

The Grand Theatre
"Pickings" Quality
New Shows, Th.

Program, Nov. 6 to 11

Pastime Theater

THURSDAY
THEEDA BARA
In "La Belle Husse"

FRIDAY
ANITA STEWART
and STEWART
In "Her Kingdom of Dreams"

SATURDAY
BILLIE BURKE
In "Sadie Love"

FRIDAY-Night
ROBERT WARWICK
In "In Mizouri"

SATURDAY
JACK PICKFORD
In "In Wrong"

MONDAY
GEO. WALSH
In "The Winning Stroke"

TUESDAY
CHECKERS
The Biggest Racing Picture Ever Made.

PENN LOSES 10-0 IN GRIDIRON FRAY
(Continued from first page)

It is greatly deserved, Dick Rauch fought the battle of his career last Saturday in every sense of the word, and he more than lived up to the prediction of last Wednesday night. He was in the game for entire time and he was always breaking through the Penn interference and nullifying the runner.

If there was one feature of the game which stood out above all the others it was this. It was undoubtedly one of the cleanest, hard-fought, football games ever played. Pennsylvania fought hard from start to finish, but it was a clean, hard, fight and the feeling exhibited between the rival players was the best ever seen. The game was free from wrangling and the officiating was absolutely above criticism.

The Game In Detail

On the initial kick-off Ray Miller booted the ball to Snell, who ran it back to his 30-yard line. Robb and Way failed to gain against the Blue and Blue line and Higgins punted the ball going out of bounds on Penn's 25-yard line.

Light opened up the Quaker attack with a gain of twenty-one yards around right end. In two attempts line buckers Eph Light and Bell failed to gain, but on the succeeding play Light launched a forward pass to Bell which netted five yards. On the fourth down Bell tried for a field goal from his 45-yard line. The kick fell short and Way was downed on his 6-yard line.

Higgins punted from behind his own end and succeeded in getting off a beautiful spiral which drifted over Bell's head. The latter recovered the pigskin on his own 45-yard line, where he was downed in his tracks by Brown. State was penalized five yards for off-side play. Light smashed through the line for four yards and Derr duplicated. The Blue and White forwards again got over-anxious and the lynx-eyed "Tiny" Maxwell assessed Captain Higgins men another five yards, making it first down on State's 37-yard line.

Penn failed to gain on a grounded forward pass, but Light got things moving with a nine yard gain around left end. Derr plowed through the line for three yards and a first down. At this point the Penn State defense stiffened and threw back three attempted line bucks without gain. Standing on State's 35-yard line, Bell again attempted a field goal and again the attempt failed. The ball rolled over the line and play was resumed on the Blue and White's 20-yard line. In two plays Robb squeezed through the line for a total of three yards. On the third down, Higgins punted out of bounds on his own 42-yard line.

Light, on the first play, was thrown for a loss of seven yards by Conover and this loss was further increased by a fifteen yard penalty called on the wearers of the Red and Blue for unnecessary roughness. Brunner punted to State's 35-yard line, but Snell fumbled the kick and Helme Miller recovered for Penn on the Blue and White's 25-yard mark. Derr and Light failed to gain through the line, but a forward pass, Light to Ray Miller, resulted in a five yard advance. Bell made his third unsuccessful attempt at a field goal, this time from the 30-

FIRST OF MUSICAL RECITALS WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

To all appearances no one can afford to miss the coming here of Miss Florence Hinkle on November fourth. Miss Sophie Trushin on December fourth, and the Zolmer String Quartette on February twenty-eighth. It is not often that one has an opportunity to hear Metropolitan Opera Singers like Miss Hinkle and Miss Trushin. The Music Department is paying Miss Trushin alone the sum of $700.00 for this recital and her worth and standing in musical circles can be judged from this. These artists represent the highest in musical circles and their recitals cannot help but have an uplifting influence on musical standards here. They will be heard in popular programs, as can be seen by the following numbers which will be sung by Miss Hinkle: The Crying Water, Little Brother's Lullaby; The Message, Ah, Love, but a Day; The Gay Postilion; Christ in Plunders; Oh, Didn't It Rain; Line Time; and The Secret.

The season tickets for the recitals by these artists are now on sale at The Varsity Store every night from 6:30 to 8:00, for $3.00 each; or in other words, you can hear all three recitals for a sum less than you would pay to hear one recital in the city.

In order that many students may have an opportunity to hear these artists, a prize of $25.00 will be given to the student selling the highest number; a prize of $10.00 to the student selling the second highest number, and one free ticket for the sale of twelve. Go to Harlow's now and select your seat.

yard line. The oval missed the goal post by inches and it was State's ball on its own 20-yard line.

The Penn State backfield failed to crack the Penn line in three attempts and Higgins punted to Bell, who ran the ball back to his 47-yard line. The period ended at this juncture. Score: State 0, Penn 0.

State Line Makes Game Stand

Bell was thrown for a six yard loss on an attempted end run. Brunner then punted fifty-five yards to Way, who fumbled. The ball was recovered by Helme Miller for Penn on State's 8-yard line. Hacked up against their own goal line, the Penn State line put up a wonderful defense. Two line bucks by Light and Derr netted but a scant yard. A forward pass, Derr to Ray Miller, gained an additional yard. On the fourth down, Way intercepted a forward pass intended for Helme Miller and the pigskin went to Penn State on its own 10-yard line.

Way recoiled eighteen yards around right end. Higgins failed to gain on two line bucks and Higgins punted to Bell, who was downed on his 32-yard line. Brunner immediately returned the kick and Way was downed on his 25-yard line by Maynard. Robb sliced off four yards through right tackle. Snell failed to gain and Way, on the third down, made only two of the six yards still to go.

Higgins punted to Brunner, who misjudged the ball entirely on a costly fumble that was finally recovered by Conover on Penn's 2-yard line. With the chance for a touchdown so close at hand, the Penn State backfield gathered itself together for a mighty effort. Snell, Haines and Way smashed into the line on three successive bucks, but on the fourth down the ball still rested six inches from the Penn goal line.

Robb Dives Through For Touchdown

On the final attempt, however, Harry Robb catapulted through right tackle for the only touchdown of the game. Higgins made a perfect punt-out to Way, and Conover continued the goal work by driving the pigskin squarely between the goal posts for a goal. Score: State 7, Penn 0.

Ray Miller booted the ball to Haines on the kick-off and the latter was brought to earth on his 40-yard line. Pearce went in for Brunner. In two tries State made three yards through the line. Higgins punted to Pearce, who ran the wheelbarrow back twelve yards to his 32-yard line. Pearce skirted right end for two yards. Light added six more around right end and followed up with a plunge through the line for three yards and a first down. Light attempted a forward pass, but was thrown for a five yard loss before he could get the ball away. On the following play Haines intercepted Light's forward pass on Penn's 42-yard line just as the half ended. Score: State 7, Penn 0.

Penn Starts Second Half With Rush

At the opening of the second half, Hopper replaced Ray Miller at left end in the Penn line-up. Conover kicked to Pearce, who returned the ball to his 44-yard line before being Miss Hinkle will be the first attraction of the course and will appear here Friday, November fourth, in the Auditorium at eight o'clock. It is most important that each individual who attends this course make an effort to be in the Auditorium before eight at each program, for no one will be admitted during the rendition of any group of songs on the program. The authors will keep the doors closed and all activity of sending people will cease upon the artist's appearance upon the stage. This courtesy towards the audience as well as toward those of the audience who have come in time, is necessary, and will be strictly adhered to.

Miss Hinkle will sing the soprano solo with the Ontario Society in Philadelphia when that organization will present Gounod's Redemption at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Without exception the critics of Boston have fervently praised upon Miss Hinkle. The same flawless beauty of voice, the peerless artistry and intelligence that have won such high esteem in American societies are shown in her recital. Discerning orchestral conductors and choral directors have chosen Miss Hinkle on countless occasions as the artist of acknowledged superiority among the still broader domain of recitalists. Miss Hinkle has proven herself to be a singer, who "has at her command a mastery of technique that is rare upon the concert platform; her voice itself is one of great beauty which she knows how to color admirably."

dragged to earth by the Penn State forwards. In three desperate lunges through the line, Derr, Pearce and Light made eleven yards and a first down. Light and Derr in two attempts cracked the line for a total gain of five yards. Light failed to gain on an end run and Bell sent up a weak kick, which went out of bounds on State's 40-yard line.

Robb was thrown before he could penetrate the Penn line. Snell gained two yards on a buck through tackle. Way was thrown for a loss of two yards and received an injury to his shoulder which necessitated first aid treatment on the field. Higgins punted to Bell, who was downed on his 40-yard line. The ball was recovered by Helme Miller for Penn on State's 8-yard line. Hacked up against their own goal line, the Penn State line put up a wonderful defense. Two line bucks by Light and Derr netted but a scant yard. A forward pass, Derr to Ray Miller, gained an additional yard. On the fourth down, Way intercepted a forward pass intended for Helme Miller and the pigskin went to Penn State on its own 10-yard line.

Way recoiled eighteen yards around right end. Higgins failed to gain on two line bucks and Higgins punted to Bell, who was downed on his 32-yard line. Brunner immediately returned the kick and Way was downed on his 25-yard line by Maynard. Robb sliced off four yards through right tackle. Snell failed to gain and Way, on the third down, made only two of the six yards still to go.

Hurwitz Store

Just received a large shipment of Bostonians and E. T. Wright & Co. Cordovan Shoes.

Fall and Winter overcoats now on display. Look 'em over.

Your Patronage Appreciated. Give Us a Trial

M. Hurwitz
Allen St.

A New Shipment of the

H. C. Lee

Golf Clubs

JUST IN

Caddy Bags

GOLF WHITE PAINT

"COLONEL" BALLS

THE MUSIC ROOM

and on the next play plowed through for two yards and a first down. Robb failed to gain on an end run, but a forward pass, Robb to Higgins, netted six yards. A second attempt at a forward pass grounded and Cubbage fell back to try a gain from placement from the 27-yard line. The ball hit one of the uprights, however, then bounded over the goal line and was Penn's ball on her 20-yard line.

Light failed to gain on a line buck and Bell punted to Way, who was downed on State's 37-yard line. Kilinger was sent in to replace Way. Haines hit off six yards through right tackle. Snell failed to gain, but Robb succeeded in making two yards through the line. Higgins punted to Pearce, who fumbled the ball, and then recovered in time to run it back five yards to his 20-yard line.

Pearce made five yards on a line buck and Light followed with a four yard gain off tackle. Derr made it first down with a smash through center. Derr again hit the line for a six yard gain, but the ball was recalled and State penalized five yards for off-side play. Derr gained two yards and Light made the last play of the quarter, but recovering without a loss. Score: State 7, Penn 0.

State Attack Gains Punct

With the opening of the fourth quarter, the Penn State attack became stronger than ever before. Brunner, who replaced Derr at the opening of the quarter, punted to Robb and the latter returned it to his own 45-yard line. On a fake kick, Robb made four yards through the line. In the three succeeding plays, Robb, Haines and Kilinger tore through for twelve yards and a first down. Robb made four yards on a reverse play and then shot a forward pass into the waiting arms of Higgins for a twenty-nine yard advance. This brought the oval to Penn's 25-yard line.

Titze replaced Maynard at left tackle for Penn. Snell met stonewall resistance on an attempted line buck. State was penalized five yards for delaying the game, but Robb came right back and made up the loss with a plunge off right tackle. Alec Way replaced Deller and Helx Way took over Bell's post at quarterback for the Red and Blue eleven.

Conover Boots Field Goal

On the third down, with ten yards to go, Conover took his stand on Penn's 25-yard line for his second try at a placement kick. The ball soared straight as an arrow between the uprights and the Penn State score was enriched by three additional points. Score: State 10, Penn 0.

At this stage of the game darkness had settled over Franklin Field to the extent that it was almost impossible to distinguish ball, players, or officials in the murk. The pigskin oscillated back and forth between the two 15-yard lines and the contest resolved itself into an exchange of punts between Higgins and Brunner, with the former having a shade the better of the going. After several such exchanges Brunner finally got off a punt which rolled over the State goal line just as "Tiny" Maxwell's whistle announced the end of the most bitterly fought contest seen on Penn's gridiron in many years. Final score: State 10, Penn 0.

A SAVING THAT BELONGS TO YOU

SOME writer once said: that it took him so long to make up his mind that he must have an awful lot of it.

It didn't take us long to make up our minds what to do when we found that prices had advanced since we bought our fall goods that our clothing is worth much more than it was a few months ago.

We decided that the saving we made on our early buying belonged to you; and you're going to get it in the best clothes made.

They're here in all the new styles; "belters", double-breasteds, the new Varsity suits; guaranteed to satisfy you—money back if they don't.

MONTGOMERY & CO.
The Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes

DR. DYE NOW HEAD OF ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The Department of English, perhaps the largest single department of the College and certainly larger now than ever before, had undergone some radical changes in organization to meet the great increase in the student body. Professor Dye is now acting head of the department, while Professor Fettes is in charge of the newly-created Department of English Literature. Owing to the number of Freshman sections, eight new instructors have been engaged for the second semester. There are at present 1700 students of English, and by February this number will be increased to 2000.

Under the direction of M. K. Clo-uth, instructor in English and coach of the Theban production for this season, the department will produce two short Christmas plays, to be presented shortly before college closes for the Christmas holidays. One will be Dickens' "Christmas Carol", while the other will be one of the old English morality plays. It is expected that about thirty men and women will be needed from which to choose the casts for the two plays, and all those interested are urged to be present at the trials to be held next Tuesday night at eight-thirty in Old Chapel.

If You Break Your Glasses or you are suffering with headaches or eyestrain--See,

Dr. Eva B. Roan
522 E. College Ave.

Distinctive Jewelry and Souvenirs

The Athletic Store, Inc.
On Co-op Corner

J. C. Smith & Son
DEALER IN General Hardware
Builders' Materials, Oils, Paints, Glass, Ammunition, Stoves, Roofing, Spouting, Etc.
State College, Pa.

Dress Suits
Made and Altered
a Specialty

Henry Grimm
The TAILOR
206 East College Avenue

Copyright 1919, Hart Schaffner & Marx