designed to serve a two-fold purpose, that of securing positions for Penn State Alumni as instructors, and that of providing teachers for the different school of the State. The service will be maintained free of charge to the applicants, and any interested persons are requested to get into communication with the director.
