ing the ball behind the posts. Out of nine attempts, the pass was successful four times and only once did a Maryland back intercept the ball.

Maryland's First Yell

The game on Saturday was the first meeting in football between the two State elevens, and while the Marylanders did not offer very stiff opposition, it must be remembered that they, like Penn State, lost nearly all of their letter men due to the war.

Moreover, their student body this fall numbered but 175, which is about 100 less than usual. Their record to date embraces victories over Delaware, Wake Forest College, and St. Johns, while they have been defeated by the Navy, N. Carolina A & M., and Penn State. They also played a tie game with V. M. I. and their big game of the year comes on Thanksgiving when they meet Johns Hopkins.

ENGINEERING LECTURES

Two interesting lectures will be held in Room 200, Engineering D, on Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week. On Thursday at 1:30, L. H. Fry of the Standard Steel Works, will talk on "Steel Ingots for Artillery." At 3:30 Friday, Supt. A. E. Baughan of the Pennsylvania Water and Power Co. will talk on "McCall's Ferry Hydro Electric Plant at Holwood, Pa." All are invited to these lectures.

ENGINEERING SOCIETIES

Meetings will be held this week by all the Engineering Societies to act on the constitution for a combined Engineering Society. This constitution contains several clauses relating to the proposed engineering publication. The Civitas will meet Wednesday, The Electricals Thursday, and the Mechanicals Friday in the Clubroom, all at 6:30.

COMMUNITY SINGING

The Civis Department of the Woman's Club is making plans to hold a community singing meeting some Sunday afternoon before Christmas in the Auditorium. Patriotic and Christmas songs will be sung.

DEAN LOVEJOY AT WASHINGTON

During the past week, Miss Lovejoy, Dean of the Home Economics Department, with several other members of that faculty, attended the Home Economics Convention at Washington.

Remember the Football Mass Meeting. Next, Tuesday, Night, 6:30, Auditorium. Big Send-off for the team to the Pitt game.

FOR COUNTRY AND FLAG

"The Man Without a Country"
Extract From E. E. Hale's Story.

"And for your country and for that flag never dream but of serving her as she bids you, though the service carry you through a thousand hells.

"No matter what happens to you no matter who flatters you or who abuses you, never look at another flag, never let a night pass but you pray God to bless that flag.

"Remember that behind all those you have to do with, behind officers, Government and people even, there is the country herself, your country, and that you belong to her as you belong to your own mother."

"Stand by her as you would stand by your mother."

News From Other Colleges

PITTSBURGH—The Alumni Council of the University of Pittsburgh has devised a plan to raise money for a University endowment fund by taking out life insurance policies naming the University as the beneficiary. The campaign will extend to Pittsburgh alumni in all sections of the country.

MULLENBERG—The semi-annual meeting of the Association of College Presidents of Pennsylvania was held at Mullenberg College during the week of November 10th.

CORNELL—The undergraduates of Cornell University last week voted against the proposed recommendations of the University Faculty that the Christmas vacation be shortened, that Founder's Day be given up, and that the spring vacation be abandoned, so that the University may end the spring term earlier.

The Cornell Knitting Unit is starting a hospital blanket. Everyone who has small pieces of colored yarn is asked to knit eight inches square and submit them to Red Cross headquarters where they will be sewn into a blanket for hospital use.

CARNEGIE—The monster service flag of Carnegie Institute of Technology has the number 521 in large numerals upon it in honor of the men Carnegie has furnished for the service.

DARTMOUTH—Statistics compiled by the administration of Dartmouth College concerning the scholarship of the Freshman class show that 1333 per cent of the grades in 2070 courses are below, with an "A" grade.

MICHIGAN—The four hundred plus attending the Michigan Agricultural College signed the Hoover food pledge last week, thru the efforts of the head of the Domestic Science Department.

MICHIGAN—Larry Archer, center of the Michigan Agricultural College football team, was hit on the head in the football game with Detroit University and did not regain consciousness until six o'clock in the evening. Nevertheless, he played the entire game passing the ball to the right man every time. Aside from asking a few foolish questions no one could have told he was in a "near somnambulistic" condition.

JOHN PRICE JACKSON ENTERS ARMY SERVICE

John Price Jackson, Commissioner of Labor and Industry, at Harrisburg, formerly Dean of the School of Engineering at the Pennsylvania State College, who was commissioned Major of the Engineering Reserve Corps about two months ago, received orders on Monday night of last week to join the colors.

Mr. Jackson has been a State College enthusiast from boyhood up, his father, Joshua Jackson, being head of the Mathematics Department up to the time of his death. Mr. John Price Jackson graduated from Penn State in the class of 1899, became professor of electrical engineering, and later Dean of the school, which position he held until called by Governor Tener to take up the duties of labor and industry commissioner.

PROTH NOTICE

All Freshman candidates for the Business Staff of PROTH will report on Thursday night at 7 o'clock in room 607 Main Building.

MAKES NEW STRENGTH

When you find it a tremendous task to complete your day's duties—constantly worried and losing flesh as a result—take Gilliland's Nutritive Hypophosphites.

Gilliland's Nutritive Hypophosphites

Should be used in every instance where the system is weakened and where there is a lack of vitality, diminished energy and loss of appetite.

In convalescence, protracted fevers, grippe, bronchitis, coughs and affections of the lungs it is unequalled. That feeling of languor and weakness soon vanishes and, instead, there is strength.

PHYSICS ELECT FIVE MANAGERS FOR SPORTS

The Sophomore Class held a meeting in the Chemistry Amphitheatre last evening, at which time all details for the "tie-up" scrap were completed. Elections were then held for several managerships, and they resulted as follows: basketball, Brumbaugh, track, Rustay; boxing, Holland, baseball, Monroe, tennis, Griffiths. Reports were received from the various managers, and committees on the 1920 class pennants and hazing were named by President Wolfe. About six men from other colleges were admitted to membership in the class.

Debating Trials To Be Held Next Week

Trials for the debating season of 1918 will be held on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week, November 26th and 27th, at seven o'clock in the Old Chapel. The question is "Resolved, that the war degree of centralization in our National Government should be permanently established." A period of five minutes will be allowed to each competitor on either the affirmative or negative side of the question. All students intending to compete should announce to Professor Mashman which evening is more convenient for them.

Professor A. V. Helster, of Franklin and Marshall College, who is secretary of the Pennsylvania State Debating League, has chosen the following question for the League debates: "Resolved, that the successful prosecution of the war requires that citizens of Germany, Austria, Bulgaria, and Turkey now interned in this country should be interned until peace is secured."

This question, however, has been considered unsatisfactory by the Penn State authorities, and at the meeting of the Council of Administration last Saturday night, Professor Marsbrun was given full power to take up the other colleges in the League.

ELECTED PRESIDENT

L. C. Faraugh '18, has been elected president of the Forensic Council in place of L. A. Spencer, '18, who is now at Camp Meade.

for a week or so, solicitors are out at present securing orders. When the tickets are printed, these orders will be supplied first, and a general sale will then be conducted at one of the stores. On account of the uncertainty existing with students leaving frequently on account of the draft, the tickets will be sold this year on a strictly cash basis.

Phar-Moin and a company of six players will be at Penn State for an engagement during February. Phar-Moin is extremely well known as an actress, and gives some of her former successes in pantomime from She frequently been compared to Benham and Duse, and her work is highly praised by David Belasco, E. H. Sothern, Eugene Tasso, and Miss Sarah Cooper Hewitt. When here, she will give either "Pierrot and Pierrotte" or the "Prodigal," with chances in favor of the latter. This company comes with their own scenery, which is justifiable to any stage, and is said to be of a very excellent character.

Lyman Howe's motion pictures will be at Penn State on March 6. This will not be a part of the course entertainments, however, according to the present intentions.
