

FROSH HAVE TROUBLE DOWNING BELLEFONTE

Safety Scored During First Period Proves to Be Only Points Registered During Game.

Covered with mud, and wet though by a steady rain, on a soggy field, the Penn State Freshman eleven emerged from last Saturday's contest with Bellefonte Academy, victorious by a 2 to 0 score.

The strength of the Bellefonte team was quite a surprise, and the line-up was quite different from the one which was so badly mauled by the Pitt Freshmen several weeks before.

Frank Hess, the Freshman fullback, and brother of the varsity backfield man, played the best game for his team, making gains through the center on the Academy team, did fine work in the last half of the game, continually breaking through the line and stopping numerous plays by ripping them in the end.

The line-up was quite a surprise, and the line-up was quite different from the one which was so badly mauled by the Pitt Freshmen several weeks before.
