FRENCH LESSON

E. M. Bowman and I. L. Foster

LESSON XIII
PRESENT TENSE

Vois—to see vu—seen (past part)
Dormir—to sleep
dormi—slept (past part)

Je vois, Tu vois, Il voit, Nous voyons, Vous voyez, Ils voient.

Je dors, Tu dors, Il dort, Nous dormons, Vous dormez, Ils dorment.

Note 1 Perfect tenses (I have seen) are made by adding past participle of a verb to proper form of auxiliary (avoir or être). Lire is used with verbs of motion like aller and venir (to go, to come). This translates English has tense usually: Il est allé—he came (has come).

Note 2 The most common indefinite pronouns in French are on, "one, people", quelqu'un, "somebody, some one", personne, "nobody, no one" (takes ne with verb).

J'ai sommeil—I am sleepy
Je veux dormir—I wish to sleep
Je desire trouver un bon hotel—I want to find a good hotel
Qu'est le propriétaire?—Where is the landlord?
Voulez-vous voir les chambres?—Will you look at the rooms?
Donnez-moi une chambre avec un bain—Give me a room with a bath.
Au premier étage!—On the second floor?
Non, au troisième, s'il vous plaît—No, on the fourth, please
Où est la salle à manger?—Where is the dining-room?
Avez-vous vu la grande chambre?—Have you seen the large room?
Elle a la lumière électrique—It has electric light.
Combien de fenêtres a-t-elle?—How many windows does it have?
Toutes les chambres ont deux lits et deux chaises—All the rooms have two beds and two chairs.

MOUNTAIN ART CONFERENCE ON FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

The fifth annual conference of the Mountain Arts Association of Central Pennsylvania will be held at the college on Friday and Saturday of this week. Professor G. H. Reides, acting head of the industrial engineering department, is president of the association and will have direct charge of affairs. A number of speakers have been secured from out of town as well as from members of the faculty. Among them are Paul E. Beck, State Supervisor of Music, Harrisburg, M. B. King, State Director Vocational Education, Harrisburg; A. B. Miller, of Juniata College, Huntingdon, Dr. E. E. Sparks, Dr. D. A. Anderson, and Dean R. L. Sackett.

An especially interesting and entertaining program has been drawn up for Friday evening at 7:30 in the Auditorium. It is as follows:

1. Music.....Penn State Glee Club
2. World Rehabilitation.....Dr. E. E. Sparks
3. Organ Solo.....D. B. West '23
4. Schools in Wartime.....Mr. M. B. King
5. Soprano Solo.....Mrs. C. F. Kopp
6. Present Day Renaissance in Education.....Dr. D. A. Anderson

FRESHMEN ELIMINATE FOR CLASS OFFICERS

The main object of the Freshman class meeting held in Old Chapel Tuesday evening of last week was to eliminate all except five of the many nominees for each of the various class offices, in order to do away with so much halting at the final election. Arrangements were also made for the "Tug-of-War", and plans were begun for "Moving-Up-Day".

The nominees for president who survived the preliminaries are J. E. Deming, W. C. Gehring, L. W. Krieger, C. H. Roberts, and E. S. Farley. Those nominated for secretary are W. B. Bowman, E. L. M. Garman, W. E. Hartmann, G. F. Horner, and A. D. Spaeth. The following men are the nominees for treasurer: N. B. Korb, E. W. Knapp, H. S. Dambly, T. H. Esterly, and P. H. Trout.

G. C. Smith '18, gave a short talk on plans for "Moving-Up-Day". He made some suggestions and told, in a general way, of plans already being formulated by the other classes. G. W. Cupit '19, also made an appeal for more soccer candidates for the class team.

MUSICAL CLUBS GIVE SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

The members of the Glee and Mandolin Clubs journeyed to Reading on Friday where they gave a concert on that evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary and the Masons. The concert was held in the Orpheum Theatre and a good crowd was in attendance. The Clubs were assisted by Miss Mary Dunham who gave several well chosen readings and J. H. Lucas '18, and J. D. Laughroy '18, who put on a most successful song and dance act. The members of the Clubs were entertained at a dance which was held after the concert.

Great difficulty has been encountered by the Glee Club manager in securing dates for this year and the Reading trip was the only one scheduled for the Clubs. The 'varsity quartette however will sing in Harrisburg on the 19th at a banquet to be given by the Alumni Association with the idea of interesting prospective students for next year. The annual commencement concert of the Musical Clubs will be held on Tuesday evening, April 23, in the Auditorium and they are now working on the program for that date.

LARGE NUMBER OF BOOKS ARE RECEIVED

The campaign for books for the men in the camps and "over there" has been very successful. Inasmuch as a large number of books has been received up to and including last Friday, 675 books had been left at the college library and of this number, 527 are books of fiction, travel, history, etc., while the remainder are text-books.

Later reports, however, indicate that there are still about 275 books which are still to be brought to the library. Of this latter number, all are text-books with the exception of about ten or fifteen. The campaign has not actually closed, and anyone wishing to donate any books may do so by leaving them at the library.

The Y. M. C. A. has also taken up the work of securing books and magazines for the men who were assigned here by the government for special industrial work. To this end, a request has been made that any one having suitable magazines or books, the latter especially along military lines, should leave them at the Y. M. C. A. office.

Agricultural Notes

L. C. Thompkins has resigned his position in connection with the Dairy Husbandry Extension work of this college, and on May first will enter upon a private farming enterprise near Ellenton, Lycoming county.

Director McDowell of the Agricultural Department returned Monday from a business trip to Harrisburg.

JUNIOR PROM PROVES TO BE GREAT SUCCESS

The Junior Prom was held in the Armory last Friday evening from eight to one o'clock, and a large number of students were in attendance. The Prom was open to the Ordinance men as well as the entire student body and this gave the affair a somewhat military aspect. Many former students now in the service of the United States returned for the event, and it was one of the most successful dances ever held here.

The Armory was well decorated with pennants and banners for the occasion. Booths were eliminated this year in order to keep within the conservation advocated by the government. Many of the girls were from out of town and the blending of many colors with the decorations proved a wonderful sight. Much credit for the success of the Prom is due to the untiring efforts of G. P. Moore, who was chairman of the committee in charge.

TUG-OF-WAR POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY EVENING

The Tug-of-War which was scheduled to be held last evening was postponed on account of the inclement weather, and the probabilities are that it will be held next Monday evening at 6:30. While no definite arrangements have been made, Monday evening seems to be the best time to hold the scrap and it will probably be held at that time.

SENIORS DISPENSE WITH GRADUATION INVITATIONS

The Senior held a class meeting in the Old Chapel last Thursday evening, at which time it was decided to dispense with the usual formal commencement invitations. The reason for this action is due to war-time conditions as well as to observe a policy of strict economy.

Three new men were elected to membership in the class. They are: A. G. Vogt, N. K. In, and L. D. Wyeckoff. The dance committee reported on the dances held but no financial statement has yet been rendered. L. W. F. Bailey reported on caps and gowns for the commencement exercises.

The honor election of barrel man, canoe man, and spoon man, was held, and the results will be announced at a later date. A committee consisting of P. J. F. Derr, chairman, W. A. Dean, W. J. Griffith, and A. C. Nickle, was appointed to arrange for the Senior stunt, which is to be pulled off at the barbecue next Saturday afternoon.
