EMPHASIZE ALUMNI AT COMMENCEMENT

Strenuous Efforts Are To Be Made To Get The 'Old Boys' Back This Year

The plans for a modified Commencement as outlined last week have apparently met with favor throughout the college.

Mr. H. Walton Mitchell, President of the Board of Trustees, is the latest one to endorse the program as it has been tentatively arranged.

The proposal to have the various fraternities call off the customary Commencement houseparty, and devote them exclusively to the Alumni and parents should be greatly aided.

Football Men Are Practicing Hard

Football practice in the gym and in the new judging pavilion has been under way for the past several weeks.

While most of the old men from last fall's team are now out of college, Captain Robb, Way, Fitching and Black have reported together with Ullery, Unger, Smith, Spangler, Robinson, Titzel and Brown.

FRESHMEN AGAIN DOWN BELLEFONTE

For the second time during the present season, the Freshman basketball team decisively defeated the team representing Bellefonte Academy, but this time on their own floor. This convincing victory over the boys from the nearby school was played in the Y. M. C. A. at Bellefonte on last Wednesday night and the final score was 24 to 16 in favor of the first year men.

Penn State Needs Ships

During the past week, the campaign has been extensively advertised all about the campus by means of signs and the pennants. The key-note of nearly all of these advertisements has been the fact that Penn State needs the three big "ships"—acquaintanceships, friendships and fellowships—and that it is up to the students to get busy during this week-end and "qualify" themselves.

McELFISH ELECTED FRESHMAN PRESIDENT

The Class of 1921 has now passed out of the guiding hands of George Smith, Junior president, and is fully organized for the remainder of the year, and on Thursday, February 7th, P. D. McElfish was chosen president, W. C. Gehring vice-president, K. R. Stark secretary and E. S. Parry treasurer.
